Miss Dorothy Jean Cappell Is Bride Of Wm. C. Marbaker

Maroon and white gladioli and lighted candelabra were the setting for the afternoon ceremony uniting Miss Dorothy Jean Cappell of Plattsmouth and William Charles Marbaker of Costa Mesa, Calif., at the First Presbyterian church at Plattsmouth at three o'clock on Sunday, September 21, 1952.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cappell of Plattsmouth, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Marbaker of Costa Mesa, Calif.

Rev. Keith Delap, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated at the wedding ceremony. Miss Phyllis Bourck of Plattsmouth sang "Through the Years" prior to the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony. She was accompanied by Mrs. Richard Schade, organist.

For her wedding the bride wore a ballerina length gown fashioned of imported chantilly lace featuring a fitted bodice, long fitted sleeves tapering to points at the wrist, and a winged collar. The full skirt was underscored with slipper satin and net and the waist length veil of bridal illusion was held by a satin cap covered with lace to match the gown. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis. The bride wore pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. John Bieger of Omaha was matron of honor and Miss Doreen Ficus of Alma was maid of honor. They wore peacock blue ruffled nylon net gowns of ballerina length and matching headpieces and carried colonial bouquets of maroon gladioli.

Candlelighter was David Cappell, brother of the bride. Orville Conner of Burwell was best man. Ushers were Pat Allen of Lincoln, Doyle Beavers of Bennet and Robert Cappell, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cappell wore a navy nylon boucle dress with frosty pink accents. Her corsage was of pale pink and white carnations. The groom's mother wore a light blue dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations.

Music at the reception which followed in the church fellowship rooms was supplied by an antique music box belonging to the bride's parents. At the reception, Miss Elizabeth Davis of Plattsmouth poured the wedding cake. Miss Janis Schmidtman presided at the guest book and Mrs. William Howland and Miss Janet Koster of Plattsmouth presided at the gift table. Miss Betty Uhlik of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Dean Morrison of Plattsmouth, and Mrs. John Taylor and Mrs. Pat Allen of Lincoln served.

For traveling the bride chose a beige knit two-piece dress. After a short wedding trip, the couple will travel to Columbus, Georgia, where Mr. Marbaker is to report for active duty with the Army at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Mrs. Marbaker is a graduate of Plattsmouth high school and the University of Nebraska. Mr. Marbaker is also a graduate of Nebraska University.

Among the many out of town guests were Rev. and Mrs. Nyoop of Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Downey and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wohlfarth of Lincoln.
