McLaughlin-Peterson Vows Are Solemnized July 20th

The marriage of Miss Mary McLaughlin, daughter of Mrs. Stella McLaughlin of Elmwood, to Merlin LeRoy Peterson of Dunbar, was solemnized at the Elmwood Christian church at 6:30 p. m. July 20, 1951. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Elby Boosinger of Alma in the presence of 200 relatives and friends.

Miss Marlene Eidenmiller played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Joan Backenmeyer, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Edith William, maid of honor, wore a gown of orchid sheer organza with matching taffeta skirt. She carried a bouquet of mint-green and white flowers. Miss Beth Mendenhall, bridesmaid, wore a mint-green gown, identical to the maid of honor's. She carried a colonial bouquet of orchid and white asters.

The bride wore a gown of white mark-a-sheer styled with a high round neckline, outlined with a ruffle of imported chantilly lace. The long, tight sleeves came to points at the wrist. Her full skirt fell from a fitted bodice to tiptoe length and ended in a cathedral train. Her double tiered veil of sheer illusion fell from a halo of satin trimmed with pearls and crystal beads. She wore a three-strand pearl necklace, a gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Richard Koch of Dunbar and Miss Donna Swartz of Elmwood lighted the candles. Gilford Koch was ringbearer and Miss Diane Enke was flower girl. Richard Kirchoff of Weeping Water was best man. Arthur Dettmer was groom's attendant. Robert McLaughlin, Raips Emshoff and Eddie Wohlers were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Roberta Kunz of Weeping Water was in charge of the guest book and Miss Lillian Klemme of Murdock and Miss Lois Noel of Weeping Water arranged the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of Elmwood high school and has been employed at an Elmwood grocery. The groom is a graduate of Avoca high school and is now serving in the army. Mrs. Peterson will reside at Elmwood while her husband serves in Alaska.

Lewiston Social Circle Club Meets

The July meeting of the Lewiston Social Circle club was held at the community center with Mrs. Ben Albin and Mrs. Keith Hostetter as hostesses.

The president, Mrs. Lloyd Lewis, led the group in the business and social affairs of the club.

The August meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Henry Hobscheidt Wednesday, August 22. This date was chosen to give the club a chance to use some special material from the extension service.

Lunch of ice cream, cake and cold drink was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manasek, Beverly and Bobby, visited Mrs. Manasek's aunt, Mrs. Martha Bates Sunday. The Manaseks have just returned from a two weeks vacation spent in the northern Minnesota lake country which they enjoyed very much.

Miss Joan Gradoville Is Bride Of Elmer Petrask

Saturday morning, July 21, 1951, at 10 o'clock at the Holy Rosary church in Plattsmouth Miss Joan Gradoville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Gradoville, Plattsmouth, became the bride of Elmer Petrask, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Petrask, Friend, Neb.

Father Edward Tuckek officiated at the double ring ceremony. Pink and white gladioli and greenery decorated the background.

Miss Kathleen Feldhausen accompanied Don Clifford who sang "Ave Maria."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding an ivory satin gown featuring a fitted bodice, lace covered Queen Anne collar, long pointed sleeves, peplum with lace inset covered with seed pearls and crystal flats, and a full gathered skirt ending in a 3 yard train. Her full length sweetheart veil of tulle and lace was held in place by a satin tiara trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. Gerald Blatchford, Lincoln, was matron of honor. Her gown was of green and white marquisette over green taffeta with a fitted bodice and gathered skirt. She wore a green headband and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

A wedding dinner in the Pine Room at the Plattsmouth Hotel honored the bridal party and the immediate families.

The bride attended St. John's grade school and graduated from Plattsmouth high school and University of Nebraska College of Nursing. She has served on the staffs of Clarkson, Lincoln General and Omaha Veterans hospitals.

The groom is a graduate of Friend high school. He served with the army overseas and is a lieutenant in the reserves. At present he is attending the University of Nebraska where he is affiliated with Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity, and will graduate in August.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Lincoln.

St. John's Guild Meets Monday

St. John's Guild met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Woolcott Monday evening, July 23.

The group sewed articles in readiness for the bazaar which is to be held in the fall. The finished articles, aprons and pillow cases were displayed.

Hostesses were Mrs. Otto Weber, Mrs. Robert Whalen and Mrs. Helen Smith. Refreshments were served.

