Third Anniversary Will Be Observed By 8 & 40 Salon

Cass County Salon, No. 441, 3 & 40, held its regular March in the lounge of the 40 & 8 club Thursday night with Chapeau Mary Neisen presiding.

Several letters received from patients at the tuberculosis hospital at Kearney were read. The letters expressed the joy of the children in receiving Valentines, candies, place cards and cookies for Valentine's day. A thank you note to Nettie Ruse from a patient who received a birthday gift was also read. Birthday gifts were also sent children in the hospital by Mollie Gobelman and Mary Gobelman. A letter from Walter Britton was read thanking members for the Christmas gift.

Patients at the Denver Jewish tubercular hospital will be remembered in March for St. Patrick's day. Serenades are to be made and sent to the T. B. hospital in Tucson, Arizona, for Easter.

The salon will celebrate its third birthday anniversary in March and will initiate a new member. A covered dish dinner for the members is planned.

The Department Chapeau will be invited to the special party. Mrs. Dorothy Janacek and Mrs. Margaret Feldhausen are co-chairmen for the covered dish dinner. Sophia Wolcver and Vera Wurga will help with table decorations.

Constitution, by-laws and new rituals were ordered. The group also voted to send $5 to the 100 Club to help purchase a bed for the Denver hospital.

Alpha Muncie department child welfare chairman, gave her report as presented to the Pousvoir meeting in Grand Island recently. Highlights of the report were that last year Nebraska won the trophy for the most money and hours spent on child welfare; $14,263.65 was spent serving 1,037 children. She explained that it costs $30 a day or $10,950 a year to care for one person afflicted with TB. She attended the banquet Friday night and gave her report at the Legion child welfare conference Saturday afternoon.

Games were played at the close of the meeting. Mary Gobelman, a new member from Union, was able to attend the Marche.

St. John's Guild Meets Monday

St. John's Guild of the St. John's church was entertained Monday evening by Lucille Horn Gaines at her home. The evening was spent in needlework in preparation for the forthcoming sale to be held by the group. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the evening.

Knabe-Staple Rites Are Solemnized At Nehawka

Baskets of pink gladioli and white snapdragons in seven branch candelabra decorated the chancel for the two o'clock wedding Sunday, February 17, of Miss Margaret Ann Knabe and Donald Staples.

Mrs. Donald Staples

Rev. Fred Gardner performed the ceremony in the presence of 100 guests at the Nehawka Methodist church. Mrs. Elmer Ross played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Ivan Hansen who sang, "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Knabe of Nehawka. The groom is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Staples of Blair.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of delicate imported chintilly lace and nylon tulle in misty bridal white. The smooth bodice featured tiny satin back buttons and a round-neckline piped with satin. Soft puff sleeves were completed by tulle and lace mitts. The voluminous skirt was tier upon tier of lace and tulle, cascading into a slight whisper of a train. Her fingertip veil of imported English silk illusion fell softly from a small matching lace Juliet cap accentuated by delicate seed pearls.

For a wedding trip Mrs. Staples chose a navy blue suit with blue accessories. She wore an orchid corsage. The couple will make their home at Polk, where he is a music teacher.

The bride is a graduate of Nehawka high school and Nebraska Wesleyan University where she was affiliated with Phi Mu Sorority. The groom is also a graduate of Wesleyan where he was affiliated with Phi Kappa Tau and Kappa Kappa Psi fraternities. He is a Blair high school graduate.

Also assisting at the reception were Mrs. Chester Stone, Miss Frances Hansen, Miss Doris Franke, Miss Lelia Edmonds, Mrs. Leroy Ahrends, Mrs. Elmer Stall, Mrs. Vance Balfour, Miss Mable Lewis, Mrs. Ray Nixon and Miss Jessie Baldwin who was in charge of the guest book.

Miss Marilyn Kent of Table Rock was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of green net over satin styled with a stole over the shoulder. She carried white carnations and pink roses and wore a white hyacinth halo in her hair. She wore silver slippers.

Rosina Ammon of Bassett and Beverly Bonner of Nehawka were bridesmaids. They wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor in pink and blue.

Miss Jean Stone was candlelighter and wore a pink formal gown and wrist corsage.

Byron Bergman of Sioux Falls, S. D., was best man. Ushers were John Knabe of Nehawka and Kenneth Rhodes of Blair. A reception for 150 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

A four tier wedding cake centered the lace covered serving table surrounded by greenery, pink camellias, crystal candelabra and white tapers.

Cutting the cake was Mrs. Richard McConnaka of Pender, assisted by Mrs. Ray McConnaka of Herman, Mrs. Sterling Ingwerson of Plattsmouth, Presiding.

ing at the tea table were Mrs. John Hansen, Mrs. R. L. Pemberton of Peoria, Ill., Mrs. Julian Johnson, Mrs. Arnold Yearsley, and Mrs. Byron Bergman of Sioux Falls, S. W. Miss Sara Harris was in charge of the guest book.

