IMMIGRATION
A total of 663,500 aliens were cleared for entry into the United States in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1951, according to the Immigration and Naturalization Service. In the same period, the Service deported 12,253 aliens and processed the voluntary departures of an additional 67,351 deportable aliens at their own expense.

ALL A MATTER OF POSITION
When a truck backed into a railway traffic signal at Tilden and broke it off, Agent Charles Morse commented that more people paid attention to the signal when it was living in the street than they did while it was in working condition.
