Sister Cited For Work With 4-H Club Activities

The following was taken from the "Nineteenth Annual Home Economics Alumnae Newsletter" of the University of Nebraska:

"As usual the year 1951 has brought staff changes in the Division of Clothing and Textiles. Miss Gerda Peterson, former Home Agent of York county, is now 4-H Club clothing specialist in place of Miss Allegra Wilkens, who will retire in June after many years of enthusiastic and effective service in that position. Miss Wilkens was a pioneer in the organization of 4-H club activities and to her is given credit for helping to organize and promote the demonstration method for 4-H members as well as judging days and 4-H camps.

She wrote the first illustrated printed 4-H circulars and also initiated the state fair dress review program, which has become one of the greatest attractions on the 4-H state fair calendar. During her supervision, records show that some 150,000 girls were enrolled in 4-H clothing clubs. Quite a record and goal for her successor, Miss Peterson."

Miss Wilkens is a sister of Mrs. Nelson Berger of Nehawka and she became well known to many leaders and club members in this community through their club work.

Small; hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King" by all; Scripture reading, Rev. A. B. Small; song, "Above the Hills of Time," Miss Marjorie Heim, accompanied by Norma Lindsey.

The address was by Rev. Anders Hansen, father of Supt. Hansen. Rev. Hansen is pastor of the Lutheran church at Hamilton, Iowa, and also superintendent of the Salem home for old people and invalids at Elkhorn, Iowa. Rev. Hansen said, "Proper study for mankind is man. He exhorted the students to emulate Daniel. Daniel was a prophet and was outstanding. You will have many days of testing and temptation. The world will offer things contrary to faith in God. You will say, 'Shall I obey God or the world?' It is easier to follow the majority than to do right. Daniel was true to his mission, he was true to his God. Do right, be right toward God. Use prayer and meditation as a means of grace. Benediction was by Rev. A. B. Small, the recessional by Patsy Mather.

IN NEBRASKA...

RACING BUILDS CIVIC ENTERPRISES

Have you ever asked yourself... where do the racing dollars go in Nebraska? Because racing is different in Nebraska, no individual shares in the proceeds, which must be used for charitable, educational and civic purposes. Our county fairs share. Scholarships are made available to help worthy students. Stock shows and 4-H activities are provided. Yes—in Nebraska everybody benefits because racing isn't a business, but a sport where neighbors get together in the friendly atmosphere of good Nebraska sunshine for an afternoon of exciting entertainment.
