Eagle American Legion Auxiliary Meets Recently

EAGLE — (Special) — Eagle-American Legion Auxiliary was called to order on August 4 by President Hazel Porter with 13 members present.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by Secretary Mildred Trumble and approved. The treasurer, Minnie Bird, gave her report which was also approved.

Chaplain Elsie Althouse gave a prayer which was followed by the flag salute and preamble. The legislative chairman gave her report and the group sang "America."

Following an organ selection by Dorothy Davis, a report from the card and flower chairman, Carrie Schmidt, was heard. Members learned in a letter from the state secretary that Eagle's membership quota is 28 members. A report on the state convention was given by Arlene Frohlich.

Members approved a motion of Evelyn Ronsford and seconded by Arlene Frohlich to subscribe to the Legislative Bulletin. They also approved a motion to pay Arlene Frohlich's expenses to the state convention.

On a motion by Hallie Stewart, seconded by Florence Trumble, the group voted $1 for cards and postage. Members also voted to buy paint for the kitchen cabinet and table, and oil cloth for the table.

Leionnaires joined the group for lunch with Bertha Caddy and Dorothy Davis as hostesses. The next meeting will be held September 8 with Arlene Frohlich and Lerma Doeden as hostesses.

Avoca Private Graduates From Repair School

Pvt. Richard E. Wilson, whose wife, Ruby, lives in Avoca, Neb., recently graduated from the general utilities repair course of the Army Engineer Specialist School, Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

The five-week course, designed to prepare him as a maintenance and repair man for buildings and other military post facilities, included classes in carpentry, plumbing, painting, masonry, electrical and sheet-metal work.

Private Wilson, who entered the Army last February, is serving in Company B of the 52nd Armored Engineer Battalion, 6th Armored Division.

Wilson, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Wilson, also of Avoca, worked as a farmer before he entered the Army.
