

Fireplace Is Setting For Kimball-Hull Ceremony

Before the fireplace at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Barbara C. Kimball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kimball of Plattsmouth, became the bride of Donald Ben Hull of Bellevue, son of Mrs. Harold Duelling of Omaha and Ben Hull of Chamberlain, S. D.

Rev. Harold V. Mitchell performed the three o'clock ceremony, Saturday, September 8, 1951, in the presence of the immediate families.

Large baskets of gladioli at either end of the fireplace were centered by lighted candles on the mantle.

The bride wore a teal blue colored suit with black accessories and a corsage of white gladioli.

Patti Speck of Plattsmouth was maid of honor. She wore a wine colored suit and melon colored gladioli.

Wayne Marchand of Bellevue was best man.

A reception was held at the Kimball home following the ceremony. Those assisting were Mrs. Ken Weaver, Mrs. Jerry Brown and Mrs. J. P. Peterson. Serving were Geraldine Wood.

Mrs. Donald Ben Hull
Eva Nell Mendenhall, Betty Wondra and Nora Lou Frazier. The bride is a graduate of Plattsmouth high school and attended Van Sant Business College. She is employed in the office of the Masonic Boys Home.

Krause-Tiekotter Rites Solemnized At Lincoln

The chancel of the Westminster Presbyterian church of Lincoln was lighted by white candles for the marriage of Miss Elaine June Krause, daughter of Mrs. William A. Krause and the late Mr. Krause, to Kenneth H. Tiekotter, son of Mrs. Louis W. Tiekotter of Plattsmouth and the late Mr. Tiekotter.

The wedding was solemnized September 6, 1951, at eight o'clock. The lines of the service were read by the Rev. John Douglas Clyde, in the presence of two hundred fifty guests. Miss Josephine Waddell, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Helmut Sieber, knoche, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" as the candles were lighted by Miss Caryl Besse and Miss Patricia O'Brien.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, William E. Krause, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin. Wide bands of Venetian lace patterned with rhinestones were inserted in the soft, full bodice to create the Shepherdess effect. Long satin sleeves were pointed over the hands. The snugly fitted waist of the bodice tapered to an Elizabethan point beneath which the skirt was gathered into fullness and extended into a wide train. A Mary, Queen of Scots, brim of pleated organza, trimmed with rhinestones held her veil of English illusion. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William E. Krause. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Earl Neff and Miss Dorothy Speer. They wore identical gowns designed with basque bodices and full, satin-lined skirts. They carried cascades of bouquets. Miss Suzanne Solomon of Plattsmouth was flower girl.

Robert W. Tritsch of Plattsmouth served as best man. Ushers were Earl Neff and Bud Markin, both of Lincoln, and Wynne Babbitt of Plattsmouth.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The couple is residing at Lincoln where he attends the University of Nebraska. The bride is a graduate of Nebraska University.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Hula have departed for Washington, D. C., to visit several days with their son, Lt. Chas. W. "Bill" Hula, who is stationed there with the Marines. Lt. Hula is assigned to aerial photo interpretation.

Grandparents Host At Grandson's 1st Birthday Party

Dale Nickels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nickels of Murray, observed his first birthday with a party given in his honor Monday. The party was at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burcham of Plattsmouth.

Refreshments of ice cream and a beautiful four tier cake, baked by his grandmother Burcham, were served following the opening of gifts.

Present were Mrs. James Yelick and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burcham, Jr., and Tommy of Grand Island, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burcham, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nickels.

Fancy Feeders Have Last Meet

Cass County Fancy Feeders held their final meeting at the home of Bill and Bruce Jameson.

Plans were made for the Korn Karnival and Ak-Sar-Ben. Lunch was served by Mrs. Jameson.

Local Employees Attend Stores' Annual Picnic

The Hinky-Dinky store here was well represented at an annual company picnic held all day Sunday at Sokol park south of Omaha. Nearly 1,400 employees of the company and their families or dates were guests of company officials.

Barbecue beef sandwiches with all the trimmings featured the noon meal and the afternoon program was filled with games and contests in which prizes were awarded.

Those from the local store who served on committees included:

Herbert Baumgart, manager of the meat department, on the meat serving committee at noon; Tom Rohan of the meat department, serving of miscellaneous foods; Manager Cecil Higgins and Clerk Joseph Loper on the beer and pop committee at 1-2 p. m.; and Pauline Wilson, checkered, on the bingo committee.

Miss Bonnie Topliff Is Bride Of Ralph Younker

The First Christian church of Plattsmouth was the scene Sunday, September 16, 1951, for the marriage of Miss Bonnie Topliff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Topliff, and Ralph D. Younker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Younker.

The Rev. Lloyd Shubert of Lincoln, a friend of the bride's family, officiated at the morning rite. Mrs. J. L. Hodge, organist, played wedding music and accompanied Miss Edna Jean Wetenkamp, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of ivory bridal satin, fashioned with a high necked waist and overskirt of chantilly lace. The long pointed sleeves and bodice were fastened with satin covered buttons. Her waist length veil fell from a tiara of orange blossoms and she carried a white Bible topped with orchids.

Maid of honor was Mrs. James Pollard. She wore orchid taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of orchid carnations. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Arlene Topliff and Miss Joy Hild. They wore yellow and orchid nylon dresses.

Danny Younker was ring bearer and wore white satin. The flower girl was dressed in yellow dotted Swiss.

Best man was a brother of the groom. Ushers were Loren Topliff, brother of the bride, and Eddie Younker, cousin of the groom.

The wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home by Mrs. Bernard Meisinger, Mrs. Donald Blotzer and Mrs. Verner Hild. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Riley of Jewell, Kansas; Mr. Harold Chicout and son, Lloyd Younker's brother of Yuma, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Topliff of Topeka, Kans.

The bride and groom left at noon for their home in Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he is stationed with the air force.

Riverview Club Elects Officers; Bake Sale Planned

The September meeting of the Riverview club was held at the home of Georgia Creamer with Elva Detering and Oval Snodgrass as hostesses. The meeting was opened with the Lord's Prayer and singing "The Quilting Party."

The secretary's report was read and approved. There were 15 members present.

The club voted to hold a bake sale October 13. The group will be entertained by the Lewiston club at an old fashioned school party October 23 at the Lewiston Community Center.

Capsule names were revealed and new names drawn. Cards were sent to Mrs. Bruce Wolfe, Duane Sack, Mrs. Shirley Graus, Gus Graus family, Mrs. Arthur Kuhns and Mrs. Clemens Korlicki.

Election of officers was held. Elected to take office in January were Clara Meisinger, president; Velma Rea, vice president; Oval Snodgrass, secretary-treasurer; Nellie Sack, news reporter; Grace Heil, social leader; Velma Kuhns, corresponding secretary.

The afternoon was spent in quilting. The quilt when finished will be sold for the benefit of the club. The next meeting will be held at the home of Rose Hill with Velma Kuhns assistant hostess. Each member is to bring a shower gift for the former Charlene Patterson.

A luncheon of apple pie a la mode and coffee was served.
