Wilma Svoboda Of Omaha Is Bride Of Norman Perry

In a pretty 2 o'clock afternoon ceremony Sunday, Sept. 2, 1951, Wilma Svoboda of Omaha, daughter of Mrs. Clara Hlubocky of Dwight, Neb., became the bride of Norman Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hallie B. Perry of Plattsmouth.

The nuptials were held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, with the Rev. J. C. Lawson of Syracuse, former pastor of the local Methodist church, and close friend of the family officiating at the double ring service. Before an improvised altar banked with red and white gladioli and white tapers.

The bride wore a grey wool suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of red gladioli. Gladys Hlubocky of Dwight, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a green suit with brown accessories and a corsage of coral gladioli.

Donald Perry of Omaha served his brother as best man. A reception for the couple was held following the ceremony with 65 guests attending. The bride's table was decorated with white tapers and centered with a three tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. John Sabota of Bruno, sister of the bride and Mrs. J. C. Lawson of Syracuse, poured, assisted by Mrs. H. V. Mitchell and Mrs. Harold Stewart. A sister, Gladys, cut the cake and Mrs. Daisy Sherwood and Miss Grace Perry, aunts of the groom, had charge of the serving with Mesdames Harry White, Ray Larson, Florence Coleman, Charles Carlson and Carl Ohlenschlager assisting. Mrs. Donald Perry was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Harold Stewart of Blair was at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hlubocky wore a grey crepe dress with a red rose corsage. Mrs. Perry chose a grey and green crepe. Her corsage was also red roses.

Out of town guests in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. John Sabota of Bruno, Mrs. Clara Hlubocky and Gladys of Dwight, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stewart of Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Perry, Betty Wise and Mrs. Richard Sabota of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Newell and Miss Pearl Rounds, all of Lincoln; Charles Painter and Herbert Pankonin, servicemen home on furlough.

Mrs. James Pollard Is Recent Bride

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. James H. Pollard, above, was Deloris Louise Hild, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hild of Plattsmouth. The couple was married Sunday evening, August 26, 1951, at the Christ Lutheran church at Louisville. As a bride of five days, Mrs. Pollard received many gifts when named the youngest bride attending a television program at Omaha last week.

Luhring-Beil Wedding Rites Are Solemnized August 28th

WEeping WATER—(Special)—Miss LaVonne Jean Luhring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luhring of Weeping Water, became the bride of Forest G. Beil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Greeley Beil of Plattsmouth Tuesday evening, August 28, 1951, at a seven o'clock ceremony at the Christian church in Weeping Water.

Rev. Val Johnson, pastor of the Christian church of Murray performed the double ring ceremony before the church altar which was banked with greenery in the presence of 125 relatives and friends. Bouquets of pink and lavender asters, altar baskets of pastel gladioli and two white taper lighted candelabra were on either side of the altar. Miss Ruth Ann Sporer of Murray played the melody of wedding music and accompanied Miss Shirley Appling as she sang "Because."

To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the bride came down the aisle with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a candlelight satin gown, with long sleeves tapering to a point over the wrist. The bodice was fashioned with a square neckline with a pleated yoke. The full skirt ended in a long train. A tiny Juliet cap, decorated with lilies of the valley held her hair in place. She carried a white paper book, the gift of the groom, upon which her corsage of roses was centered. From the folds of the tiny prayer book fell a shower of rainbow hued streamers. A strand of pearls, a gift from her mother, and a tiny diamond pin, were other white jewelry. The diamond pin was formerly owned by Mrs. Wildon Switzer's grandfather Split and was worn by her on her wedding day.

Miss Regina Stander, friend of the bride and maid of honor wore a white formal and carried a colonial bouquet of carnations. Miss Susie Switzer, cousin of the groom and Miss Nancy Stander, friend of the bride, dressed in identical blue formal lighted the tapers. They wore long white nylon gloves, a gift of the bride.

William Switzer of Nehawka, an uncle of the groom, served as best man. Roger Luhring, brother of the bride and Gerald Switzer, cousin of the groom, served as ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. August 29, Oliver Mayfield was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Warren R. Rector and Miss Lois Sporer of Murray were in the gift room.

Mrs. Forest Beil

Miss Susie Switzer and Miss Nancy Stander were at the reception table and Mrs. Wildon Switzer, aunt of the groom, presided at the serving table which was centered with roses in a low crystal bowl, with candles at the sides. Mrs. Switzer cut and served the wedding cake also.

Mrs. Beil chose a brown suit with matching accessories as her traveling costume for the wedding trip to Lake Okoboji.

The bride is a graduate of the Weeping Water high school and also a graduate from the Commercial Extension School of Omaha. She is a member of the Order of Rainbow Girls and a Past Worthy Advisor of that organization. She has been employed in the accounting department of the Berthold Furniture store this summer and plans to return to her duties there following Mr. Beil's return to the armed services. Mrs. Beil's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luhring are well known here having lived here all of their married life.

The groom, a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school also attended the Nehawka high school and is at present stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, with the United States army. He and his parents have been residents of Plattsmouth and vicinity for several years. He is a member of the Order of Eagles.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Mary Luhring, Mrs. Beil's paternal grandmother, and Mrs. Harry Granger, both of Hanover, Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carruso of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Hubble of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Linville of Omaha.
