Last Rites For Lydia Muenchau Held Tuesday

Elmwood (Special) — Lydia Ann Reiter, daughter of Henry and Henrietta Reiter was born at Hosensach, Penn., April 1, 1862, and passed away at her apartment home in Elmwood, July 28th being over 89 years of age.

When a child she moved with her family to Ackley, Iowa, where they lived for a few years and in 1877 they came in a covered wagon to a farm near Murdock.

She was married to Frederick Muenchau Sept. 29, 1879. They were the parents of three daughters and six sons.

She was a member of the Evangelical church for many years, first at Callahan and later at Elmwood after they moved to this place. She was honored at the church here on several occasions. She belonged to the Missionary Aid Society for goodly number of years.

She enjoyed much the winter she spent with her daughter, Lillie, in Long Beach, California. They also had the privilege of visiting in Pennsylvania in recent years.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1923 and later on by two sons and two daughters. Those now surviving are her daughter, Lillie, sons, William, Fred, and Bert of Eagle and Ben of Alvo. There are 22 grandchildren and 33 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the E.U.B. church on Tuesday afternoon. The pastor Rev. E. F. Haist talked on the subject, "The Journey of Life". Piano music furnished by Mrs. Norman Bornemeier. A quartet composed of Mrs. Harry Greene, Mrs. Joe Kunz, Henry Bornemeier, and Alvin Rueter sang "Good Morning Up There", and "The Two Ladies sang the duet, "Beyond The Sunset". At the close Mrs. G. Clements sang "The Close of a Perfect Day".

The flowers were arranged in a distinctive way. Among the other bouquets there were two large cross shaped floral designs, and a large basket of flowers in the center.

Casket bearers were her grandsons, Edward, Keith, Muri and Morris Muenchau and Hilliard and Harvey Smith.

Final resting place was in Elmwood cemetery, with arrangements by Clements mortuary.

and Ralph Krause of Elmwood.

Elmwood Soldier Back From Korea

Pfc. Delazon L. Teel of Elmwood was one of 43 Nebraska service men to return to the United States from the Korean war Friday. Teel along with 4,736 other Korean veterans, arrived at Seattle on a naval transport.

The group was the largest to return from Korea on a single ship since the rotation program started.

Final Rites Are Held Friday For Joe Shera, 48

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at Sattler Funeral Chapel for Joe Shera, Rock Bluff resident, who died at his home Tuesday, July 31, 1951. He was 48 years old.

Rev. J. W. Taenzler of Glenwood officiated at the service. Mrs. Richard Havel sang, accompanied by Mrs. Jess Hodge. Pallbearers were Earl Harshbarger, Ray Becker, Henry Kuhns, Warren Richter, Dr. O. A. Sandin and Ira Fitchhorn.

Mr. Shera had been ill for several weeks prior to his death and had recently returned from an Omaha hospital after a heart attack.

Born at Rock Bluffs, May 20, 1903, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William S. Shera. He had been employed by the Corps of Engineers. Mr. Shera was a member of the First Christian church.

Surviving are his wife, Effa; one son, Charles R. Shera; a sister, Mrs. Emma Stodola; one brother, Paul; two uncles, John and Will Smith; an aunt, Mrs. James Holmes, and one grandson.

Burial was in Rock Bluff cemetery.

Historic Cass Building Will Make Home Here

Officer Fred Vincent of the city police is engaged in building a house on lots owned by him on Wintersteen Hill. Fred recently purchased a large frame building near Union owned by Carl Nickles that he has dismantled and is using the lumber in the new house.

The building that was wrecked was one of the historic structures in the south part of Cass county. It was the last building on the old townsite of Factoryville, southwest of Union, a village that existed for many years prior to the building of the Missouri Pacific and the establishment of Union. At one time the building was a hotel in Factoryville and reputed to have stood for some ninety years.

Dick Quinnett Is On Ten-Day Leave From Navy

Dick Quinnett, seaman second class, arrived home Thursday morning for a ten day leave to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Quinnett, Sr., as well as friends.

Dick has been receiving special training at the Norfolk, Virginia, naval training station for the past few weeks and has completed his course and is now ready for active service. On his return east he is expecting to be assigned with the navy in European theatre of activity.

Dick arrived here while his brother, Charles, is home on furlough from Fort Bliss, Texas. He is expecting to be assigned to duty on the west coast.
