

Local Float Is Third In Fair Parade; Name Queen

Plattsmouth Business Men's Ad Club float, picturing a map of Cass county with Miss Elizabeth Painter representing Plattsmouth, placed third in the float parade at the Cass County Fair Wednesday.

The float, mounted on an implement trailer from Stander implement, set at a thirty-degree angle with the back end raised four feet. A green replica of Cass county centered the float and each town was marked. Miss Plattsmouth appeared on the spot where Plattsmouth appears on the county map. She wore a pastel yellow formal North and east boundaries of the county, representing the Platte and Missouri rivers were shown in white with the sides draped in solid green covered with white streamers.

The float was done in crepe paper and napkins stuffed in chicken wire. Jim Steube was committee chairman. He was assisted by Ken Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bulin and Mrs.

Steube. The float was pulled by Walt Soenichsen's convertible.

Weeping Water's float was second, while the Louisville entry took top honors.

A Weeping Water girl, Miss Betty Lou Jacobsen, was crowned queen of the fair.

Plattsmouth band, another Wednesday afternoon performer, added the musical touch to the parade. The parade, in general, was good.

Still on tap are 4-H parade tonight, donkey ball game, free platform entertainment and a dance. Friday, judging of riding horses, horse shoe pitching contest, mixed parade, tractor rodeo, style revue, band concert and ball game are scheduled.

Jean Lockin's dance troupe will perform at eight o'clock Friday night.

Elizabeth Painter, crowned Miss Plattsmouth by popular vote here, was second to Miss Jacobson for the County Fair Queen Title.

Chicken And Tomatoes Will Be Plentiful

Chicken and plenty of it is the forecast from the U. S. Department of Agriculture's production experts as the Department releases its report on foods expected to be most plentiful in this part of the country during September.

Another headliner is the tomato. Estimates indicate the late summer tomato crop is running about 7 per cent heavier than last year to provide lots of tomatoes at budget prices for using fresh or for home processing.

Both broiling chickens and hens will be very plentiful during September. Sale of farm chickens from Midwest flocks will be at or near the peak level of the year before the month is through, and the department estimates September production of broiling chickens will be nearly a third heavier than a year ago.

Two other fresh vegetables which still will be in plentiful production for processing are beets and cabbage. New crop potatoes from many states, including those in the Midwest, will be available in September and the cost should be moderate.

The variety of fresh fruits in plentiful supply is narrowing, with grapes the only choice for September. However, there are large stocks of canned apples and applesauce and processed citrus juices on hand. Stocks of frozen orange juice are more than twice as heavy as a year ago at this time.

Iowans Reminded Of Free Bridge

Passenger cars from Fremont and Mills county, Iowa are permitted free two-way passage across the Missouri river bridge at Plattsmouth, each Saturday through the courtesy of 52 Plattsmouth business firms, sponsors remind Iowans today.

The program, sponsors point out, gives the Iowans an opportunity to take advantage of the low prices offered by the sponsoring firms.

This year the president requested nondefense expenditures nearly double those of 1948.

Cleaning And Treating Seed Is Advised

Farmers who don't clean or treat their seed this year will be taking unnecessary chances.

That's advice from Secretary C. R. Porter of the Nebraska Crop Improvement Association. He points out that wheat quality—particularly in the eastern third of Nebraska—is not good. Many of the kernels are badly shriveled and will have weak germination. Some of the kernels are dead.

Wheat scab and other diseases have been serious, and Mr. Porter says many kernels are infected with foreign organisms.

If the seed is not treated, he emphasizes, many of the kernels will mold in the soil instead of germinating. He says this condition of kernels now is showing up in the Nebraska Crop Improvement Association's seed laboratory where germination tests are being conducted.

Mr. Porter says that wheat used for seed purposes should test 80 per cent germination or better.

While cleaning and treating are always profitable for small grain, he says, it will pay unusually high dividends this year.

Company Seeks Restitution

Nelson Investment Company Tuesday filed suit for recovery of merchandise and damages from The Panorium, Omaha corporation, and Fred Lugsch of Plattsmouth, officer and stockholder of the corporation.

The plaintiffs charge that four steel posts, three steel plates and five steel beams have been detained over 30 days by the defendants, resulting in damage to the plaintiff in the amount of $2,500.

The petition asks return of the goods or value of the goods plus damages.

Petition Asks $337 For Damage To Elevator Hoist

Petition was filed in district court Wednesday by John E. Turner, Alto elevator operator, against Arthur Skinner, for damages amounting to $337.

The petition alleges that as a result of negligence and carelessness, the defendant, while driving a truck completely damaged a hoist at the elevator.

It further charges that in November, 1950, the defendant, after unloading grain at the elevator, drove in such a manner that a protruding portion of the truck bed struck the elevator hoist, completely damaging it.

Cass Shippers Near Market Top

Cass county shippers with high-selling livestock at Omaha last week included Glen Todd with 23 steers weighing 1170 that sold at $37.75; Kenneth Todd with 24 steers weighing 1059 at $37, and Elmer Sprick with 11 hogs weighing 210 at $22.75.

Fritz Siemonet had high selling fat steers at Omaha, 17 weighing 1345 that sold at $37.25.

Miss Tiekotter Receives Diploma

Miss Janet Irene Tiekotter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tiekotter of Plattsmouth, was one of 27 Nebraska Wesleyan University students to receive graduation diplomas at the close of the 1951 summer session.

The 27 participated in spring commencement exercises with the class of 1951, so no special summer exercises were held.

At The Cass County Court House

License for marriage was issued in Cass county court Wednesday, August 22, to Paul Richard Schmidt, 26, of Bloomington, Nebraska, and Margaret Ann Wulf, 23, of Eagle.

William P. Wade was fined $10 and costs in county court on a charge of speeding. Patrolman Raymond Smith made the arrest.

A reckless driving charge against Leonard Bashus was dismissed by County Attorney Richard Peck Tuesday.

Jessie Mae Hooker DeWeese was fined $50 and costs in county court Monday on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcoholic liquors.

Richard D. Noel was fined $7.50 and costs in county court Monday on a charge of lending his driver's license to another.

John E. Blotzer was fined $5 and costs on two counts in Cass county court Monday. He was charged with failing to stop at a stop sign, and operating a vehicle on a borrowed license.

The estate of John Bissing was filed in Cass county court Wednesday, August 22. Smith and Lebens are the attorneys.

Final hearing was held in the Joseph Goodman estate in county court Thursday.

Hearing was held in the Chas. Haertel estate Wednesday. Paul Fauquet is attorney for the estate.
