Legion Urges Attendance At Church Sunday

One of the steps in the American Legion "Back to God" program is that of the "Go to Church" Sunday, February 3. Commander Eugene Krings of the Hugh J. Kearns post of this city, is urging all members of the organization as well as the citizens in general to gather at the church of their choice on this date.

"Go to Church Sunday" honors the four heroic chaplains who on February 3, 1943, gave their lives to four enlisted men of the torpedoed troop transport Dorchester to give them a chance for life. The four chaplains, Catholic, Protestant and Jewish, sank in the icy waters of the Atlantic, reciting the prayers of their faiths to their God.

National Commander Wilson points to the fact "For God and Our Country" the American Legion was dedicated. In this day of danger to freedom and religion he is asking the membership of the Legion to rededicate itself and membership in the program of Back to God.

Members of the local clergy and churches of all faiths are offering the opportunity of gathering for worship on Sunday, February 2nd.
