

OUR CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, November 18, 1951. The Golden Text is: "If ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live." (Romans 8:13). Other Bible citations include: "So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." (Romans 8:2, 9, 14). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "From beginning to end, whatever is mortal is composed of material human beliefs and of nothing else. That only is real which reflects God. Mortal man is really a self-contradictory phrase, for man is not mortal, neither indeed can he; man is immortal." (Page 478).

Sunday Sermon

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER
Jacob Receives the Promise
Genesis 28: 10-22
Memory Selection: 28: 15

AFTER JACOB had deceived his father and secured the blessing Isaac would have given Esau, he fled for his life because of the plan of Esau to kill him. And he went out from Beersheba toward Haran to seek refuge among his mother's kinsmen there.

As the fugitive journeyed, he spent a night at Bethel. And as he slumbered there, he dreamed a heavenly dream. He saw a ladder set up on the earth and the top of it reached unto heaven. And on it, ascending and descending, were the angels, and above it was God himself, who promised Jacob to be with him, give him the land on which he lay, and make of him a great nation through whom all families of the earth should be blessed.

When Jacob awoke, he said: "Surely this in none other but the house of God and this is the gate of heaven." And he took the stone which had been under his head for a pillow, and he set it up for a pillar and poured oil upon it as an offering unto God. And he vowed that if God would keep him in the way he should go and bring him in peace again to his father's house he would give the tenth unto God. Thus beside the bright ladder of prayer Jacob lifted the pillar of sacrifice. And thus early in the history of men was the tenth regarded as the part of his income he should return unto God. So may we learn to be faithful tithers, yes, more; let us learn to be good stewards of all we possess.