Jimmy Arundel Notes Birthday

Jimmy Don Arundel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Arundel, observed his fourth birthday with a morning party Monday, July 30th at his home in Hillcrest Drive.

Eight playmates from Hillcrest were present to help him celebrate. Birthday cake and ice cream were served.

Girls To Spend Week At Camp

Sandra Young and Merry Jo Williams went to Camp Harriott Harding at Louisville Sunday afternoon. They plan to spend a week there. They were accompanied by their parents, who inspected the camp and watched the girls swim.

Sandra and Merry Joe are from the Ne-Top-Pew Campfire group of Plattsmouth.

Lutheran Ladies Give $25 To Relief

Christ Lutheran Ladies Aid met at the church parlors Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Otto Schafer and Mrs. Arthur Hill as hostesses.

Members of the aid voted to donate $25 toward flood relief in Florence, Kansas. Following the business meeting, the devotional was led by Mrs. Joseph Puls. She chose for her topic "Real Home Missions."

Marilyn Schafer sang "Just for Today," accompanied by Mrs. A. Lentz. Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the afternoon.

John Fischer, former publisher of the Sutton News, visited Thursday afternoon and evening with Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Furse and son, Butch. He is currently a guard at the Nebraska State Penitentiary at Lincoln.

Burton Family Reunion Is Held Here Sunday, July 29

Last Sunday marked the annual reunion of the Burton family which was held in Garfield Park. There were 12 families, consisting of 36 members present.

At an early hour the folks began to gather with well filled baskets of food. At the noon-hour, the ladies spread the food on the tables. Since the meeting of last year, one death, that of Mrs. Elizabeth Burton of Nebraska City, has occurred. There also has been one addition, Edward Vance Burton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Burton of Hastings.

After the noon lunch, Guy C. Burton, chairman of the group, called them together for a short business session. All officers were re-elected. They are Guy C. Burton, president; J. B. Graves, secretary-treasurer, and Jas. Vance was named vice chairman. Mrs. Ona Thimman was elected assistant secretary-treasurer.

Hastings was selected for the 1952 reunion. It will be held the last Sunday in July.

After the business meeting, a short program was presented.

Local Members Host To Sigma Chi Picnic Saturday Evening

Saturday evening the local active of Lincoln chapter Sigma Chi, Allan Carper of Murray, Carl Ote and Gary Ashbaugh of this city were hosts at a picnic party for visiting Omaha and Lincoln members. The picnic was held at a local bathing beach.

In addition to the active members of the chapter a number of young men from Omaha and Lincoln who are entering the University of Nebraska this fall were guests.

Bathing and a fine picnic lunch and refreshments were served to make the event most pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Davis and sons were in Omaha for the week end visiting at the home of Mrs. Emma Johnson, mother of Mrs. Davis and with Misses Laura and Ella Petersen.

Delegates To State Legion Auxiliary Convention Named

The Legion Auxiliary held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon in the lounge of the 40 & 8.

In the absence of President Mildred Hall, Mrs. Mary Jane Dunlap presided over the meeting. The secretary read the call to the convention to be held in Omaha at the Fontenelle hotel, August 17-18-19. Four delegates and alternates were elected.

Delegates are the president, secretary, rehabilitation and child welfare chairmen and Mrs. Dorothy Janacek. Alternates are Mrs. Ruth Krings, Vera Wurga, Bea Brothers and Sophia Wol-e-ver.

Reports were given by the various committees, and the auditing committee reported that books have been audited and are okay. Members of the committee are Mrs. Sophia Wol-e-ver, Mrs. Tena Caldwell and Mrs. Wilma Hennings.

The unit voted to hold a bake sale August 11, and gave $5 to the flood relief project.

Marilyn Stoehr was introduced to the group and gave her report on Girls' State. The Legion Auxiliary and V.F.W. Auxiliary co-sponsored her participation in annual event.

Miss Stoehr had her scrap book of Girls' State activities, which members of the unit enjoyed looking through. In her report Miss Stoehr said they actually did the work of state officials while at Lincoln. They voted in the regular voting booths used by Lincoln, held meetings in the Legislative Chambers and passed and rejected bills. They lived in sorority houses while on the campus. Highlight of the week was a Saturday night dance with members attending Boys' State.

The meeting was closed and refreshments served by Miss Ida Patton, Mrs. Emma McClure, Mrs. La Vetta Baumgart, Mrs. Mignon J. Dunlap and Mrs. Helen Wolcott.

