Missouri Ceremony United Daughter Of Mr. & Mrs. Gold

In a double-ring ceremony performed on Monday, June 30, at eight o'clock in the evening at the Engelwood Reorganized church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Miss Patricia Jean Gold of 1113 West Waldo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce E. Gold of Plattsmouth, and Edward James Juliff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percival J. Juliff of Independence, were united in marriage.

The Reverend Fred O. Davis read the service before setting of white gladioli, babies-breath, palms, woodwardia ferns and candelabras holding tall white lighted tapers. The pews of the bridal aisle were marked with bows of white satin ribbon.

Preceding the ceremony, Oliver C. Houston, Jr., played a program of organ selections, which included "Kamennoi-Ostrow," "Wonderful One," "Why Do I Love You," "Oh Promise Me" and "Thine Alone."

Mrs. William G. Simpson of Kansas City, lyric Soprano, accompanied by the organist, sang "I Love Thee" through the "Years" and "The Wedding Prayer", which was sung at the end of the service. A string ensemble composed of Forest Leibold, Annabelle Prell, Lee Kenepp, violinists; Milford Nace, cellist; and accompanied by Theima Kenano, pianist, played "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning" while candles were lighted. "O Perfect Love" was played as the minister groom and groomsmen entered and "Liebestraum" was played during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of blue pink nylon tulle over pale pink satin, fashion with a pointed basque bodice and drop shoulder neckline. The voke of illusion was draped with soft folds of matching tulle caught with lilies-of-the-valley. The long fitted sleeves which tapered over her hands were fastened with tiny covered buttons. The voluminous hooped skirt lengthened into a long aisle-wide train. Her double-tiered waist length veil of matching illusion was held in place with a shaped bonnet brim of lilies-of-the-valley, and she carried a French bouquet of bougainvillea roses and stephanotis encircling a white orchid and interspersed with white lace leave and rosette streamers of lilies-of-the-valley. She wore a single strand of pearls, which had been given
