IT'S a good thing colleges adjourn before the political conventions convene or the party panic would push the presidential race off the front page.

The Air Force has changed to "knots" and "nautical miles." The old "miles per hour" and "statute miles" weren't confusing enough.

Hints to amateur gardeners: If your lawn is full of weeds call your local cement company. You'll get rid of them and have a fine tennis court besides.

A Cleveland woman told a policeman to catch a fleeing man. The captive turned out to be her husband who ran away from an argument with her. Wonder if the cop apologized to the poor guy.

A leading woman British socialist calls for the end of alimony payments to childless divorced wives. Should put a lot of gigolos out of business.
