

Miss Valerie Mayfield Is Bride Of Louie Allgayer, Jr.

Baskets of gladioli and chrysanthemums and two potted plants decorated the chancel for the seven o'clock wedding ceremony of Miss Valerie Mayfield to Louie Allgayer, Jr. Rev. Wm. Berger officiated at the ceremony at the Nehawka Christian church January 1, 1952 in the presence of 275 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mayfield of Nehawka, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Allgayer, Sr., of Weeping Water.

Mrs. Henry Smith of Avoca played the wedding music and accompanied Richard Ellis, cousin of the bride, who sang, "Always" and "Because of You."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with scalloped yoke of lace and high round collar and full skirt with court train. Her veil of nylon tulle was attached to the cap with white satin outlined in pearls. She carried a bouquet of carnations.

Miss Bonnie Allgayer, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of blue taffeta with half cap and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Candlelighters were Miss Charlotte Mayfield, sister of the bride, in green taffeta over net, and Miss Retha Allgayer, sister of the groom, in pink taffeta and net. Geraldine Compton was flower girl and Gary Mayfield, ringbearer. Ruth Ann Rothburn and Gene Mayfield were train bearers.

Carl Neumeister of Avoca was best man. Ushers were Eddie Snyder of Nehawka and Raymond Mayfield, Jr., brother of the bride.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the wedding. Crystal candelabra centered the lace covered table. Mrs. Roy Mayfield, Mrs. Bob Mayfield, Mrs. Ollie Mayfield and Mrs. Ray Eckles, aunts of the bride, were at the serving table. Miss Retha Small of Nebraska City was in charge of the guest book and Miss Nancy Tritsch of Plattsmouth and Mrs. Bill Winkle of Nebraska City were in charge of the gift table. A wedding dance was held at Weeping Water.

For traveling the bride chose a grey suit with matching accessories. The couple will make their home at Omaha where the groom is employed by a packing plant.

The bride is a graduate of Nehawka high school and a member of Rainbow Girls. The groom graduated from Avoca high school.

4-H Club Delegates Honored Recently At Nehawka Party

Marjorie Whipple and Peggy Sand, delegates to the National 4-H Club Congress from Nebraska, were honored at the annual 4-H Christmas party held at the Nehawka auditorium last Saturday afternoon.

They responded by giving interesting reports of their recent trip. The week was filled with programs, tours, banquets, group discussions, sightseeing, educational and inspiration events and new friendships. "An event never to be forgotten," as the two girls described it.

They exhibited many lovely gifts received at Chicago. Among them were a cook book; a book, "The Story of 4-H," a year's subscription to the "National 4-H News," a pencil and many other items.

"Marjorie and Peggy have brought back to our members our clubs and our community thoughts, inspirations and high ideals which will give us a challenge to 'make the best even better' and a determination to do our best to share with others the feeling that it is a rare privilege to live in America," their leader, Miss Evelyn Wolph said.

Gifts were exchanged around the lighted Christmas tree. Marjorie and Peggy presented Miss Wolph with a lovely 4-H desk set as a token of appreciation.

Refreshments of ice cream, candy and Christmas cookies were served from a lace covered table by the leaders.

Phyllis Switzer, announced the program. Patsy Mather played a piano solo, Janice Switzer favored with an accordion solo and the group sang "Silent Night," accompanied by Janice Switzer at the piano.

Rev. Charles Aitken celebrated his 86th birthday at Bartlett, Iowa. An oyster stew was served in his honor for Mr. and Mrs. Ward Schade, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schade and family, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Aitken of Randolph, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Johnson.