Twenty-Six At Maple Grove Extension Club Meeting

NEHAWA—(Special)—Twenty-six members and guests attended the Maple Grove extension club meeting at the home of Mrs. F. O. Sand. Assisting her were Mrs. Elmer Ross and Mrs. Lynn Anderson. Guests were Mrs. Fred Bischof, Chicago; Mrs. Don Chaloupka, Nebraska City; Mrs. Lucy Lyle, Elmwood; Mrs. Floy Buel, Murdoch; Mrs. C. D. St. John.

Mrs. Hall Pollard presented a very interesting lesson, "If You Were Suddenly Left Alone, What Would You Do?" An interesting discussion was given with the lesson by those present giving their own experiences in legal matters.

Mrs. Ivan Hansen, president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Nelson Berger gave a very interesting report on the recent meeting of the Cass County Council, which she attended at Weeping Water. She listed the lessons for the coming club year, fabrics, old and new; bread and conserving health. An opinion poll of 670 cards were sent out into the county and 234 were returned. Mrs. Berger gave as the highest ranking subjects preferred: Freezing cooked and prepared foods, food preservation and freezing, salads, buffet meals, protective health, home safety. Under sewing those receiving the highest votes were using sewing machine attachments, remodeling tricks, blouses, dresses and aprons.

A poll showed many young women were joining extension clubs. Plans are in progress for a mother's vacation camp for next year. There will also be a tour of new homes in eastern Cass county later in the fall. An interesting special lesson for the women of the county will be "Fun Fixing Flowers."

Maple Grove club and Louisville will have a display at the county fair on "Upholstery."

Delegates elected to attend the state meeting at Grand Island were Mrs. Fred Wehrlein, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Roy Comstock, Greenwood, and Mrs. Clinton Westlake, Eagle. Mrs. Nelson Berger is alternate.

Members brought squares of material, which were sewed into a lap robe for Walter Brittain, a patient at the hospital at Kearney.

Refreshments were served.

her son and daughter of College View were in town on Wednesday. They especially came to see Mrs. Muenchau. Neal and the grandson called at Plybons and reports that his brother, John, is counting on a Cass county visit in late summer or fall.

New Officers Take Over Community Kensington Tasks

Community Kensington was held with Mrs. Stovall on Thursday afternoon with the new officers in charge, Mrs. Ellis Miller being the president. Mrs. Lucy Stege lead the jokes section of the program and Mrs. Stovall presented Joyceola Eidenmiller and George for the musical part. They played two flute and piano duets and Joyceola played a piano solo.

It was decided to have the August meeting in the park, the weather being favorable.

The Legion Auxiliary held their meeting in Legion Hall on July 12. They are asking for a goodly number to be present for the August 9 meeting when they will serve for the veterans.

Male Quartet Gives Concert At Elmwood

The male quartette from York College gave a concert at the E. U. B. church on Monday evening. They are on a good will tour on which their schedule is to be in several states, and with around 8,000 miles of travel. Rev. E. F. Haist was the chairman, Rev. Overton Turner lead in the prayer and Rev. J. A. Adams in the closing prayer.

The first part of the program consisted of sacred songs and hymns sung in beautiful harmony. "My Cathedral" being one of them.

There was a group of solos, vocal piano and trumpet, and a section of music in a lighter vein with varied numbers. There were spirituals, a "Barber Shop" imitation number, and at the close a Navy Prayer song.

One interesting feature was their so called "commercial." The pianist and the four young men each told why they attended this college and from whence they came. One was from Colorado, two from Kansas, one from Iowa, others from this state. Three were preparing for the ministry, one for a doctor, and the pianist for a music career.

They stressed the friendliness on the campus, and the strong spiritual and educational features. They also told of the new building and bad pictures for display.

The boys were entertained in the homes of Mrs. Rosenkoetter, August Oehlerking and the Haist parsonage. Also they were invited to the home of Supt. Colvin for ice cream and coffee after the program. Both Mr. and Mrs. Colon are from this university and two of the teachers for next year were formerly graduated there, too.

Jim Schlanker is now a new patient at the Ebeler Nursing Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kunz were Lincoln visitors Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Briggs, Fremont, were dinner guests at the Don J. Arundel home Sunday. Jimmy Arundel, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Briggs, whose birthday was July 30, was the honoree.
