

Journal Midgets Will Seek State Tourney Bid

Selection of 15 Plattsouth midget baseball players, to compete for the Plattsouth Journal with teams from throughout eastern Nebraska were named today by Lindy Wolever, manager of the state entry.

Application for the team to compete in American Legion midget baseball tournaments in the state have been drawn up and will be submitted to department headquarters.

Under rules laid down by the American Legion, midget baseball teams are limited to 15 players. Boys born prior to January 1, 1937, are ineligible for midget ball. A boy may become 15 during the year but must not pass his 16th birthday.

Town Team Seeks First Win Tonight As Millard Host

Plattsouth will seek its first win in the D-S-C Baseball league tonight when the local nine is entertained by the high flying Millard entry.

Victim of inexperience in its first two games, Plattsouth bowed to Weeping Water and Springfield. The Thursday night game at Millard was necessitated since Millard had a previously scheduled game for Sunday.

A late entry in the league, Plattsouth is filling in the unscheduled games of league teams.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Busch of the Ladies Toggery, were in Omaha the first of the week to attend the Central Market being held for the merchants of the middle west.

Junior Legion Team Will Test Louisville Nine

Plattsouth American Legion junior baseball team has a chance to square things with Louisville Sunday when the two teams meet in what could be the deciding game in Junior Legion district play.

The outcome of Sunday's game may determine the league champion. Plattsouth Junior Legion will be host to the Louisville nine at 2:30 at Memorial Athletic Field.

Although Louisville is favored to win the district, Haith promises that the Plattsouth Junior Legion "will try to knock them off."

Louisville took a one-run victory from the high school team early this spring and will probably have Chris Salberg on the mound come Sunday. Salberg pitched and batted the Lions to a win over the Blue Devils.

Jon Schuetz will undoubtedly get the nod from Coach Carl Haith as he sends his charges after their third consecutive win. Ashland and Springfield have been victims of Haith's Juniors in recent outings.

Louisville maintained pace with the Platters Sunday by tripping Weeping Water 5-3. Led by Salberg, who clouted a two-run triple and struck out 13 Indians, the Lions are rated one of the better teams in the district. Weeping Water managed one hit off Salberg and Bruce Hirsch Sunday.

At The Cass County Court House

Floyd E. Rummel was fined $100 and costs in county court Monday on a charge of illegal possession of deer. The complaint filed by Bernard L. Patton, deputy game warden for Cass county, alleged that Rummel possessed deer out of season.

Harold R. Wade was fined $10 and costs in county court on a charge of passing a stop sign. Patrolman C. E. Whitney filed the complaint.

License for marriage was issued Saturday to Gordon Gale Hanika, 22, of Plattsouth, and Helen Louise Hike, 19, of Nebraska.

Charles E. Favors, 18, of Plattsouth, and Ruth Agnes Kammerer, 18, also of Plattsouth, were issued a license for marriage Saturday.

Petition for divorce has been filed in Cass county district court by Agnes Taylor against Chester L. Taylor. The petition charges extreme cruelty and asks that the plaintiff be awarded the household goods and real estate. They were married April 25, 1936. Francis M. Casey is attorney for the plaintiff.

Rotarians Hear Of Mexico City Convention

Interesting accounts of a Rotary International convention held at Mexico City, Mexico, were cleverly outlined to Rotary Club members here Tuesday noon by District Governor William Rathke of Glenwood. A guest of program chairman Orville Nielsen, Rathke told of the customs of the Mexicans, and humorously explained incidents which occurred on his trip south with Mrs. Rathke. Of greatest interest was the organization noticeable in the convention in taking care of business before the group. The system of debate, voting, and general overall smoothness interested the Iowans.

Prior to Rathke's address, Nielsen paid special memorial tribute to Frank A. Cloldt, past president of Rotary, who died Monday.

Other highlights included introduction of visiting Rotarians, O. H. Wulstein of Omaha, Harry A. Kock of Omaha, and visitors, George Jaeger, new superintendent of BREX, and John Trecek of Omaha, a guest of I. L. Kocian.

