

Koronation Is Symbol Of Cass County History

Describing the scenic and very pomp royal coronation Wednesday night, Walter H. Smith, versatile master of ceremonies, also acquainted witnesses with the history of past Korn Karnivals.

With the theme of the 1951 Karnival, "History on Parade," Mr. Smith explained the general purpose of the King Korn Klub and the overall organizational plan.

The Korn Klub is a voluntary organization of Cass county people interested in making Cass county and Plattsmouth a better place to be. Farmers, working people and business men have worked together to sponsor the annual Karnival, as an expression of their mutual good will.

And since membership is voluntary, there are no restrictions. Individuals can still obtain membership buttons and evidence their interest in Cass county by wearing it. Membership buttons are available at several Plattsmouth business houses.

The Korn Karnival originated when Lowell S. Devoe planned and staged the first corn show in 1931. The first Koronation was not held until 1935.

Historically 12 couples have wore the royal robes of Kornland. They are:

1935—Harry Gayler and Mrs. Lois Bestor.
1936—William Evers and Mrs. June Wehrlein.
1937—Arthur Hild and Mrs. Eleanor Nelson.
1938—Frank Cloldt and Mrs. Martha Meisinger.

"Lighten his homework"
...with better light for better sight

Days are getting shorter and the young man or young lady in your home will be doing an increasing amount of homework. At no time in life is good eyesight more important. Nor is there a time when precious eyesight should be more safeguarded. Check the lighting in your home. Make certain your family is not suffering needless eyestrain because of improper or inadequate lighting. Inspect those reading lamps, those study lamps. Replace those dull, blackened bulbs. Add beauty and charm to your home with good, adequate lighting and at the same time guard against eyestrain. Trained personnel at Consumers will be glad to assist you with any home lighting problem. Make use of this helpful service now.
