

Weeping Water

(Opal E. Wallick)

Mr. and Mrs. Murlin Fernbaugh and daughter, Joyce of Grand Island visited here Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Binger.

Returns From Long European Cruise

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Philpot have received word that their grandson, Marvin, has arrived at his home in Garden City, Kan., after several months cruising in European waters. Before returning to the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis, Md., Marvin will accompany his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Philpot to California where he will visit with his maternal grandparents for the first time in three years.

Mrs. E. W. LaRue is assisting Stanley Wood with the Weeping Water Transfer monthly posting of bills this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Hanlan and Mrs. Carl E. Day drove to Plattsmouth on Wednesday of this week.

The Weeping Water Community Club met Thursday noon at the WigWam for its weekly dinner and business meeting. President Walter Roberts presided during the meeting.

Loans

$1,000 or Less

LOANS MADE ANYWHERE

Write or Come in

AMERICAN LOAN PLAN

O. T. NICHOL, JR., Mgr.
112 No. 5th St. Ph. 3213
Plattsmouth

Raymond Jensen Suffers Snake Bite

Raymond Jensen, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sigvald Jensen, was bitten by a snake while picking blackberries this week. Mr. Jensen had the same misfortune last week while picking beans, neither have suffered serious complications from the bites.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roberts drove to Lincoln Thursday evening after banking hours here. Mrs. Clifford Cooper, who was a recent surgery patient at St. Mary's hospital in Nebraska City returned here to her home Thursday.

Rain Postpones Band Concerts

The weekly band concert has become the weekly rain date. A late afternoon rainstorm postponed the concert again. Heavy winds with quite an electrical storm brought an inch of rain. Music lovers could, however, listen to the dance music of Ross Nichols and his Four Pennies.

Jerry Stone visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Wallick Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Domingo, John, Mary and Miss Leah Noble are on their return trip home from the west coast, having made Hardin, Mont., the first of the week. They were making a brief visit with John Swindle, their brother-in-law. Mr. Swindle had expected to make the California trip with the Domingos but late developments made the trip impossible at the time they went. The Western vacationers will be here the first of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Domingo, John, Mary and Miss Leah Noble are on their return trip home from the west coast, having made Hardin, Mont., the first of the week. They were making a brief visit with John Swindle, their brother-in-law. Mr. Swindle had expected to make the California trip with the Domingos but late developments made the trip impossible at the time they went. The Western vacationers will be here the first of next week.

Swim Week Gets Underway Monday

Red Cross swim week started Monday, Aug. 6. For those who are interested in either beginner or advanced swimming at South Bend, the place of meeting is the corner by the Nebraska State Bank. The time is between 12:45-1:00 o'clock. Instructors and life guards are provided by the Red Cross.

Twins Born To Willard Wipf's

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wipf are parents of twin babies, born August 1st at St. Mary's hospital in Nebraska City. Rev. and Mrs. S. K. Wipf are the paternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jennis are the maternal grandparents.

Roberta Knaup, Sara Lorenson and Mary Nichols returned here from Camp Kiwanis Saturday, after a week's camping there.

James Fitzpatrick, ACAN, who arrived here last Saturday from Pensacola, Fla., at the Offutt Air Base, went with his parents, Mrs. Arthur Fitzpatrick to Wyoming Monday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. William Seymour and family. Going to Omaha Saturday he visited with Miss Ellen Fitzpatrick, his cousin. James leaves for his Florida base this week end.

Cpl. Roger Bickford of Camp Travis, Calif., arrived here on a two week furlough. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bickford, Nancy, Reggie and Miss Barbara Kepingler met him in Omaha Sunday evening.

Pvt. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor left Tuesday evening for Omaha for Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor, Sr., Darlene, Beverly Ann and Mrs. Lawrence Smith took them to Omaha Union Station.

Leonard T. Little Home On Leave

Pfc. Leonard T. Little is here spending his furlough from army life with his mother, Mrs. Martha Little, Wednesday. Mrs. Little and daughter, Mrs. Clarence Wilson and Pfc. Little were in Omaha during which time they stopped in at Offutt Field, Ft. Crook.

Sgt. Lloyd Barkhurst was home over the week end from Forbes Air Base, Topeka, Kan., with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Barkhurst. Sgt. William Mutter was also here from Forbes Air Base for the week end with his wife and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Norris and family, Mrs. Grace Coppel all enjoyed a picnic outing at Steinhart Park last Sunday.

