Mrs. Ray Norris Cited as Leading Homemaker Sunday

Weeping Water, Special. Mrs. Ray Norris, one of the county's leading homemakers, was interviewed Sunday on a transcribed radio program over an Omaha station. The transcription was made at the Norris home the previous Wednesday.

Mel Hansen, interviewer, cited Mrs. Norris as an outstanding rural homemaker. During her active career, Mrs. Norris has served as a 4-H leader, 16 years; organized the first bird club in the United States; served with 26 4-H groups; led her poultry club to national fame by winning a three-week trip to Ottawa, Canada; and had two state championship teams.

She also served for twelve years as county chairman of the Red Cross, was state chairman of the Federated Women's Clubs for four years, and has been county president of the Woman's Club. She has assisted with the county fair twenty-five years, was a camp fire leader, taught Sunday school and has sung in the church choir. In Eastern Star, she has held the office of Matron, and at present is county chairman of the Home Extension Council, and is secretary of the Executive Staff.

Enjoy Fishing and Boating in North

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Todd, Patty and Denny have returned from a week's vacation in Minnesota where they enjoyed fishing and boating.

Miss Ruby Noerrlinger Is Bride Of Richard Wilson

Miss Ruby Noerrlinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Noerrlinger, Sr., became the bride of Richard Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wilson in a double ceremony performed at the Congregational church at Avoca Saturday evening, August 11, 1951.

The Rev. William Berger read the lines of the wedding ceremony. Large baskets of gladioli and candelabra decorated the church. Pews were marked with pink and white streamers and white bows.

Mrs. Walter E. Noerrlinger, Jr., of Cook, played the wedding music and accompanied John Penney of Verdon, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Bonnie Baker of Union sang, "I Love You Truly."

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of nylon marquisette over satin, fashioned with long pointed sleeves. The skirt ended in a long wide train and her fingertip veil trimmed in Chantilly lace was held in place by a lace tiara with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink and red roses and wore rhinestone jewelry, a gift of the groom.

Sister of the groom, Miss Lois Wilson, gowned in aqua, was maid of honor. Mrs. Gale Bock of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore pink taffeta. Miss Joan Noerrlinger and Mrs. Leonard Haverman, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore yellow and orchid taffeta gowns styled alike. Each wore rhinestone jewelry and carried colonial bouquets.

Peggy Baker of Union and Lesh Doyle of Omaha were flower girls. Doyle Noerrlinger and Gail Ann Bock carried the rings in white gladioli. Miss Bonnie Baker and Miss Betty Doyle were candlelighters.

Ted Wilson served his brother as best man. Larry Wilson of Omaha and Robert and Chester Noerrlinger were attendants, while Gale Bock and Walter Noerrlinger, Jr., ushered.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. A wedding dance was held at Weeping Water. Mrs. Wilson is a graduate of Avoca high school and attended Peru State Teachers College. She taught in Otoe county last year and will teach in Cass county in 1951. Mr. Wilson is also a graduate of Avoca high school. He is farming with his father.

The couple will make their home east of Avoca.

Fourteen Attend Legion Auxiliary Meeting at Eagle

Eagle, Special — The American Legion Auxiliary met at the Legion house on August 6 with fourteen members answering roll call. Mrs. Kate Oberie was a welcome visitor.

The president, Mrs. Pauline Boardman, appointed Mrs. Ida Muenchau and Mrs. Belle May on the finance committee; Mrs. Nina Frohlich and Mrs. Bertha Caddy were appointed to serve on the executive committee.

Plans were made for the officers and the appointed delegates, Mrs. Ida Muenchau and Mrs. Mildred Trumble, the alternate, Mrs. Arlene Frohlich, to attend the state convention which is to be held in Omaha, August 17, 18 and 19.

After the business meeting the Legion members joined in for a delicious lunch served by the hostesses, Mrs. Bertha Caddy and Mrs. Nina Frohlich. The next meeting will be held on September 10 with Mrs. Lerna Doeden and Marale Doeden as hostesses.

Willis Family Reunion Held at Vallery Lake Sunday

UNION—(Special) — The Willis family reunion was held last Sunday at the Vallery lake in the country. There were 38 guests. After a fine picnic dinner of fried chicken, homemade ice cream and many other good eats, the afternoon was spent boat riding, taking pictures and a group of the small girls sang songs for a while. Those attending this enjoyable gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vallery, Mr. and Mrs. Don Mrasek and Roger, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Willis and Charles Brinkman, all of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. J.
