Nehawka
By Mrs. F. O. Sand
Paul Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hansen, was two August 19. His guests for the day were his grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. A. Hansen, Elkhorn, Iowa, and uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swanson of Council Bluffs.

With Wheat Planting
University of Nebraska soil specialists are advising farmers to add plenty of fertilizer at the time of planting wheat and seeding grass-legume mixtures. They say the fertilizer will pay off in bigger yields of grain and better seeding next year.

Fire Destroys Nehawka Barn
A medium sized barn was completely destroyed by fire Sunday night at 12:15 at the Ingwersen farm northwest of Nehawka which is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Neil Pierce and daughter, Mrs. Pierce discovered the fire when she awoke during the night and saw the red reflection of the flames through the window. She had been up shortly before to see if their small daughter was alright, but didn't notice the fire then. When discovered the barn was in flames. The Weeping Water and Nehawka fire departments were called and many neighbors came to assist in any way they could. The barn contained a large amount of commercial feed, salt, oats and two calves which were a total loss. The building was insured.
