Healthy Seed Advocated

PUBLISHED

VOLUME 70

SIX PAGES

In winning the contest, Miss from supporters throughout the community. Others to receive running support were Janice Hutton, Alvera Haase and Mary

Elizabeth Painter

a superior rating in voice. She

Karnival and was an attendant

Her school activities are many and varied. She has been a school band five years, has sung in the chorus three years, sings est, is stationed at Ft. Riley,

The Ad club expressed its ap-

One Contribution

fund during the past few days.

Dick March, chairman of the fund, said that Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stoehr contributed furnience, Kansas, for distribution,

Is Reported

girls sextet.

sings in the choir.

PLATTSMOUTH, CASS COUNTY, NEBRASKA MONDAY, AUGUST 20, 1951

FIVE CENTS PER COPY

NUMBER 76

Miss Plattsmouth Reckless Driving Title Is Awarded Costs Pair $25; Third Involved Elizabeth Painter

Seventeen-year-old Elizabeth Painter, Plattsmouth high school senior, has been selected to represent Platts- driving. mouth in the Cass County Fair parade at Weeping Water in front of the jail Sunday Wednesday.

Miss Painter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Painter, was elected by the people of Plattsmouth under a program sponsored by the Plattsmouth Business Men's Ad Club. By winning the title, "Miss Plattsmouth," Eliza- a n d through Plattsmouth beth will ride in the Club's float during the parade and streets. will compete with other local entries for Cass County Queen.

O'Donnell.

High School Registration To Be Monday

Registration of high school sophomores, juniors and seniors will be held Monday, August 27, School Superintendent T. I. Friest disclosed today.

Friest said registration will be held from 9 a. m. until noon, and from 1 to 4 p. m. He urges that all upper classmen appear for registration.

But if some students are unable to register next Monday, they are asked to call Principal William Floyd for an appointment. Mr. Floyd will be in his office from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. each day. Telephone number is Freshmen students who were unable to attend Freshman Day activities, and who therefore were unable to register, may also make an appointment with Mr. Floyd for registration.

Mr. Friest also requests that non-resident students bring their free tuition cards with them when they register. He also reminds students that school will start Tuesday, Sep-

Registration will be held at the high school building.

Three Are Fined $80 On Charges In County Court

fined $80 and costs on separate charges of intoxication and disturbing the peace by Judge Ray- Job's Daughters, was in the mond J. Case Monday morning. The three were Joy Baker and Wm. South, both of Borger, Tex., and F. Joe South of Omaha. They were arraigned in county court following a fight at Greenwood Friday night.

Sheriff Tom Solomon gave this account of the fighting. He said the three forced the car of Otto Parris and family from the to the eldest. Charles, the eldhighway at Greenwood Friday night. When Wm. Kelly, Green- Kansas. At home are Patricia, wood marshal, attempted to 15; Nancy, 13, and Bobby, 5. settle the dispute, he was struck | Charles recently returned from by the defendants. Kelly suf- the Korean fighting front. fered a black eye and torn

Solomon said the three then group's float for entry in the went to Lincoln where they were | county fair parade. The float picked up by Lincoln police and | will be unveiled at the parade turned over to Solomon. He Wednesday. James Steube is brought them here Saturday, chairman of the committee where thew were released on making float arrangements.

The sheriff said a pistol was preciation to local citizens for confiscated from William South, one of the three involved. In county court Joy Baker was fined $5 for intoxication and $15 dent that Miss Painter will be for disturbing the peace. The two men paid $15 fines on each for Cass County Queen.

Gridders Will Check Out Gear Here This Week

Candidates for the Plattsmouth high school football team will begin checking out equipment tomorrow, according to a schedule released last week by Coach Merle Stewart.

