Public Sale

Held Thursday
A public sale lasting nearly three hours was held by George Kunz on Thursday afternoon, Ellis Lacy of Avoca and Rex Young of Plattsmouth being the auctioneers. Mr. Kunz had things in fine shape although he is handicapped by his crippling arthritis. He was ably assisted by Albert Kunz. From his former mechanical occupation there were many items, including auto accessories. He felt satisfied with the gratifying results.

— Elmwood —
Clarence Ohm and Marion McCrory are painting the former Boyles residence, which the present owner, Mr. Bornemeier is making ready for occupancy in the late autumn.

Sixteen Scouts
At Elmwood
Are Initiated
Thursday evening was a notable one for our Boy Scout troop. It was the time when they were formally initiated into full membership. There were 16 of them, and their officers, Rev. Overton Turner, George Blessing, Ted Hall, Paul Husar, and Welling Dennis were present, as well as parents and other interested persons. Greenwood troop of 16 boys and their leaders were the ceremonial officials. Their Scoutmaster, Mr. Gordon, lead in the exercises, which consisted of the Scout candlelighting ceremony, and which included giving many of their principles. A talk was given by Mr. Henry of Nebraska City who is the field representative of this district. But previous to the ceremonies a feature of the program was given by the daughters and granddaughters of Union Veterans of Lincoln. Mrs. Alice Reynolds being the leader. They marched and presented an exercise by ten ladies each bearing a flag of America showing the history of Old Glory, from early colonial days. And as a beautiful surprise they presented the troop here with a large flag mounted on a standard. With the pianist those visitors numbered 12. The charter was presented to Ed Earnst, trustee for the Christian church, where meetings are held and he gave it to the Scout troop leaders. The evening closed with a social time when coffee, wafers and soft drinks were served.

— Elmwood —
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Creamer visited their daughter and family, the Gerald Churchills, at Culbertson this week. Staying at their farm during their absence were his mother, Mrs. Clara Creamer, and his sisters, Maud and Jessie.

— Elmwood —
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Eilers are now located in Jacksonville, Fla., where Mr. Eilers, A. A. is in training in the naval air station. Mrs. Eilers, the former Marion Pratt, is an assistant manager of the school lunch program. She plans menus and helps supervise twenty helpers where they serve 2,350 lunches a day.

Annual Sunset
Dinner Party Is Held Tuesday
The annual sunset party dinner was held Tuesday, October 2, Rev. Adams, the efficient promoter for the ten meetings held since October 1942 was in charge in general. Fifty-nine persons enjoyed the banquet at the tables and there were 23 diners sent to shut-ins. Oldest man present was John Gonzales, 93, and M. S. Briggs, 92. Oldest woman present was Mrs. Josie Miller, 86. Greetings were presented from Mrs. Wiegert and Wm. John, who were in their homes, the former now living with Mrs. Fred Wilken. Afternoon hymn singing was led by Rev. Overton Turner with Mrs. N. Bornemeier at the piano. Miss Ward lead in the prayer and Rev. Adams gave devotional thoughts. Mrs. Jochens, secretary, read slowly the names of seven deceased members this year and Mrs. Wendt brought a large bouquet of flowers in remembrance. Then Mrs. Jochen read a beautiful timely poem, "The Old Clay House." A vote of appreciation was taken for the many who assisted in the work entailed and for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Linder through whose generosity the entire group was invited to a free entertainment at the Elmwood theater. The plays, "The Rasicals" and "Molly" of the Goldbergs were enjoyed.
