Quality Feed Shortage May Boost Illnesses
Due to shortages of quality feed in some areas, farmers were cautioned today to watch for a possible increase in digestive upsets and even fatal poisonings in cattle, swine and other livestock this spring.

The feed situation is tighter this year because much of last year's hay crop was rained on and a lot of wet, immature corn was harvested, the American Foundation for Animal Health said today.

The danger in feeding soft corn will increase with the arrival of warmer weather, the report said. "Farmers who do not check for proper balance in their rations when feeding soft corn to sows, may experience a sharp increase in stillborn, or sickly litters."

Feeding of moldy grain, hay, and silage can be dangerous to all farm animals. Horses may get a disease similar to sleeping sickness. Another type of feed fungus can cause lumpy-jaw in cattle. Moldy sweet clover may be responsible for a disease, which causes the blood of cattle to lose its clotting ability. Ergot poisoning can be another problem when grain grown in wet seasons is fed. A grain fungus is responsible for one type of pneumonia in poultry and calves. Several skin diseases of animals are also due to grain fungi.

If moldy or inferior feed has to be fed to livestock, keep a sharp lookout for poisoning symptoms, and at the first sign of trouble get a diagnosis. Sometimes the symptoms are easily confused with those of contagious diseases, and proper treatment will depend on correct and early identification of the exact trouble, the Foundation advised.

Wheat Agreement To Be Discussed
Representatives of wheat-producing states throughout the Great Plains area have been invited by Charles Marshall, president of the Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation, to meet in Omaha at the Hotel Paxton, Friday and Saturday, March 28 and 29, to discuss the International Wheat Agreement.

Wheat producers from Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado, Montana, Washington and Oregon, have been invited to the Omaha discussions. Gene Hamilton and Frank Woolley of the American Farm Bureau office in Washington, D. C., have been invited to participate to explain the operation of the International Wheat Agreement.

Ice Capades at Ak-Sar-Ben, April 10-16

Donna Atwood as Cinderella and Bobby Specht as Prince Charming in Ice Capades production of "Cinderella."

Disney Magical Musical Transferred to Ice!

You have to see it to believe it but Ice Capades, John Harris' great ice extravaganza, increases in production, beauty and sheer brilliance each year. We thought we had tops with previous shows portraying "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "Toy Shop," and last year's "Student Prince," but this year's presentation of Walt Disney's "Cinderella" dwarfs them all. Cinderella, Prince Charming, the wicked stepmother and stepsisters on skates! And, of course, no story of Cinderella would be complete without the coach and the four white horses which change into a pumpkin drawn by four white mice at midnight. The story is all there plus Cinderella hit tunes including "Dream Is a Wish," "Bibbidi Bobbidi Boo," "Cinderella," "So This Is Love." The lovely Donna Atwood plays Cinderella and Bobby Specht is the gallant Prince Charming. Cinderella is one Ice Capades number you will never forget.

But Cinderella is only one of the 10 great production numbers which include: "Gypsy Gold," a thrilling, throbbing dance number blending startling vigor with perfect rhythm; "Birds of a Feather," with gorgeous peacock costumes complete with huge fan-tail feathers 9 feet across and 6 feet high; "Teddy Bears' Picnic" with the whole Teddy Bear family; "State of the Union," a marvel of precision with the Ice Capades drilling as robots, mechanically perfect.

In addition to the 10 great production numbers there are 20 acts with the old favorites, and many new stars including that lovable pair, the Old Smoothies, who are back again to delight young and old; Trixie, world's foremost woman juggler now performing on ice for the second year with a new bag of tricks; the inimitable Joe Jackson, with his tramp bicycle act; Esco Larue; Alan Konrad; the poker-faced comics from Australia, the Maxwells; Sook and Roman; Jackson and Lynn; Mary Lou Landreville, and many others.

Ice Capades of 1952 comes to Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum in Omaha April 10 through April 16, with performances nightly at 8:30 and matinees Saturday, April 12 and Sunday, April 13, at 2:30. Prices are: Rinkside seats and box seats, $3.50; Reserved seats, $2.40 and $1.20. All prices include federal tax.

Tickets may be ordered by mail now and it is urged that requests be placed early, as last year many were disappointed. Address orders to Omaha Coliseum Corporation, Box 5, Elmwood Station, Omaha, Nebr., and enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope and check or money order payable to Omaha Coliseum Corporation. Be sure to state clearly the number and price of tickets wanted and the date of performance desired. It is advisable that a first and second choice of performances be given.

Eagles To Nominate Officers Tonight; Election In April

Nomination of officers for 1952-53 of Plattsmouth Aerie, No. 365, Fraternal Order of Eagles will be held Thursday night, March 27th. The meeting is slated for eight o'clock at the lodge hall.

Nominations will include those for president, vice president, chaplain, conductor, two guards, and one trustee for a three year term. The term of John Sattler as trustee expires this year. Doran Bowman currently heads the group.

Election of officers will be held at the first meeting in April and new officers will be installed at the first meeting in June.

Eagles have also outlined tentative plans for observing the 49th anniversary of the founding of the lodge here. The celebration, which tentatively calls for a dinner, dance and movies, was approved by the officers and will be voted on by the membership. The event will probably be held April 20.

BEAR COMES TO TRAPPER
CAMPTON, N. H. — A few hours after Willis Merrill set a trap for a bear he suspected was in the vicinity of his woodland home, the bear appeared outside the house, dragging the trap in which one paw was caught. Merrill went out and shot the bear.

Reports, Films Feature Rotary Club Meeting

Reports of the district conference, high school student reports, and sports movies highlighted a meeting of the Plattsmouth Rotary Club Tuesday noon at Hotel Plattsmouth.

The convention report was presented by I. L. Kocian, who with George Conis, attended the two day convention.

Student reports were given by Ivar Bomberg, senior, and Tom Conis, junior. The two high school students had attended March meetings of the club.

Dr. L. A. Amato was program chairman, substituting for Fred Lugsch, who has been ill. Dr. Amato presented sports films on fishing in Florida waters.

Attending the Tuesday noon session were new members E. A. Ernst, John Soennichsen and Les Dalton.

During the Rotary session, Dr. L. S. Pucelik, president, disclosed that a New Jersey community had written the local club seeking information about the Silver Anniversary programs which were printed for the 25th year of the local club. The letter explained that the New Jersey club will soon observe its 25th anniversary and wanted additional information about the programs and where they were printed. The programs were printed in the Plattsmouth Journal plant.

Pucelik also called Rotarians attention to the awards recently won by the Journal for community service and general excellence.
