

OUR CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Truth" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, January 27, 1952. The Golden Text is: "Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:31, 32). Other Bible citations include: "I chart, therefore, that, first of all, applications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth." (1 Timothy 2:1, 3, 4).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The purpose and motive to live aright can be gained now. This point won, you have started as you should. You have begun at the nomenclature-table of Christian Science and nothing but wrong intention can hinder your advancement. Working and praying with true motives, your Father will open the way. Who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth?" (Page 326).

Sunday Sermon

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER

Nicomemus, a Hesitant Follower
Lesson for January 27: John 3: 1-10, 4:5-7
Golden Text: John 3: 3

THE NAME of Nicodemus is familiar to readers of the New Testament, and doubtless he is always recalled as one who came to Jesus by night. Did he come by night because he was afraid to come openly? No one knows and, in view of the uncertainty, let us be slow to condemn him as cowardly.
The inquiry of Nicodemus led Jesus to speak to him of the new birth as so necessary that without it no man can enter the kingdom of God. Education, the law, and the resolutions of a man's will cannot make him good. Only through faith in Christ can a man pass from sin unto life. For only the power of God can cleanse the human heart.
Months after the visit of Nicodemus to Jesus, the Sanhedrin sent officers to arrest Jesus and bring him to them. But the officers returned without Jesus and said, "Never man spake like this man." Hearing this, the rulers vowed that the people who were hearing Jesus were accursed. Then Nicodemus spoke boldly and said, "Doth our law judge any man before it hear him?" Thus he intimated that the rulers were guilty of breaking a law they claimed to uphold. Certainly at that time Nicodemus did not betray any fear. Let every man be true to his own soul and give Jesus a chance to be heard. And let all who undertake to teach the gospel unto others make sure that they know whereof they speak.
