WANTS EARLY START
BOONEVILLE, Miss.—"Wanted," said the ad in the local newspaper "to swap my town rooster that crows at 5 a. m. for a country rooster that crows at 4 a. m." The advertiser gave the following reason: "I am going in business and want to get an early start."

CURB THAT URGE
ENDICOTT, N. Y.—Aldis Selnekovic, 27, said he had an urge to squirt a policeman with a hose. He was arrested by dripping Patrolman Charles Garland, and ordered to pay $25 or serve 25 days in jail.

REUNION SPURS TALK
SCHENECTADY, N. Y.—"Men surely can talk as fast as women," declared Mrs. Irving Grant of Schenectady after her husband and Judson Grant of Waterbury, Conn., met for the first time in 50 years.

Why is it that some people think standing on their dignity makes them look bigger.