After obtaining physical examination cards from Stewart Tuesday for a two hour period in the morning. Freshmen are to report Wednesday.

large turnout for the start of ees here Saturday morning. The busy for two hours applying the the football campaign this year, two hour job was designed to strips. which at present includes an make bikes visible during night eight game slate. Practice ses- time hours. sions will probably start later | Slated to start at nine o'clock, little son. Timmy, were in the had been waiting since 6:30 in city Sunday for a short time en the morning. route to Murray where they were vue and William H. Mason of Plattsmouth were each fined $25 and costs in county court Mon-day on a charge of reckless night, the two along with Leonard Bashus, also of Plattsmouth, had pursued a car driven by Thurman Tandy from the Platte river bridge into Plattsmouth

Solomon said he arrested the trio, when Tandy pulled into the sheriff's driveway. Painter drew almost 2,000 votes

All three were charged with reckless driving. Bashus had not appeared in court at noon today.

Rural Teachers Institute To Be Here Monday

Miss Dorothy Armstrong, elementary consultant for a Chicago book company, will direct a workshop during the Rural Teacher's Institute to be held here Monday, August 27. The institute will be held in the auditorium of the Plattsmouth library throughout the day next Monday. Miss Armstrong will conduct the workshop on improved the elementary grades. All Cass county rural school teachers are expected to attend. The institute will open with registration at the county superintendent's office from eight until nine. The workshop will be held from nine to noon and

An employee of a local drug store, "Miss Plattsmouth" has will resume in the afternoon. been on the high school honor While at the institute, rural roll for the past three years. In teachers will also be informed addition to her scholastic hon- of the plans for the Rural ors, she was awarded a superior School Parade held in connecrating for her drum solo as a tion with the King Korn Karfreshman, and as a junior gained nival. And on the list of activities was a Duchess at the King Korn is the signing of loyalty oaths. Nebraska teachers are required at the Junior-Senior Prom this by law to sign loyalty oaths. The oaths will be registered with the county clerk. Loyalty pledges have been mailed to rural teachers for signing. They are then member of the Plattsmouth high to be turned over to secretaries of the school districts.

with the madrigal group, played Ten Attend in the girl's triple trio and the Miss Painter is a member of 40 & 8 State junior class play, and attends the Methodist church where she Convention A native of Plattsmouth, the brown eyed brunette stands five | Ten Plattsmouth men were feet, six inches, and weighs 130 among members of the 40 & 8 pounds. A "few" freckles are attending the state convention Omaha Sunday. Dr. P. T. One of five children in the Heineman, retiring Chef de Painter family, Elizabeth is next Gare, presided.

Attending were C. E. Ledgway, Clyde Rosborough, Roy Holy, Bob Cappell, Tom Walling, E. O. Vroman, Lloyd Behrends, Dr. A. E. Johnson and Don Warga.

Dr. Heineman was succeeded as head of the state group by Clyde F. Cochran of Norfolk. Dr. Currently a committee of Ad Club members is preparing the Heineman is the new Cheminot

At the Sunday session, C. E. Ledgway was a member of the Cappell on the credentials com- discloses. mittee; and Lloyd Behrends on the resolution committee.

their response to the voting, and Clarence Geary compliments voters and their selection. The group is confi-Dies In Iowa one of the leading candidates Clarence D. Geary of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, a long time resident of Plattsmouth, died Sunday morning, August 18, 1951 Death was due to a heart at-Only one more contribution tack.

was reported to the flood relief Mr. Geary farmed in the Mynard neighborhood for almost 25 years, before moving to Iowa. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice Geary; sister, Mrs. Alta Romans of Omaha, and a neph-The campaign has now been ew, Robert K. Romans of Linclosed and the final load of coln. merchandise dispatched to Flor-

Journal Want Ads Pay!

amination cards from Stewart today, the Blue Devils will check out equipment Tuesday and Wednesday. Upper classmen are slated to receive their gear Tuesday for a two hour period in Between one and two hundred * bikes were prepared for safer method of application. Seven Coach Stewart is expecting a night riding by Journal employ-bike owners forced the program to get underway shortly after Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Finney and 8 a. m. One little girl said she was found to glow brilliantly at dinner guests at the home of Mr. bikes received the application and Mrs. O. W. Finney. The small son is celebrating his second birthday anniversary.

bikes received the application bars, front fork, and rear fen-buring his travels, Mr. Tidd said he may visit with his coussial he may visit with his coussin, Billy Southworth, former car she was driving collided with manager of the Boston Braves. dinner guests at the home of Mr. bikes received the application bars, front fork, and rear fen-

Saturday night, bike owners and motorists, found out that the material will be an aid in night-time riding. The material distances up to two blocks. While more than one hundred included strips on the handle- the Missouri school.

