Bar Association Feted Saturday
Saturday members of the Cass county bar association enjoyed a few hours in the wide open spaces, as guests of Attorney and Mrs. Guy L. Clements and Attorney and Mrs. Dwight Clements.
The barristers and their families were invited to spend the afternoon at the Clements cottage at South Bend. The members of the party had a delightful time in boating and some in fishing, as well as participating in the fine luncheon that had been arranged by the ladies of the group.

Garfield Park Is Reserved August 19
The members of the city park board and Mayor Clement Woster have arranged for the exclusive right to Garfield park in this city for Sunday, August 19th. This is the occasion of the annual Rock Bluffs old settlers reunion and also the reception to Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore of Murray. This is the 50th anniversary of Dr. Gilmore in the active practice of medicine.
More extended notice of the program will be given later in the Journal.
William Chambers, operator of a saw mill near Pacific Junction, was in the city Friday to look after some matters of business.
