

Easter Service Expect To Draw Large Congregations

Hundreds of Plattsmouth and Cass county residents will pay homage to Jesus Christ on Sunday, April 13, which marks the resurrection of God's son. Special services on Sunday and throughout most of the past week have been conducted and will be held by local churches.

Special Lenten services were held in many churches during the past several weeks while special Easter programs have marked more recent religious activities here.

Services will be conducted Good Friday at St. John's and Holy Rosary Catholic churches at 8:00 a. m. and noon; at United Presbyterian church at Murray in cooperation with the Christian church at eight o'clock in the evening; at Immanuel Lutheran church at ten o'clock; at Christ Lutheran church at 8 p. m.; at St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church at 7:30 p. m., and at St. Luke's Episcopal church at ten o'clock.

All churches have scheduled Sunday morning services, with several Sunday evening services also planned.

Check the church column in today's Plattsmouth Journal and plan to attend Holy Week services at one of the churches listed. The church column will be found on page two of the second section.

Hiatt-Bufferington Wedding Rites Solemnized Sunday

Wesleyan Methodist church of Plattsmouth was the scene of the Sunday afternoon wedding of Miss Dorothy Arlene Hiatt and George Andrew Bufferington, March 30, 1952.

Rev. Fred Warrington, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. The wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Betty Axtell of Council Bluffs, Ia., sister of the bride. Janis Lechiter poured and Mrs. Ray Cundall was in charge of the gifts.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hiatt of Tabor, Iowa, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Ruth Bufferington of Plattsmouth.

For her wedding the bride wore a white tulle gown with net overskirt, fitted bodice and lace jacket. Her veil of imported pure silk illusion was held in place by a pearl tiara. She carried pink roses on a white ribbon.

Miss Rosalie Hiatt, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a pastel blue dotted Swiss gown and carried pink carnations in a fan-shaped bouquet.

Best man was Douglas Tilson, brother-in-law of the groom. Ushers were Dede Hiatt, brother of the bride, and Frank Shoebottom.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dede Hiatt at Murray following the ceremony. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Betty Axtell of Council Bluffs, Ia., sister of the bride. Janis Lechiter poured and Mrs. Ray Cundall was in charge of the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of Tabor high school with the class of 1950 and has been employed at the Masonic Home here. Mr. Bufferington attended Cass county schools and has been farming and employed by a construction company. They will make their home on a farm near Plattsmouth.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hiatt, Rosalie and Louise of Tabor, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Booth and family of Glenwood, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hiatt and family of Tabor, Mrs. Gladys Axtell and family of Council Bluffs, and Junior Hiatt of Tabor.

Participating will be Nannette Cognac, Jan Woodruff, Mary Smith, Regina Nelson, Judy Siemert, Joyce Newton, Dick Newton, Zandra Nielsen, Carol Cleaver, Sandra Cleaver, Mary Schmitt, Jeanne Hubbell, Roxie McGill, Linda Gauer, Nancy Gauer, Janice McKinney, Ellen Born, Linda Abel, Joyce McClanahan, Sandra Spangler, Barbara Wiyel, Linda Martin, Norma Martin, Sandra Abel, Carol Schreiner, Marcia Lagerstrom, Lucky Myers, Janice Wiles and Joyce Kerns.

Mental Health Is Subject Of Women's Club Lesson

Mental Health was the theme of Monday night's meeting of the Plattsmouth Senior Woman's Club held at the home of Mrs. Karl Grosshans. The subject was interestingly discussed by Mrs. Allen Laaker, manager of Crowell home for the aged at Blair.

Mrs. Laaker brought out the importance and need for understanding mental patients, the lack of trained personnel for caring for these patients, and the help that Women's clubs can be in encouraging such training.

She emphasized too the fact that "if people will take all their emotional upsets to God" it will be much better than all the medicine in the world. Many guests of club members also heard Mrs. Laaker's address.

Mrs. Grosshans was assisted in the entertainment by Mrs. Leslie Neil, Mrs. Mollie Gobelman, Mrs. John Carmack, Mrs. Mable Engelke, Mrs. Philip Lepert, Mrs. Robert Milasch and Mrs. Nellie Spangler.

The business meeting was opened by Mrs. Lara Keller, president. Mrs. Glen Valery conducted the devotional and chose as her subject, "Easter," reading from Matthew, Chapter 28, and a poem, "Easter Lilies," stressing the idea that the lilies leave it to God, "why don't you."

Mrs. Lester Dalton reminded members of the state convention of Nebraska Federated Women's Club to be held in Omaha April 22, 23 and 24. Mrs. Keller and Mrs. Woolcott were elected as delegates with Mrs. Grosshans and Mrs. Wm. Heinrich, alternates.

A report of gifts and contributions made by the Senior club during the past year was presented. The report showed that $225 had been contributed to various organizations and worthwhile causes.

The Senior women elected to have their banquet with the Junior Women's club, at the request of the junior club.

The next and final meeting of the club will be the spring banquet under the leadership of Mrs. Al Nierste, vice president.

Mrs. Atkinson Is Honored On 70th Birthday April 4

Mrs. Ollie Atkinson was honored on her 70th birthday anniversary at a surprise dinner at her home April 4. A delicious dinner, topped off with the traditional ice cream and cake, was served.

Present were Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Keys and Darold, Mrs. Blanche Sutton and Bettie, Leland Meisinger, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Atkinson, Edna and Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kellogg and Roger and Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Cottinham.

The effort to get something for nothing explains many of the poverty-stricken people you see.