Howard Hirz, vice president, conducted the meeting in the absence of Dr. Paclik.

Janice and Nancy Lancaster, Mary Lou Lutz, Marilyn Sporer, Minnie Mae Hoschar and Jay Dee Drucker left Sunday to attend Chirko Camp at Polk.

Cpl. Henry J. Lutz, who was home on 30-day furlough recently, is now stationed at Atterbury Air Force Base. His address is Cpl. Henry J. Lutz, A. F. 17287490, 2466th A. F. R. T. C. Atterbury Air Force Base, Columbus, Ind.

Mrs. Edward Mische and children are leaving Friday for Lexington, Missouri, where they will join Mr. Mische. The Mische family will make their home at Lexington.

Malcolm Heitzhausen of Portland, Oregon, arrived for a visit here with his grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Nolting and other relatives. He plans to spend the summer at the Charles Spangler home at Murray.

Players Assigned Midget Teams

Managers Plot Midget Strategy

Lyle Wood

Stuart Nielsen

Tom Conis

Four Plattsouth high school athletes and one of the top baseball players in the Plattsouth community have been named managers of the five Midget baseball teams which will open play here next Monday. The managers were announced today by Lindy Wolever, director of the Midget Baseball League.

Managing the midget teams will be Tom Conis, Stuart Nielsen, Lyle Wood, Larry Pierce, high school athletes, and Rich Wohlforth, one of the top ball players in the community.

Conis, start quarterback on last year's football team and guard on the basketball team will handle the reins for Plattsouth State Bank. Conis has christened his charges the "Bankers" and is anxious for the opening game against Cass Drug on Monday.

Directing the Druggists or "Soda Jerks" will be Lyle "Toots" Wood, football, basketball and baseball star at Plattsouth high last year. Woods will be a junior next year while Conis will be a senior.

Stuart Nielsen, one of the leading freshmen athletes at the high school here last year, will captain the "Bartenders", sponsored by Marge and Elmer's bar. Stuart will be the only player-manager in the league and has already been tabbed the "Eddie Stanky" of the Midget League.

Larry Pierce, fourth of the high school managers, broke into the limelight as a slugging baseball player. He capped that honor with a two-run homer for the Junior Legion team in beating Springfield Sunday. He'll handle the managerial duties for Soennichsen's.

Rich "Pop" Wohlforth has been named to manage the Woster Shoe Store entry in the league. Wohlforth, a college grad, is the granddaddy of the managers. A leading softball and baseball player in the community he is currently holding down the left field spot in the Plattsouth D-S-C entry. Rich tabbed his boys as the "Shoe Horns."

Rival managers are already plotting strategy for their opening games Monday.

Other Boys Are Still Eligible For Team Berths

Forty-three Midget baseball enthusiasts have reported to Director Lindy Wolever for berths on the five Midget Baseball teams which will open play here Monday. Players have already been assigned to four teams and a fifth is expected to be completed within the next two days in preparation for the Monday openers. Practice tilts are scheduled for Friday while league play will officially open Monday morning.

roster listed for the four other teams.

Other candidates have indicated interest in playing on the teams but were not present when signed up Tuesday. Boys ages 9 to 15 are all eligible to play in the Midget Baseball league and openings are still available for about 15 boys.

With plans to carry from 1 to 15 players on a team, 60 to 75 boys can see plenty of action in the Midget loop. The league can function with as low as 4 boys but it is desired to give every youth an opportunity to play if he desires. Others can sign up for play by reporting to the Athletic Field on Friday morning, June 13.

Shirts and caps for teams are expected to arrive by the end of the first week of play. Different colored shirts will be available for each team.

Opening round play will be the Plattsouth State Bank against Marge and Elmer's, while Cass Drug will tangle with Woster Shoe. Soennichsen's a bye.

Double headers will be played each Monday, Wednesday and Friday. As a result, each team will play five games in two weeks.