This is how seed samples from a cross section of farms in ty Sheriff Kenneth Dunlap. eastern Nebraska germinated in tests made at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture. Top photos show the difference in stopped at the barricade, when germination between healthy and diseased seed at the end of seven days. Scab and other diseases caused the weak germination auto. No damage was reported shown in upper right photo. Lower photo shows the difference to the truck, but the rear end between chemically treated and untreated seed from the same of the Rinne car was completely sample. Three different seed samples were planted. Each two rows represents one sample. One-hundred seeds were planted in each row. Seed in alternate rows was treated. This is the break-down on germination, from left: Row 1-untreated, germination 43 the Nebraska City man's car, and one in the truck. per cent; 2-treated, 67 per cent; 3-untreated, 12 per cent; 4processes of teaching reading in treated, 26 per cent; 5-untreated, 64 per cent; 6-treated, 82 per Mrs. Favors Injured

Band Parents To Fair Boosters Buy Drums, Oboe; Disrupt Peace Plan Food Stand And Quiet Here

at the group's picnic dinner at Free Fair roared into town. Garfield Park Wednesday evecert, the group voted to buy a ule. Slated for a stop here at set of kettle drums and an oboe. 10:30, the boosters claimed the King Korn Karnival in September. Officers of the club are John Glaze, president, and Mrs. Lucille Horn Gaines, secretary and treasurer.

is at the Cass county fair Wed- Friday night. nesday, August 21. Also on tap is an August 30 date at Syracuse, the state fair September 2, and at Sidney, Iowa, Septem-

Last week the group, in addition to its band concert here, left Plattsmouth. played at Springfield Friday. and Saturday paraded with the American Legion parade at

Stolen Vehicle Is Recovered

The stolen vehicle, which Cass county officers searched for Wednesday night, was recovered at Pawnee City Thursday, where it was parked on the street, Tom nominating committee; Bob Solomon, Cass county sheriff.

The vehicle, Solomon said, was parked on the street by hitch-hiking robber, who voluntarily spent Wednesday night at the Pawnee City jail. He had disappeared the following morning before the car was recovered. The car belonged to Larry Sandhofer of Missouri.

Mrs. William Kief and grandson, Rickey, returned home Saturday after a two week's visit at with relatives and

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Strasburg and son, Lenard, of Iowa City. Iowa, came Saturday to spend a few days with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Har-

A. L. Tidd Is Off On Extended Vacation Trip

A. L. Tidd, retired Plattsmouth attorney, left Friday on Journal employees were kept an extended trip to Ohio, where he will visit with relatives. Before leaving, Mr. Tidd said he has no definite plans, but that he is going to travel around the Drunken Driving country for some time Last week, Mr. Tidd spent several days at the University of Application of the Scotchlite class to receive degrees from Tom Solomon and City Police-

Club has voted to spend between mouth's main business district ceived cuts about the shoulder speak at the morning services. $500 and $600 for purchase of was abruptly interrupted mid- and suffered from shock. She musical equipment for band morning Friday as enthusiastic was not seriously injured. members. The expense was voted boosters of the Cass County

The 15-vehicle caravan, far below pre-trip estimates, was Meeting prior to the band con- just a few minutes behind sched-Band Parents Club also voted spotlight by creating a din of to operate a food stand at the band, loud speaker and auto horn noises.

ed. The fair, a three-day fun festival will be held at Weening But their message was receivfestival will be held at Weeping The band's next appearance August 22. Activities will close boosters, touring the county, made stops at Union, Avoca, Murray and Nehawka prior to arriving at Plattsmouth. The remainder of the county was covered after the group

Joe Bender, fair board secretary, disclosed while here that a watershed display from the federal watershed and soil conservation department in Washington, D. C. will be displayed at the county fair.

Also one of the directors of the Cass-Weeping Water Creek Watersheds Association, Mr. Bender said it will be the first time the display has been exhibited in this area. After the county fair it will be exhibited at the state fair in September.

