Basket Dinner To Honor Californian

Sunday dinner guests at the L. B. Bougey home were Mrs. Lou Reardon of Los Gatos, Cal., Mrs. Nellis Madsen and daughter, Nancy and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Comer. A basket dinner is being planned to be held at the Methodist church on Sunday, July 22 right after the morning services. This dinner is honoring Mrs. Reardon and making it possible for her friends to meet her before she returns to her California home. Mrs. Reardon (Mrs. Lou McCarrroll) is a former Union resident. Her friends are invited to bring their dinners and enjoy a visit with their former friend.

W.S.C.S. Meeting Is Held Thursday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the home of Mrs. Todd on Thursday afternoon, July 22. There was a fine attendance. Guests were Mrs. Ona Kunkel of Nehawka, Mrs. Cassell, sister of Mrs. Kunkel, Mrs. Mitchell Rich, Mrs. Melvin Todd, Mrs. Russ Schaefer, Mrs. John McQuin and Joan Swan. After the business period Mrs. Snodgrass then had charge of the study period in which she gave a fine review on topic "Co-operation in Church, Home and the Community." Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Melvin Todd and Mrs. Russ Schaefer.

Lowell Schaefer Is Birthday Honoree

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schaefer entertained in honor of their little son, Lowell's 6th birthday last Sunday afternoon at their home. Games were played by the little folks after which a number of pictures were taken. Then came the most exciting time of all—the opening of all those packages. Lowell did the act very nicely and thanked each guest for their gift. The little guests were then invited to the dining room for their lunch. A fine, large birthday cake held six candles. Mrs. Rich, aunt of Lowell, had baked a circus cake which really was quite a work of art. The favors were balloons and candy. Guests present were Mrs. Donald McQuin, Donna and Patty, Bobby Harrah, David Atchery, Mrs. Mitchell Rich and twin daughters, Iola Mae and Irene Fae, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell McQuin and daughters, Marcia Ann and Mary, Mrs. John Klimm, Dorothy Niday, Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer of Brock, grandparents of Lowell and Mrs. Todd.

George Hathaway and family, formerly of Oklahoma, have moved to Union and are located in the Cora Hathaway apartments. George is employed in Nebraska City having a job with the News-Press.

Mrs. Emma Willis and Jane Sheard are spending a few days in Lincoln where they are visiting relatives.

Union 4-H Cooks Meet Recently

The Union 4-H Cooks met with Barbara Banning on July 9th. All members were present, but Judy Atchery. Some of the girls brought ingredients for meat loaf, cup cakes, pudding and lettuce salad. Lunch was served by the hostess which consisted of ice cream, candy and a drink. The food which the girls had prepared was also served. The next meeting will be July 13 with Carolyn Brannon. We will can beans.

Insects Costly To Stored Grain

LINCOLN—Insects which attack stored grain usually take a bigger bite out of farm and elevator income than the pests which hit growing crops. That's the word from University of Nebraska entomologists and agronomists. They say that too often the loss from these tiny robbers is overlooked. They cite this farm storage study in Kansas which revealed that:

A 3 per cent insect damage in store next wheat resulted in a loss of one and eight tenths pounds per bushel in test weight. That meant a financial loss of two cents per bushel for lowering the grade from No. 2 to 3, another five and one-tenth cents for loss of weight and an additional discount to cover the cost of fumigation.

The total loss to farmer or elevator operator was nine to 12 cents per bushel for insect damage alone. The experts say that losses to Nebraska farmers from deterioration of stored grain have ranged from 30 to 90 cents per bushel on wheat which was graded "unfit for human consumption." There are also substantial discounts for sample grade and rye-mixed wheat in addition to insect infestation.
