LUCK'S WHERE YOU FIND IT
SAGINAW, Mich. — Deputy Sheriff Frank Zednick's ice fishing party was having no luck on Saginaw Bay. Zednick took his five-gallon can and moved to a new place near a stretch of open water left by high winds. Hundreds of perch clustered at the edge of the ice. With the can, Zednick scooped up a full catch for the whole party.

OWL MOVES IN—AND OUT
CHICAGO — A Chicago apartment owner was convinced that the housing shortage is no myth when an owl invaded his quarters. Wingspan invaded his quarters. Police came to the rescue. They finally captured the intruder in a bushel basket after their dignity had suffered and the apartment was almost a wreck.
