CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Ancient and Modern Necrom-ancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, December 2, 1951.
The Golden Text is: "Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good" (Proverbs 14:22). Other Bible citations include, "And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the Lord; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the Lord swore unto thy fathers. To cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the Lord hath spoken." (Deuteronomy 6:18, 19).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Divine Mind rightly demands man's entire obedience, affection, and strength.
No reservation is made for any lesser loyalty. Obedience to Truth gives man power and strength. Submission to error superinduces loss of power." (Page 183).

Sunday Sermon

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER Law for the New Nation (Temperance)
Lesson: Exodus 19: 7-8a; 23: 1-13
Memory Selection: Exodus 19: 8

PAUL WRITES that the powers that be are ordained of God.
This had been demonstrated ages before his time in the wilderness, as Moses laid down laws for the new nation that had escaped from Egyptian bondage.

The Ten Commandments were given; also rules for daily living.
Though changes come in conditions of life and vary with different quarters of the world, the principles of right living remain changeless as they are found in the ancient laws given by Moses.

It is taught throughout the great Book that penalties must follow upon broken law. A man cannot sin and "get by." Law being from God, there can be no hope of escape from the penalty if the law be broken. Let this fact be considered now when so many of the bars against evil have been let down and there is much moral laxity and indifference toward the high claims of life that once held the allegiance of the majority of our people.

We can but "view with alarm" the tolerance with which the many seem to regard the indulgence of strong drink and kindred evils of the time. A visitor from Mars might at once conclude that the chief business of the American people is that of making and drinking strong liquor. But there is nothing that so swiftly and so capably brings its ruin to men and demonstrates that broken law must be avenged by the penalty exact.

LARK LOVERS, LISTEN
Several hunters, lurching in a Crete restaurant, complained about the smallness of the birds they had shot. An onlooker peeped into their game bags and discovered the reason for their complaints. Contents? Many meadowlarks.

William Brewster, a leader on the Mayflower, in 1620, was a

AMONG ONE'S MEMORIES

WHENEVER a person departs this life, those who remain are flooded with memories of the loved one. And what an additionally satisfying memory it later becomes to look back upon a final tribute so well-arranged, so dignified and so peaceful that its very beauty could not have been surpassed. Such a tribute need not be costly.
Thoughtful, well-planned arrangements do not hinge on costs; rather, they depend upon the competence and courteous understanding of those in charge.

Flintwist
SWEATERS

Steel-tipped spears and high-powered bullets cannot pierce the shields made from hides by the Zulus. They are really tough.

Tough, too, are "FLINTWIST" Sweaters knitted from Cable-spun yarns by the exclusive Rugby Triple-lite method.

Their amazing long wear, tremendous strength and wonder warmth justify the statement that they are "easy to wear and hard to wear out."
