Hahn-Vogt Nuptials Are Solemnized At LeMars

At a 7:30 o'clock ceremony at the LeMars Evangelical United Brethren church, Miss Mary Hahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hahn of Merrill, Iowa, became the bride of Rev. Armin E. Vogt of Wabash. Rev. Vogt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Vogt.

Rev. R. S. Hind performed the ceremony Sunday, August 19, 1951. The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and candelabra. Gladioli, ribbons and candles lined the pews.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of ivory Skinner satin fashioned with a fitted bodice with buttons down the back, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt. The yoke of imported lace and skirt waistline were fashioned with scallops. The fingertip veil of sheer linen illusion fell from a crown of Stephanotis. She wore a double strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Maid of honor was Miss Annabelle Streifeler of Minneapolis, Minn., cousin of the bride. Her gown was of yellow satin fashioned with fitted bodice and scalloped neckline. She carried a colonial bouquet of blue daisies.

Miss Margaret Vogt, sister of the groom, and Miss Jennie Marie DeJong of Orange City, Iowa, were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns to that of the maid of honor.

Miss Lavine Oehlerking of Elmwood and Miss Mable Leutchen of Wabash, cousins of the groom, were candlelighters.

Elmer Vogt was his brother's best man. Bill Vogt and Samuel Hahn were groomsmen. Linner Backstrom assisted them as ushers.

A reception for 180 guests was held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Hinton high school and Westmar College and taught school in Illinois. The groom graduated from Elmwood high school and Westmar College and is a student at the Evangelical Theological Seminary at Naperville, Ill., where they will reside.

Deloris Louise Hild Is Bride Of James Pollard

The marriage of Miss Deloris Louise Hild, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hild of Plattsmouth and James H. Pollard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hall A. Pollard of Nehawka, was solemnized Sunday evening, August 26, 1951, at 6:30 in the Christ Lutheran church of Louisville.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. A. B. Lentz before an altar adorned with tall baskets of gladioli, tube roses and seven branch candelabra.

Candlelighters were Miss Shirley Hild, sister of the bride, and Miss Susan Stone, cousin of the groom.

Miss Joanne Lentz gave a recital of organ music before the ceremony and also played the bridal marches. Miss Edna Jean Wetenkamp sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the piano by her sister, Miss Edith Wetenkamp.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in gleaming white duchess satin designed with full cathedral train, a deep pointed overlay of chantly lace on the bodice formed a flared trim on the shoulders and extended to a deep point at the waistline in back. A small lace collar and satin buttons completed the gown. The finger tip wedding veil of silk illusion edged with lace fell from a tiara of seeded pearls. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and Stephanotis and a silk handkerchief, which had been carried by the groom's mother and sister at their weddings.

Maid of honor was Miss Dorothy Hild, sister of the bride, who wore a gown of aqua marquette designed with a shoulder overlay. She wore a head-dress and carried a colonial bouquet of harmonizing carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Hild of Louisville, Miss Maxine Steinhart of Omaha, Miss Bonnie Topf of Plattsmouth and Miss Betty Jacobsen of Weeping Water. They wore gowns and head dresses of orchid, pink, yellow and green and carried colonial bouquets in matching colors.

Flowergirls were Misses Linda and Anita Newman of Omaha, nieces of the groom, who wore gowns of blue and pink taffeta and carried baskets of rose petals.

Richard Hild, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

The groom was attended by Jerry Stone of Weeping Water. Other attendants were John Stone of Weeping Water, Ralph and Marvin Hild of Plattsmouth and Alvin Harris of Omaha.

Mrs. John Hild, mother of the bride, was dressed in rose crepe with navy blue accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Hall Pollard, mother of the groom, was dressed in plum crepe with navy blue accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony with 225 guests. Miss Joy Hild, cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book. The floral decorations for the wedding and reception were arranged by Mrs. Fred Hild and Mrs. Glen Kraeger.

The five-tier wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Forest Engelkemeyer of Louisville and cut and served by Mrs. Fulton Harris of Plattsmouth. Others assisting at the tea table were Mesdames Raymond, Ernest and Vernon Hild, Mrs. Arthur Hild and Mrs. Franklin Wehrbein were in charge of the gifts, assisted by Herbert and Gary Hild.

Those serving in the kitchen were Mrs. Lorenz Roloff, Mrs. Vernon DeLimer, Mrs. Irvin Melsinger, Mrs. Joseph Puls and Mrs. Forrest Engelkemeyer.

Following the reception the bride and groom left for a short wedding trip. For travel the bride wore a gold colored suit with orchid accessories. They will be at home after September 1, southwest of Plattsmouth.

The bride graduated from Plattsmouth high school and for the past two years has taught school west of Mynard where she will teach this fall.

The groom graduated from Nehawka high school and attended the University of Nebraska.

Dorothy Cappell Assists Home Ec Instructor Here

To make the high school homemaking program complete, the Plattsmouth homemaking instructor is working on a 10 month basis, which includes two weeks at the close of school and two weeks before school begins in September.

The time is spent making home visits, supervising home projects, sponsoring members of the local Future Homemakers of America at the FHA workshop at Crete, attending the homemaking convention at Lincoln, and may include the organization of or teaching of adult classes.

Working with Miss Schliefert during this time and for the first week of school is Miss Dorothy Cappell of Plattsmouth. Miss Cappell will be a senior in homemaking at the University of Nebraska this fall.

Sisters Complete Dakota Vacation

Mrs. Florence Coleman and sister, Mrs. Garnet Ohlschlagel, have returned from a week's vacation at Vermillion, S. D. They were guests of Mrs. Flora Colby and daughter, Miss Ruth, former residents, who sent greetings to their friends here.

Homemakers Set Goal For Honor Chapter Here

Some of the FHA girls gathered in the homemaking rooms Thursday to discuss plans for the coming year. It was decided that the Plattsmouth chapter of FHA should have as a goal, becoming an honor chapter this year.

The workshop, which was held at Doane College at Crete, was reported on by girls attending it. They were very enthusiastic about their progress and had a very enjoyable time.

Following the discussion, lemonade and cookies were served by Miss Schliefert, the advisor, and Miss Dorothy Cappell, who is studying with Miss Schliefert for two weeks.
