Elmwood Rolls To 25-6 Win Over Dunbar

Scoring in every period, Elmwood rolled to a 25-6 win over Dunbar in a feature six-man football game at Elmwood Friday. It was the fourth win against one loss for the Pirates.

Keith Drake ended the scoring drought in the first period when he kicked a Dunbar punt and raped 40 yards to score.

The scoreboard read 12-0 at halftime after Dudley Doebele scampered another 40 yards on a pass-lateral play for the Pirates.

Doebele scored again in the third period for Coach Johnny Johnston's crew as he crossed the double stripe from two yards out.

Dunbar cut the margin to 18-6 on a 15-yard pass play in the fourth period and Keith Drake again assumed command. Drake roared 35 yards on his second punt return to up the count to 24-6. Bornemeier tallied the extra-point on a pass from Drake.

Headley Leads Lions In 24-0 Conference Win

Completely dominating play through Louisville rolled to a convincing 24-0 win over Humboldt Friday night in a Southeast Five conference game. The Lions third win in five games.

End Ron Revillac scored the Lions first tally on a pass in the first period as the Lions moved out in front 6-0.

Don Headley boosted the count to 12-0 midway through the second period as he raced 45 yards to score, and only minutes later teammate Embury intercepted a Humboldt pass and scampered 50 yards to boost the count to 18-0 at halftime.

Headley again has the crowd standing in the third as he raced 70 yards to score.

Coach Darrell Brandenburg used his reserves freely in the third period and they played the entire fourth quarter. Improved blocking marked the Louisville win.

Eagle Troupes Union 55 to 6'

Coach Allen's Eagle sextette returned Tuesday with the victory campaign Friday by trouncing winless Union 55-6. It was the second Cass county conference for the Eagle six man team, which also holds a win over Nehawka.

The win moved Eagle into a tie with Alvo for the conference lead. The two teams have yet to meet.

EGGED ON

STORRS, Conn.—If you want plenty of eggs from your hens, put a red light in the poultry house. Air-raid regulations blacked out the brilliantly lighted poultry houses along the New Jersey coast, according to S. C. Platt, Rutgers University poultry expert and so farmers turned on dim red lights to let the hens see how to eat and drink. The red light had a tendency to keep the hens longer on the nests. Egg production rose and since their experiments have confirmed the red light's effect on hens.

Indians Upset Syracuse 13-7 For League Lead

Weeping Water copped a share of the Southeast Five conference grid laurels Friday night by upsetting highly rated Syracuse 13-6. It was Weeping Water's third conference win without a loss. They have to defeat only Humboldt to clinch the crown.

Rick Gibson scored both Weeping Water tallies, one on a 35-yard pass play and the other on a short buck to cap a 60-yard drive. Syracuse now has a 2-1 record in conference play, the same as Louisville.

Rev. Matzner Dies Of Injuries In Accident

Seven grandchildren also survive.

In addition to Mrs. Matzner he was preceded in death by a son, Armin H.

Members of the church council of St. Paul will be honorary pallbearers at Tuesday services. Members of the church, who desire to send flowers, are asked to contribute the money to a memorial fund from which a permanent memorial will be purchased honoring Rev. Matzner and will be placed in the local church. This was the wish of the family.

Visiting hours will be held from 6 to 9 p. m. Monday at Sattler Funeral Home and the body will lie in state from 10 a. m. until service at 2 p. m. at the church Tuesday.

Sattler Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