School Cited Omaha Hospital

Mrs. John L. Hadraba, on behalf of school district 42, has received a letter from Mrs. W. W. Wenstrand, courtesy chairman of Children's Memorial Kenneth White Promoted hospital at Omaha, for the school's contribution of scrap books to the hospital.

Mrs. Wenstrand wrote, "The board of trustees, board of di- Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. White, of rectors, staff, and especially the 923 Main St., Plattsmouth, Neb., children, wish to thank you and was elevated to the rank of secall the children of school dis- ond lieutenant at Quantico, Va. trict 42 for the four lovely scrap books you recently sent the hos-other enlisted Marines. All of

"We have a great many sick week officer candidate screenlittle boys and girls and you ing course at the Marine Corps may be sure the scrapbooks will Schools here. be used to keep them happy as The fledgling officers will imthey get better," Mrs. Wenstrand wrote.

Mrs. Hadraba added her own citation by naming Roger Wehrbein for his activity in compiling the scrapbooks.

Charge Is Filed Jessie Mae Hooker DeWeese

Missouri at Columbia, where he of Carter Lake is out on bond was graduated with the third after being arrested by Sheriff man Clyde Jackson.

service aboard ship in the Pacific Theater.

Five Hundred At Rock Bluffs Picnic; Dr. Gilmore Feted

Fries Sell Fast

Journal Thursday.

Bishop Will

Speak Sunday

At Dedication

Bishop C. H. Stauffacher of Kansas City wil give the dedi-

Modern in every respect, the new church offers accommoda-it launched a fund raising drive.

After plans for the church had been accepted, a site was pur-placed 10th in the semi-final.

Racers Place at worship.

Advertiser Says

"I'm all out of chickens,"

Mrs. W. H. Coffelt told the Journal Friday noon, after advertising fries for sale in the classified section of the

The fries, Mrs. Coffelt said, were all sold early Friday.

less than 24 hours after the paper came off the press.

Barricade On Highway Again Accident Scene

extensively damaged in another still living in the old Rock Bluffs area. barricade accident on Highway 73-75 Friday morning.

The accident occurred one mile south of Murray, where Herman H. Rinne. 63, of Nebraska City was flagged to a stop. A truck, driven by Richard Becker of Falls City collided with the Rinne car, according to the accident report of Depu-Rinne headed north, the truck, also going north. struck the rear of the Rinne damaged, estimated at $200.

No one was injured although there were three passengers in

In Fall Through Window Monday

Monday fell through the large Brethren church at Murdock crowd. Music was furnished by plate glass window at the com- Sunday afternoon, August 26. pany office.

Bob Walling and John Soennichsen were the first to appear on the scene. She was treated by Dr. Pucelik.

Freshmen Are Kings Here For

Freshmen planning to attend Plattsmouth high school hold an advantage over the upper classmen for at least a day. That day is today, when the new students are feted at the annual Freshman Day program.

Included on the schedule was an orientation class this morning from 9 until eleven, plus one-hour game period. A picnic luncheon was served at noon. and a musical demonstration came in 6th in the main event. was held in the afternoon.

The Freshman Day program is for the benefit of all boys and girls who graduated from rural schools, local schools and parochial schools and who will attend Plattsmouth high school

The freshman class is expected to be one of the biggest in the high school this year.

Electric was at Columbus for the week end on matters of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hendricks and daughter, Marilyn of Plattsmouth, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Fern Hendricks were here Sunday for the Rock a loud speaker system. in Omaha Saturday evening.

Kenneth R. White, 25, son of * Marine officers.

military duties.

Forrest Carper of the Hudson with R. R. Furse at the Platts-

To Second Lieutenant

mer residents of Rock Bluffs gathered here Sunday at Garfield Park for the annual Rock Bluffs Homecoming The afternoon ceremony also included a program honoring Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore of Murray, Dr. Gilmore is president of the Rock Bluff's homecoming. Following a basket luncheon at noon, old timers

A Nebraska City man's car was from as far away as California united with old friends

Many other sent their regrets in being unable to attend. Judge Raymond J. Case was the speaker at the homecoming. citing the general contributions of the early pioneers to the local historical development of the Rock Bluffs region and of the county and state. Honors were bestowed upon numerous old timers for their efforts in attending the homecoming picnic. Levi Rakes of Miracle Hot Springs, Calif., came the greatest distance to attend. He made the 1500 mile trip for the single purpose of attending the picnic and renewing old friendships.

