CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, January 20, 1952.
The Golden Text is: "Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it." (Proverbs 16:22). Other Bible citations include: "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning." (James 1:17).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Life is without beginning and without end. Eternity, not time, expresses the thought of Life, and time is no part of eternity. One ceases in proportion as the other is recognized. Time is finite; eternity is forever infinite. Life is neither in nor of matter. What is

Sunday Sermon

CHARITY is a bedrock virtue. It is not a thing of moods or gusts. The man who comes home after doing some good deed for a stranger might be grouchy with his wife, or lose his temper with the children. These lapses may not be too serious; but they suggest, at the very least, that he lacks the quality of soul which genuine charity involves.
Charity is not simply being generous or helpful toward others. Charity is also patience and forbearance. It is humility and understanding. It is love for God expressed in love of neighbor. Charity is identifying oneself with others in their needs and difficulties, whether these be physical, emotional or spiritual.
What makes charity a supreme virtue is that it combines the love of God and neighbor. Charity is universal, admitting of no exceptions. It encompasses enemy as well as friend, poor as well as rich. It takes no stock of differences of race, creed, or social or cultural background. The man of charity sees in every other human being a creature as truly God-made as he is himself.
Charity brings hope and grace to life. It is the secret weapon through which alone the world may expect to win a genuine and enduring peace.
In these days of east-west tensions, of mounting international suspicions and fears, the greatest need is for a rededication to the spirit of brotherhood—this is but another name for charity—between men and nations. Hate, which is the destruction of charity, spells eventual catastrophe.

Elmwood

Mrs. Grace Plybon

P. N. G. Kensington met at the home of Dora and Minnie Engelking on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Jessie Bragg of Raymond spent several days last week visiting friends here. She made her home with Ruth Monning. Guests there were Grace Blessing of Murdock, Maude Creamer and Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt. Jessie and Ruth were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Arnold on Friday evening. On Sunday Miss Bragg went to the LeRoy Cook home and on to Murdock for dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Seirich and family.
Helen Schneider spent a long week end at Fremont and Omaha.

Friend Presents Organ To Church

Members and friends of the Methodist church received a thrilling surprise on Sunday afternoon when it was learned that a friend is presenting a Baldwin electric organ to be installed before the first of March. The church board has accepted the gift. The present pipe organ has been used since 1930. It was purchased from the Plymouth Congregational church in Lincoln when they moved to their new building. Rev. Peter Van Fleet gave it in memory of his wife. There was a large happy crowd there on organ dedication day. Of late the extensive repairs and tunings were becoming burdensome, but its music has been enjoyed throughout the years.
Fred Wilken has been very poorly the last few weeks.

Grades Present School Operetta

Perchance the audience at the grade school operetta, "Dickens' Christmas Carol" enjoyed the program better on January 9th than it had been given in the busy holiday week. Warren Turner, music instructor had charge. The central character, Ebenezer Scrooge, was represented by Dale Lannin. Singing near his office were the carolers, and ragtime, the angels, the ghouls and the ghosts.
Speaking ghost was Dick Thomas, as Marley. Ned Totman was secretary for Scrooge. Jim Jicka was Bob Cratchit, and Sharon Phillips played Mrs. Cratchit. Their children were Bob Hall, Linda Husar, Donna Swartz, Rick Kuehn, Cheryl Bomeister, and Richard Vogt. The latter was Tiny Tim and he acted his part and sang the solo in a pleasing manner. The goose was a noticeable table centerpiece.
The grocery lads and lasses and little chefs brought the parcels and baskets of food.
Much credit is due the leader and teachers and parents for the costumes. A gift was presented to Joyceola Eidenmiller, the pianist.

Mrs. James Receives Life Membership In Woman's Society

January W. S. C. S. meeting was held at the Methodist church. After the president, Marie Clements, had opened the service and Miss Ward lead in prayer, it was announced that Mrs. Ed James was the recipient of a life membership pin, presented by her daughters, Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Trunkelbolz. Spiritual life leader, Mrs. Lannin, in a few well chosen words, gave expression of the appreciation of the members of the work of Mrs. James, and how they too joy in the honor bestowed upon her.
Report was given of the holiday entertaining of girl students and other church girls by Winona Burrill and Marjorie Cook at the home of the latter.
For status of women talk Mrs. Reber chose Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as the most outstanding woman of today. "My Day" is the title of her news column in several magazines. Elma Gerbeling gave the topic, "Hobbies of Missionaries."
Mrs. Horton's book report was on "The Road to Bithynia," a late publication. Miss Jessie Bragg used as devotional topic, "For the joy that is set before us." The star, the high light, represents, guidance, end of quest, rest and bliss.
Lucy Mendenhall's topic was "What gifts bring we to the Master." She was assisted by five others in giving what the gifts might be, for individuals and for groups.
An offering was received for the March of Dimes. There were several visitors present and the number of members was reported as 114.
Vera Pratt was social committee chairman. A tea with a decorated table and service was presided over by Marie Clements and Leila Buell. Gladys Buell had charge of another decorated table at which those with January birthdays enjoyed refreshment together.
Dudley Leavitt was the soloist at the Christian church on Sunday.
Rev. E. F. Haist was ill the latter part of the week. On Sunday Rev. Mr. Adams preached for him and the pulpit at Immanuel church was supplied from Murdock.
