Dick Glaze

Injured for the second time this season in conference grid activity is Dick Glaze, 210-pound junior tackle, who suffered a leg injury against Blair Friday night.

Glaze, who will complete his grid play for the season Friday against Bellevue, also suffered a broken nose in a conference clash with Ashland in mid-season.

Lions Blast Nebraska City B 31-6 Thursday

Coach Darrell Brandenburg's Louisville Lions ended their season on a victory note Thursday night as they drubbed Nebraska City B 31-6. It was the fifth win against three losses for the Lions.

Don Headley, ace scabback for the Lions, established the scoring pace as he scored two times, passed to two touchdowns and led his mates in the victory romp.

Headley broke the scoring deadlock with a 55 yard pass to Nessen for the first TD in the first period. Then early in the second quarter he crashed over from the two for a 12 point lead. The Lions led 18-0 at halftime as Headley hit Embury on a 45-yard pass play.

Nebraska City countered early in the third period on a 55-yard pass connection, but the Lions bounced back to score twice. Bruce Hirsch scampered the last two yards to move the count to 24-6 and Headley raced 35 yards for the final tally. Reviellac scored the extra point.

The Louisville second team held the B team on even terms throughout the final quarter as Brandenburg pulled his first stringers out. Coupled with the 13-9 win over Sidney, Iowa a week ago, the Lions ended with a strong attack.

Wisconsinite Brings News of A. L. Sherman

Frank Ramshaw of Lancaster, Wisconsin, en route to his home after visiting his brother at Ashland, stopped here Tuesday noon with word about A. L. Sherman, former Plattsmouth resident and a member of the Sherman family which operated the Plattsmouth Journal in its infancy back before the turn of the century.

Mr. Sherman is publishing the weekly Herald at Lancaster, according to Mr. Ramshaw, who also is a Nebraskan that migrated to Wisconsin.

Mr. Sherman hasn't seen Plattsmouth in many years, but will be remembered as the brother of the late Cy Sherman and of John Sherman, who frequently revisits his old home town of Plattsmouth.

To provide Mr. Sherman with points of interest in Plattsmouth Mr. Ramshaw took a few notes on changes here and a late issue of the Plattsmouth Journal to his friend.

Contrary to earlier season reports of no ducks, several conservation officers wired about an appearance of waterfowl in their respective districts.

H. B. Guver reported from Lexington that "a fair raft of ducks moved into Johnson Lake" and that "river hunting improved some."

"Bluebills showed up in small numbers in the Odessa, Kearney and Newark areas" said Officer Sam Grasmick.

A few northern ducks were reported in the Box Butte, Morrill and Cheyenne counties district by Warden Joe Ulrich while a few new birds were reported trekking in around McConaughy by Loren Bunnay.

A few flights of mallards and Canadians on the Missouri River in northeast Nebraska were reported by Ralph Von Danc. Officer A. G. McCarroll wired from Cody that a few ducks were on the large lakes in his sand hills district.

Pheasant hunting continued in favor of the pheasant. They not only could hear hunters coming for miles, but also had few hunters to contend with. Hunting pressure sagged considerably and probably will not rally again until moisture falls, either in the form of rainfall or snow.

Reports are not as yet available on the quail season which started Saturday.

Australia's original coal reserves are reported as 59 billion tons. Many states in the U. S. have far larger coal reserves.

BEAUTY, BLUNDERBUSS, AND BIRD—Thanksgiving dinner calls for turkey. Back in the days of the Pilgrims, it was the custom to go out and get your own. This pretty Pilgrim in a slightly modernized costume, was ready to hunt down the tricky turkey but he was so overcome with her charm he couldn't resist. Hopping up on the rock beside her and shaking some of the snow off his feet, old Tom Turkey startled the lady with an unbird-like wolf-whistle.

The Only True Sign Of Good Christian Is Sincere Love

A GOOD question quite often asked many churchgoers is: What does it mean to be a Christian?

The answer can be found among the many works of the New Testament. These writers whose books make up our accounting of the Christian way of life, all agree on the fact that being a good Christian comes from within the person himself.

Paul defines this inner working as Love. In his epistle to Love found in Corinthians I, Paul goes so far as to say that having knowledge of the Christian mysteries, even having faith and the power to work miracles, is not enough. The person must have Love or all other possessions are useless.

John, James and Peter agree with Paul. James insists that Love, if it is a real and vital thing, will manifest itself in many ways. Peter and John agree that anyone who has a love of humanity, shares a part of the Supreme Being.

In contrast to these plain facts and rules for being a true Christian, we see the millions of so-called "professing Christians" who fall far short of this ideal.

Fortunately, in every sect, there are both those who profess and those who are sincere. And among the sincere are those described by Paul who commended them because they sincerely and earnestly followed the path as best they knew how.

These are the true Christians. And if we deplore the fact that there are not more of them, let us pause and be thankful that despite the world's inequities, there are so many whose character and activities reveal them as true Christians.

MARCH OF DIMES

The next March of Dimes campaign must collect from $50,000.00 to $55,000,000 to meet the calls expected for patient care in 1952, according to Warren D. Coss, director of fund raising for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The 1952 March of Dimes raised over $41,000,000 but the record-breaking epidemics of this year have caused a terrific drain on chapter and headquarters finances. As of October 11, cases of polio during 1952 had reached 45,233.