Maureen Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Morris, returned here from Denver where she had been visiting with her grandfather, D. E. Moss. Mrs. Morris' brother brought Maureen back by car and visited here for a few hours and left for the return trip to Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gray and Dale of Seward were here Saturday evening. Dale stayed here as a week end guest of Lanny Ludwick while his parents drove to Plattsmouth where they were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pils.

Mrs. Alice Whitcomb, Miss Laura Whitcomb and Miss Alice Whitcomb of Fremont were visiting here last week for several days with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Arthur Meeske and family.

Gives Dinner In Honor Of Mother

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Heneger gave a dinner in honor of her mother, Mrs. Eugene Colbert. Attending the dinner were Mr. Colbert, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Colbert, Jim and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Colbert, Sue and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Van Every, Mrs. C. E. Pool, Miss Hazel and Miss Eloise Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Doty and Miss Winona Doty.

Mrs. B. M. Hebbard of Council Bluffs is visiting with her son, Francis and family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Fish and son of Columbus visited over last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Jameson. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoback and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoback visited Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hoback of Avoca. Miss Pearl Schuitz spent the week end in Seward at the home of her parents.

Bonnie Morse Tells Of Coming Marriage

Announcements were received here this week end of the coming marriage of Miss Bonnie Morse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morse of Crete to Donald W. Downs. The wedding date has been set for Sunday afternoon, August 19 at the Grace Methodist Church in Crete. Mr. Morse is a former Weeping Water resident, having moved from here in the middle 1920's.

The Retired Farm Ladies Club met last Friday afternoon for their last meeting of the summer with Mrs. R. L. Hoback. Mrs. Hoback served delicious refreshments to the nine members present.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schmadeke and family returned here this week from a week's vacation which took them to Alton and Lewis, Kansas. Miss Eloise Pool of Lincoln spent Friday until Monday here with her mother, Mrs. C. E. Pool and sister, Miss Hazel Pool.

Wayne Cherry visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Cherry last week end. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Mayfield who have been vacationing for the summer months returned this week from Denver for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rector and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Boekelman have moved into the new home on Mrs. Lucy Schick Stege's farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner of Humboldt were Tuesday guests of his sister, Mrs. Wm. Whitney.

Mrs. Marion Pratt Ellers received the degree of Bachelor of Education, at the close of the State Normal Peru summer school.

Jolly Health Club Plans Picnic Party

The Jolly Health Cooking Club met at the home of their leader, Miss Margaret Ranney, with a roll call for each member to respond with a good picnic idea. The lesson was on picnic suppers, salads, and sandwiches. Miss Ranney gave a salad demonstration while Myrna Van Horn made sandwiches of ground ham and pickles. Spice cup cakes were judged according to our 4-H club rules and all were given a first. Games were played as usual. The next meeting had as lesson, Canning, with Mrs. J. M. Ranney showing how to can applesauce. She also told about the most important rules in judging canned fruits, vegetables, remembering their appearance, quality, uniformity and the pleasing flavor. Roll call was made with each member responding to a canning help. Achievement day is to be held following the Cass County Fair. This is a two week's report of the health club.

Gives Dinner In Honor Of Mother

Mrs. Betty Doyle and daughter, Kathy, of El Reno, Okla., visited here briefly with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potts last Friday. Mrs. Doyle left for Omaha where she visited with her brother, Colonel Harold and Mrs. Hinds and family until Sunday. They returned here and Mrs. Arthur Berthold and Fatty returned to El Reno with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Porter visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Kopf of Greeley while they were on their Colorado vacation.

Eight Weeping Water people are glad that summer school is over for this season. Mrs. J. Marion Stone, L. A. Malstead, P. H. Hines, Mrs. James Kivett, Mrs. Richard Hollenbeck, Miss Maude Baldwin, Mrs. Richard TenHulzen and Clayton TenHulzen have just completed a full summer session, having made daily trips to Lincoln and their studies at the University of Nebraska.

Elmwood

MRS. GRACE PLYBON, Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weisheit and family called at the Will Holke home Sunday morning. In the afternoon they went to Lincoln, and in the evening they called on Mrs. Mary Lau, Ella, and Anna at Murdock.

Briggs Observes 92nd Birthday

On August 2nd, M. S. Briggs was 92 years old. Mrs. Mary McCaig, Linhardt, presented him with a bouquet of garden flowers and Mrs. Ebeler decorated an angel food birthday cake. In the early afternoon his daughter, Mrs. Fred Franzen and her husband came from Omaha and brought ice cream and cake. Later in the day, after the shower, Mr. and Mrs. Plybon were guests when Mr. Briggs blew out the candles. With the cake, the hostess served ice cream for those present in the household.

