"Christ for Everyone" is an interdenominational campaign being observed by thousands of churches throughout the United States and Canada. It is not a drive for church membership nor for money for any purpose. The sole objective is to win men and women, boys and girls to the Lord Jesus Christ and prepare them for both life and death. The honorary chairman in the United States is the well-known and beloved Charles E. Fuller, director of the "Old Fashioned Revival Hour" network broadcast for over 25 years.

Here in Plattsmouth, in co-operation in this campaign, the First Christian church has secured a group of excellent preachers from various cities and representing several denominations. A complete speaking schedule is published in our large announcement elsewhere in this edition of the Journal. Boys and girls meetings will also be held each day after school during the week. Everyone in Plattsmouth and vicinity is extended a cordial welcome.

Startling Changes In John's Character Caused by Gospels

ONE of the best examples of the gospels' great transforming power is seen in the character change so apparent in John. He was the disciple who seemed to be filled with ambition and who wanted to have the foremost place with his brother James in what he believed was an earthly kingdom about to be established on earth by Jesus.

He also had a vengeful personality. It was John who wanted Jesus to call down fire from heaven as Elijah did and burn up several villagers who treated them discourteously.

Yet this man became one of the strongest proponents of Love as the only acceptable way of life. He even came to regard Love as the supreme being, the very nature of God himself.

To John, Love was the true test of a Christian life. Love and light became John's theme. He asserted that a man who said he loved God, yet hated his neighbor, was a liar. To John, a loveless life was a life existing in darkness. It is this ramification of his conception of Love and light as one, that John has penetrated into the present and explained the basis of many of our problems.

We know that many of the earth's people are not living in the light of love. They are groping in the misty darkness of hate, prejudice and mutual distrust. John called the man hating his brother "a murderer." Murder on a highly organized scale is the thing we see most in our modern, loveless world. Certainly man would do well to heed the words of John, take up the ways of Love—and find the light.

"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, October 26, 1952.
The Golden Text is: "The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." (I Corinthians 15:56, 57). Other Bible citations include, "wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation, with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." (Philippians 2:12, 13).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Mortals need not fancy that belief in the experience of death will awaken them to glorified being. Universal salvation rests on progression and probation, and is unattainable without them. As death findeth mortal man, so shall he be after death, until probation and growth shall effect the needed change." (Page 291).
