

Fourteen At Sun Bonnet Garden Club Meeting Here

Fourteen members and four visitors were present for the regular monthly meeting of Sun Bonnet Garden Club which met at the home of Mrs. Celia Lancaster Thursday afternoon.

The meeting was opened by repeating "The Lord's Prayer," led by Mrs. Eleanor Winscott.

Roll call was answered by each member giving the name and description of a flower beginning with the letter of their first name.

Mrs. Lena Hansell became a member of the club and members voted to give $3 to the polo fund.

The lesson "October Planting and Preparing Garden for Winter," was presented by Velma Bowman. She also gave the history of the "Little Brown Church in the Vale."

An original poem, "Grumbling," was read by Celia Lancaster. Quiz games were played with Mrs. Lee Eastridge, Mrs. Lena Hansell, Mrs. Earl Shanholtz and Eleanor Winscott prize winners.

Suggestions for Christmas gifts will be answers to roll call at the November meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Edith Akeson.

Couple Feted On 35th Wedding Anniversary

NEHAWKA—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. John Kenneth Scharp entertained at dinner Sunday honoring Mr. Scharp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Scharp of Nebraska City, whose 35th wedding anniversary occurred Saturday, October 4.

Guests included besides the honorees, Mrs. Mary C. Schreiner, Mrs. Emma Scharp, Mrs. Edna Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zeiner, all of Nebraska City. Mrs. Zeiner baked a two-tier wedding cake for the occasion.

Robert Bestor Is Guest Here

Robert H. Bestor of Coos Bay, Oregon, arrived Saturday evening from his home on the west coast for a brief visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Bestor in this city and also with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Troop of Nehawka, parents of Mrs. Bestor. Mrs. Bestor and the children were not able to accompany Bob owing to school activities. A pleasant surprise to the Oregon visitor was the fact that John Kenneth Bestor, a brother residing at Kansas City, was here to join the family group.

Swineys Stop Here En Route Home In Colorado

Rev. and Mrs. George Swiney, formerly of Plattsmouth, stopped here to visit friends on their way home from Prairie Bible Institute at Alberta, Canada, where their eldest son, Loren, is in his freshman year at high school.

On their return to Lamar, Rev. Swiney expects to start a radio broadcast of the Gospel featuring quartet singing, familiar Gospel hymns.

Live Wire Farm Bureau Unit Meets Wednesday

Members of the Live Wire Farm Bureau Unit met Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Heim.

The meeting was conducted by our newly elected president, Mr. Heim, there being 12 members, one visitor, Henry Morris of Goff, Kan., and four children present.

The message of our chairman of Associated Women was that everyone go and vote so we have a hundred per cent.

A discussion was held on the resolutions to be discussed at the annual board meeting at Weeping Water on October 28. Members desiring tickets for the banquet advise the president by October 18th.

Following the business meeting the remainder of the evening was spent socially. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Heim. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Grosshans.

Youths Enjoy 4,000 Mile Trip

Jerome Ulrich and friend, Jerry Tarnhill, returned Thursday from a trip through six states. They visited Carlsbad Caverns and many places of interest on a 4,000-mile trip. In the mountains snow has already fallen and temperatures had dropped to 5 degrees below zero. They descended to the floor of Grand Canyon on mules.

Jerome has enlisted in the Air Force and will leave next week for California.

Twenty-Six At Goldenrod Study Club Meeting

Goldenrod Study Club met at the home of Mabel Meisner with Eloise Jacobs, Ellen Spangler and Irma Sullivan assistant hostesses.

Twenty-six members answered roll call. Visitors were Mrs. Roy Howard, Mrs. Carl Schneider and Mrs. Meyers.

Margaret Ann Dingsman conducted the business meeting. The program was a demonstration on bread and rolls. It included "a holiday braided bread" by Nellie Spangler, "Bismarks" by Margaret Valley, "No-knead rolls and rye bread" by Nellie Wetenkamp. Members sampled the breads prepared by demonstration leaders.

Flora Wehrbein led the group in singing with Pearl Cole at the piano.

Delicious refreshments were served.

Merry Maidens Complete Club Activities

Cullom Merry Maidens met at the home of Pat Todd on September 26 for their last meeting.

For their final meeting, record books and achievements were turned in to the leader who will send them to Weeping Water to be judged.

Ribbons received at the State Fair and King Korn Carnival were distributed by the leader. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Todd and Pat.

The reorganizational meeting will be held at the Cullom school when new officers will be held.

"Right To Vote" Emphasized At V.F.W. Auxiliary Meeting

Americans' privilege. "The right to vote," was emphasized in a reading by Mrs. Rose Day as a feature of the regular meeting of the Auxiliary of Leper-Wolever post of the V. F. W. here Thursday night.

The reading, entitled "I am an American," brought out the importance of voting as well as the privilege.

Mrs. Day was also appointed secretary pro-tem in the absence of Mrs. Vera Warga, who has been on vacation. Mrs. Rose Able was named guard pro-tem and Cecelia Onstad was named color bearer pro-tem.

President Mrs. Deloma Kafenberg, who conducted the business meeting, along with Marie Willis, chairman of the G. I. dinner held during the Korn Carnival, extended their thanks to members who assisted with the dinner. The president also thanked members for their remembrances to her during her recent illness.

Auxiliary members held a discussion on changing their meeting night from the second Thursday of each month to the second Tuesday to conform with the department of Nebraska.

Members learned also that a dinner will be held by the post in the near future. Details for the joint V. F. W. and Auxiliary dinner will be announced at a later date.

Reports of the various committee heads and announcement that the wheel chair obtained by the V. F. W. through sale of magazine subscriptions is in constant use and available to all in need of such a chair, were other highlights of the Auxiliary session.

Following the business meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, who also conducted a silent auction. Hostesses were Maxine Bowman, Margaret Fitch, Mae Favors, Florence Persinger, Louise McNulty, Jessie Porter and Stella Quinnett.

Frank Dall of the U. S. Engineers office at Omaha was in the city for a short time visiting friends while en route to his home at Manley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dougherty of Falls City were week end guests at the Clarence Akeson home here.

Club Learns How Housekeeping Is Made Easier

Cullom Extension Club met at the home of Mrs. Victor Stoehr, with Mrs. Walter Weiss assistant hostess.

The president opened the meeting by reading a poem and the song leader led the group in singing. Roll call was taken by each member responding as to the method used in making their housekeeping tasks easier. A new member, Mrs. Marvin Richards, was welcomed into our club, making a total of 16 members in attendance.

Safety rules concerning caution to hunters and safety in the use of corn pickers were called to the attention of members, urging them to caution members of their family participating in such activities to take all precautions toward safety.

Plans for the polo sale was announced and a volunteer committee appointed to have charge of the food stand.

After the business meeting an interesting lesson on "Easier Housekeeping" was presented by Mrs. Peter Halmes and Mrs. Marvin Peterreit. Another interesting lesson being presented was "Ker-Choo and You" given by Mrs. Gilbert Fornoff.

The next meeting to be held November 13 at the home of Mrs. Emil Schmidt.