Mr. and Mrs. LaMoyné Spohn and daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rosenow were picnic supper guests with Martha Hoover, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Boekelman have moved into the new home on Mrs. Lucy Schick Stege's farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner of Humboldt were Tuesday guests of his sister, Mrs. Wm. Whitney.

Mrs. Marion Pratt Ellers received the degree of Bachelor of Education, at the close of the State Normal Peru summer school.

Mrs. Weigert has returned from the hospital and is now a patient in the home of Mrs. Fred Wilken.

Bornemeier Helps Flood Victims

The Leader-Echo published a fine "thank you letter" which Norman Bornemeier received from a pastor at Marion, Kansas after the truck load of goods and $30 cash was given there. The Community Kensington sent five dollars to Kansas. Others pay through the Red Cross.

Tuesday dinner guests at the Fred Weisheit home were Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Neill and Alice, of Unadilla, Larry Christianson of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Mary Lau and Ella of Murdock, and Mrs. Carl Kupke of Greenwood.

Nehawka

Nehawka

By Mrs. F. O. Sand

Mrs. A. P. Stahurski and Donald were guests the past week at the Jack Hines home. Mr. Stahurski came Saturday and Mr. and Mrs. Hines drove them to their home in Omaha Sunday.

REAL ESTATE LOANS!

5% Percent Interest Charge Reduced for each monthly payment.

Plattsmouth Loan & Building Ass'n.

Plattsmouth Loan & Building Ass'n.

Mrs. Zink Leaves For European Tour

An item of interest to Cass County people is the journey now being taken by Mrs. Harriet Rogers Zink. She left Lincoln July 31, to sail for Europe, then on to Cairo, Egypt. The plan is to go camel back to view the pyramids. Next trip is to go to the Holy Land by air. Coming back through Europe again she expects to arrive in New York City about Oct. 3rd, and to be at home in Lincoln two weeks later, after visiting relatives in different states. Friends count on interesting travelogues later on.

Birthday Parties Held Near Palmyra

On Sunday there was an interesting occasion at the home of the Lloyd Kunz family near Palmyra. Honored guests were Mrs. Sara Spohn of Weeping Water, LaMoyné Spohn, Harlan Kunz and Lloyd Kunz whose birthdays were this week. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kunz and Myron, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Kunz and Ona, Mr. and Mrs. LaMoyné Spohn, Carolyn and Jolene, Sarah, Spohn, Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Kunz and Shirlene of Talmage, and Herbert Blumm of South Bend. A fine picnic dinner was enjoyed.

Wm. Whitney is employed in government work at Wahoo, Nebraska, he is fortunate to be able to serve after his severe injury of some months ago.

Water Systems Heating

Rod & Jet Systems Lennox Furnaces

Plumbing . . .

Koehler, American Standard, Briggs, American Kitchen

Frigidaire Appliances

Refrigerators — Food Freezers Washers — Ironers — Stoves

WELL DRILLING

Cub Scouts Will Visit State Capitol

Plattsmouth Cub scouts will enjoy a tour of Nebraska's capitol city, Lincoln, Wednesday, August 8th. Commissioner Doran Bowman states. The Cubs are to meet at the Hotel Plattsmouth at 8 a.m. on Wednesday where they will board a chartered bus for Lincoln.

The visit will include tours of Morrill Hall, zoo and many other places of interest.

J. Howard Davis LAWYER

Sennichsen Building Phone 264 Plattsmouth

BANISH ODORS electrically-odor-Ban*

NO BOTTLE • NO SPRAY • NO WICK

Just insert Deodorant O-B-B cake in Odor-Ban, plug in AC, DC outlet. Quickly banishes room odors. Leaves pleasant fragrance. Available Medicinal O-B-Cakes and Non-O-B-Cakes

Cass Drug

169

Classified Ad in The Journal costs as little as 35c.

ANNOUNCING THE OPENING OF Muenchau Well & Suppy Company

EAGLE, NEBRASKA ON

Thursday, August 9th

at 6:30 P.M.

FREE GIFTS for LADIES

Water Systems Heating

Rod & Jet Systems Lennox Furnaces

Plumbing . . . Koehler, American Standard, Briggs, American Kitchen

Frigidaire Appliances Refrigerators — Food Freezers Washers — Ironers — Stoves

WELL DRILLING

Remember! . . . Our CLOSE OUT SALE Is Still In Progress COME IN!

532 MAIN ST.

WALT'S MARKET

PLATTSMOUTH