Also assisting at the reception were Mrs. Chester Stone, Miss Frances Hansen, Miss Doris Franke, Miss Lelia Edmonds, Mrs. Leroy Ahrends, Mrs. Elmer Stall, Mrs. Vance Balfour, Miss Mable Lewis, Mrs. Ray Nixon and Miss Jessie Baldwin who was in charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip Mrs. Staples chose a navy blue suit with blue accessories. She wore an orchid corsage. The couple will make their home at Polk, where he is a music teacher.

The bride is a graduate of Nehawka high school and Nebraska Wesleyan University where she was affiliated with Phi Mu Sorority. The groom is also a graduate of Wesleyan where he was affiliated with Phi Kappa Tau and Kappa Kappa Psi fraternities. He is a Blair high school graduate.

Coloradoans Are Dinner Honorees

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Harms entertained at dinner Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. Hal Smith of Proctor, Colo.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Harms, Darwin and Harry of Hancock, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harms and Barbara of Omaha; and Mrs. Ray Stewart and sons of Bellevue.

Local Girls In Casts Of University "Coed Follies"

Mrs. John Sattler, Mrs. Wm. Schmidtman, Mrs. Clement T. Woster and Mrs. A. B. Rogers of Plattsmouth, and Mrs. R. W. Tyson of Murray, attended the "Coed Follies" presented at the University of Nebraska Tuesday night.

Participating in the program were Miss Marilyn Tyson of Murray, Miss Janis Schmidtman, Miss Patricia Rogers and Miss Tina Woster, all of Plattsmouth.

Kappa Kappa Gamma presentation, "Invitation to Immigration," directed by Phoebe Dempster and Miss Schmidtman placed second. Miss Tyson was a member of the cast.

Misses Rogers and Woster were in the Delta Delta Delta presentation, "Crisis in Candyland."

Miss Woster was also a finalist for selection of the typical Nebraska Coed and appeared in the style revue.

The ladies report that the feature event involved some two to three hundred University men who crashed the doors on two occasions.

Union Auxiliary Has Program On "Americanism"

American Legion Auxiliary of Union met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Howard Snodgrass, assisted by Mrs. Fred Baker and Mrs. Ted Brannon.

President Mrs. Harry Gobelman presided. In the absence of Secretary Mrs. Eugene Roddy, Mrs. Ted Brannon was named acting secretary. The regular business meeting followed the opening ritual.

Mrs. Robert Harrah, Sr., presented the lesson, "Americanism." "Know Your America" was given by Mrs. Howard Snodgrass. Mrs. Wayne Seales spoke on famous documents and Mrs. Roy Becker gave an address on legislation. A "Go to Church" paper was read by Mrs. Ted Brannon, chaplain, and a report of the mid-winter conference was given by Mrs. Charles Attebery.

Auxiliary members also learned that Boys & Girls county government will be held at Plattsmouth April 9.

The group voted to have the Legion birthday basket supper March 16 at the Legion Hall. The supper will be served at six o'clock.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Claude Kennedy and little son, Bobbie, were at Nebraska City Tuesday where they visited friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hutchinson and family spent the week end with relatives at Oxford, Nebr.

Ten-Day Texas Trip Enjoyed By Local Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Greeley Beil, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Wildon Switzer of Nehawka, recently returned from a 10-day trip to El Paso, Texas. Highlight of the trip was a visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Pfc. and Mrs. Forest G. Beil.

Pfc. Beil is stationed at nearby Fort Bliss, where he is an accountant in the small arms department of anti-aircraft artillery.

Following a tour of El Paso and Fort Bliss, they took a scenic drive through the mountains overlooking the city and Juarez, Mexico. Another drive along the Rio Grande river, through cotton growing areas where land was being prepared for spring seeding and irrigation, was enjoyed.

One day was spent on a trip to White Sands National monument and museum, through the mountains to a government experimental station, and the resort town of Las Cruces, New Mexico. A sight-seeing and shopping trip to Juarez was also enjoyed.

En route to Texas they visited White's City and toured Carlsbad Cavern in New Mexico. The return trip was made through cotton and wheat growing country and the extensive oil territories.

They spent the night at Lubbock, Texas, where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Cary Nixon, cousins of Mrs. Switzer, returning home Thursday.

Parons-Hodge Rites Are Solemnized At Nebraska City

WEeping WATER—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Lester Parson announce the marriage of their daughter, Marilyn Joan to Sterling W. Hodge, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling W. Hodge of Lincoln. The couple drove to Nebraska City Wednesday, February 20 where they were united in marriage in a single ring ceremony by Judge West.

They were guests of her parents that evening for dinner. Mrs. Hodge, who is employed in the office of Dr. Earl Brooks, is a graduate of Lincoln General hospital of Lincoln. Mr. Hodge attended University of Nebraska and is now employed as purchasing agent for the Lincoln Fixture Supply Company. They are at home at 429 So. 25th St., Lincoln.