Fred Ethridge of Greenwood was the eldest settler at the Sunday program. Mrs. Julia Thomas of Omaha was second. Other old timers who will be readily remembered are Delbert Leasiey of Greenwood; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jeffry of Waverly; Guy Burton of Palmyra; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Beyers of Walthill.

Mrs. Mae Favors, employee of catory address for the new $30.- Rex Young was master of the Gas Company office here, 000 Ebenzer Evangelical United Ray Harold, Ed Kohrell and The dedication is scheduled for Harry Rainey.

While waxing the display window, she slipped and fell against dow, she slipped and fell against down a basket dinner at noon. Glen Pocock of Big Springs, Mrs. the window. Mrs. Favors re- Bishop Stauffacher will also Grace Taylor Pugsley of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Murdock's new stone United Stamp of Oklahoma City, A. L. Brethren church will replace a Todd of Greenwood. Governor wooden structure that has Val Peterson, and Congressman housed the congregation since Howard Buffett.

At the ceremony honoring Dr held in the old church building. Gilmore, 307 registered. Dr. R. W. Tyson of Murray was the principal speaker at the Gilmore tions for numerous social events observance. Olin Morris and as well as providing facilities for James Comstock shared the master of ceremonies role at Six years ago the congrega-tion took initial steps toward Gilmore. the reception for Dr. and Mrs. provision of a new church when

Dr. John Gilmore, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gilmore, of California, also spoke at the festivities honoring his father. Flowers for chased and construction began oring his father. Flowers for the Gilmore observance were provided by Mr. and Mrs. Fred

Hild of Murray. On behalf of Dr. Gilmore, who Grandview Thursday sto was collected and donated refused to accept a gift, nearly Zane Bryan finished second to the Children's Memorial hosin the first heat of the seven- pital at Omaha. class registration, followed by a event stock car race at Grand- Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Spangler view Thursday night, driving and daughter, Margaret, were Plattsmouth Motors entry. He in charge of registration for the doctor's honoring ceremony. Pete Austin, driving for Down- They also had charge of the town Motors failed to finish in money.

the fourth heat but turned in Mrs. George Mumm, secretary a good third in the consolation and treasurer of the Rock Bluffs group, had charge of the general A third Plattsmouth entry, program. Howard Graves took Jack Frans, driving for Sharp's care of the historical displays. Service and Willy's finished Church groups added their part sixth in the third heat, and to the program, and Rev. Hutzman of Murray gave the benediction. The group also extended Dwight Bannister, former its thanks to Mayor Clem Woster publisher of the Decorah Jour- and the park board for reservnal at Decorah, Iowa, visited ing the park.

The Plattsmouth Lumber mouth Journal office Friday. He Company and Ofe Oil Company was accompanied by his two were cited for contributing materials for the seats and stands; Black and White donated cool-Mrs. Marie Jackson, husband ing equipment, and Caldwell and daughter of Chilicothe, Mo., Funeral Home loaned the group

Krings Heads Local Delegates

To Convention Gene Krings, local Legion commander, headed a group of Plattsmouth delegates to the state convention held at Omaha Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Krings attended the session during the three day period. Included on the convention slate also was the appearance of the Plattsmouth band in the Legion parade. The parade was held in downtown Omaha Saturday morning Other activities included election of new state officers Sunday, adoption of several resolutions, an address by General Albert C. Wedemeyer, and reports from convention committees.

Attends Cousin's Funeral At York

Mrs. Glenn Vallery attended the funeral for Al Kaltenborn at York Saturday. Mr. Kaltenborn, a cousin of Mrs. Vallery, auto accident near Utica.

Kenneth R. White the former Laverna Mae Acker He attended Nebraska Wesley- of Bridgeport, Neb. They have died of injuries received in an an University and is married to no children.