IT'S A SWELL DAY FOR THE GAME!

Here it is again... Nebraska's Football Season... the time of year many Nebraskans enjoy most.

It's wonderful to start for the game... crispness in the air... trees blazing in color... flags and banners sparkling in the sun. Inside the stadium, our hand stirs the crowd to support our team... It's a swell day for a game!

Football is the favorite sport of a host of Nebraskans... including your tavernkeeper. He is as proud of a winning team as you are.

His problems may be more difficult—his hours longer—the laws governing his business more strict, but he takes the same interest in state and local events. He takes the same pride in being a part of his community.

He's a good citizen and neighbor, and worth knowing better.
