

Elmwood

By TRACE PLYBON, Correspondent

On Saturday afternoon the annual bazaar and evening dinner was held at the Christian church. Despite the snow that came up in the latter part of the sale time, the attendance was very good and a nice sum was realized.

Obituary Of Edward Backemeyer

Edward Backemeyer, 65, a former Elmwood resident, passed away in Lincoln after an illness of a few days. His home was in Fremont but he was visiting on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller when he suffered a heart attack. He was taken to Bryan hospital from there.

He was graduated from Elmwood high school in 1904 when his father was a minister of the Evangelical church. Later he finished at Morningside College in Iowa. He was sales manager for the Standard Chemical Co. and a member of the Methodist church in Fremont, and of the Elmwood Masonic Order. He is survived by a brother, Dr. Fred Backemeyer of Iowa, and a sister, Mrs. Marie Baldwin of Denver, and other relatives, among them a sister-in-law, Mrs. Chris Backemeyer of Denver. Funeral services were conducted on Friday, December 7, at the Methodist church by Rev. Louise Ward and Rev. E. F. Haist. Helen Schneider and Opal Clements sang "Beyond the Sunset" and "Sweet Peace, the Gift of God's Love," accompanied by Marie Clements. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

Sunday School Classes To Lincoln

On Sunday a project that had been planned for some time was carried out. Several of the classes of the Methodist church school visited at Lincoln at the Sunday school of the Jewish South Street Temple. After the study work the president of the church board showed them around the nice building and explained the significance of the pictures and articles. The beautiful Ram's Horn was interesting especially. They served light refreshments to the guests. Including some of the parents there were around 50 in the group. Teachers accompanying them were Richard Pratt, Mrs. Eveland, Dr. Totman, Mrs. Eldon Mendenhall, and Mrs. Harry Krall.
