Annual Picnic Is Held Sunday

The Methodist Sunday school held their annual picnic dinner at the Dr. Roger's home last Sunday. Thirty-five children and parents were in attendance. There was plenty of fried chicken and ice cream to add to the enjoyment of the outing. We were very glad to have our pastor and his family with us that day.

Legion Auxiliary Hears State Reports

The American Legion Auxiliary held their regular meeting at the Legion hall on August 21. The hostesses were Mrs. Mary Gobelman and daughter Ann, Lily Stander and Emma Meredith. State convention reports were given by Mrs. Hazel Wolfe, Mrs. Violet Attebery and Mrs. Mary Gobleman. It was voted to send $10.00 to the Kansas flood relief fund. Fifty per cent of the membership quota has been in for 1952.

The next meeting will be a membership tea to which all eligible women are invited. The date is September 18.

Calf Sale, Kiddie Parade Prizes Added To KKK

(Continued from Page One) that about half of the spaces available in his tent are still open. And when asked what the prospects are for a good corn show, he said that a few more days like Wednesday would make the prospects very good.

Other items of interest learned by the general committee are that the financial campaign is now underway; the flower show is ready, publicity on the show will be out soon, and concessions and carnivals are lined up, ready to go.

K. W. Grosshans added another optimistic note. He said the horse show is progressing rapidly and is well organized. Grosshans also named four men who will assist him with the Farmers Parade. They are Fred Wehrlein, Bob Valley, Herman Hier and Newton Sullivan.

Korn Karnival President B. H. G. Elting presided at the meeting, held in the air-conditioned council chamber at the bank.

Others present were Les Niel, Chris Bull, R. R. Furse, Orville Nielsen, Harold Lebers, Herman Meisinger, Mrs. Dick March, Leonard Born and Mrs. Wm. Sprandel.
