They attended the organ services at the Methodist church also. Mrs. Cora Reeder of Fremont visited her mother, Mrs. Williams, and her sister, Mrs. Schneider, on Friday and Saturday.

Wesleyan Chorus Presents Chorus

The men's A 'Capella chorus of Wesleyan University gave a concert for the school and for the public at the Methodist church on Friday at 11 a. m. After the enjoyable music the singers were entertained in the basement to a pancake dinner. The W. S. C. S. ladies served also pancakes and other eats to the public for dinner and supper and thus made a nice little sum.

The ladies council met at the Christian church on Friday afternoon.

Mr. Drake, who has been managing the Elms cafe, plans to start in at his former log hauling work after the first of April. Mrs. Thomas is to take over the cafe business.

Boy, Girl Picked For State Meet

Keith Bornemeier has been chosen by several organizations to represent our community at Boys' State and Beth Blessing will go to Girls' State convention at the University of Nebraska campus early this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bantz of Albion, Nebr., are moving into an apartment at the Douglas home. He will work at the Engles Lumber Co., with his cousin, Fred Linhardt, who is also employed there.

Mrs. Nettie Mendenhall was a business visitor in Weeping Water on Friday. She also called on friends while there.

Rev. S. W. Longacre, a former pastor here, is in Bryan Memorial hospital for treatment.

Lyman Cromwell was a week end business visitor in Elmwood.

or Sunday and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller. The three ladies are sisters. Miss Hazel Billows of Raymond attended the memorial service for Mrs. Gillett. She reports that Miss Jessie Bragg is in Wyoming, because of the death of her brother-in-law, husband of the former Lucy Bragg.

Organ Dedicated At Church Sunday

Sunday was a large day at the Methodist church. The new organ was dedicated in the morning under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. Miss Ward. The organ music was ably played by Mrs. Dwight Clements, several special solos being rendered. A large crowd was present, among them Rev. and Mrs. Victor West, the former giving a talk. Other Lincoln visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cowell and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Miller and family. Also present was Matthew Thimman of Murdock who made the panels and did other carpenter work, and his wife. Special thanks were expressed in the church bulletin and in words to the unnamed donor of the organ and to the various other contributors and helpers in the beautifying of the pulpit arrangements.

Mrs. Gillette, 86, Former Elmwood Resident, Dies

Mrs. Hattie Dickinson Gillett, 86, of Lincoln passed away in that city on Friday, March 28. She was a native of Michigan. She lived near Eight Mile Grove as a youth. Much of her life was spent in and around Elmwood, but she had lived at Lincoln in the home of her son, Wright, for 12 years. She also was with her son, Frank, and daughter, Margaret for part of the time. On March 12, 1886 she was married to Frank Gillett. She and her husband were in the cream and poultry station business here for a number of years. He died some years ago after a car accident. She was a member of the Christian church and Royal Neighbor lodge while here. Survivors are the two sons in Lincoln and the daughter, Mrs. Emil Meyer of Fairbury, 3 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church in Elmwood on Monday afternoon in charge of Rev. Sneaff of Lincoln and Rev. O. Turner, pastor here.

Singers were Opal Clements and Helen Schneider, and at the piano was Mrs. Jessie Creamer. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

Treating Vegetable Seeds Is Profitable

It's a good idea to see that the vegetable seeds you plant in the garden this spring are treated with Spergon or Arasan, says Extension Plant Pathologist John L. Wehling of the University of Nebraska.

waiting to attack them when they are planted in the soil. The compounds, he says, will, in a sense, form a protective armor around the seeds and will either kill or ward off those disease organisms trying to enter the seed. Life is a question of checks and balances—to be exact, bank balances.

FIRST PERFECT "A" GRAD

COLUMBUS, O. — The first person ever to finish three years at Ohio State University's college of law with a perfect "A" grade average is 24-year-old William H. Lutz, Jr., of Columbus, who was graduated on March 14th. Besides studying, Lutz found time to do two outside bookkeeping jobs, work for the Legislative Reference Bureau in the State House, and be an associate editor of the Ohio State University Law Journal.
