

Trade at Home Policy Launched By School Board

A "trade in Plattsmouth" ultimatum has been launched by the Plattsmouth Board of Education. It particularly affects the high school athletic department.

The action of the board came to a head Monday night in a warm debate over athletic expenses amounting to several hundred dollars going out of town, that the board believes could be spent here.

Opening step for the "trade at home" program came when the board recently discovered that football equipment was being sent to a Kansas firm for repairs, rebuilding and cleaning.

Following a conference with

Fred Lugsch, local cleaner, who sports an athletic repair business, the board voted to send the equipment to Lugsch. Checking back statements, board members learned that in previous years, Lugsch had handled the repair account.

Records showed that it was sent out of town for the first time in 1951. A comparison of work and prices seemed to favor the local concern.

But board members also reviewed statements to out-of-town sporting goods stores amounting to nearly $800, and recommended that whenever possible, goods be purchased locally through Plattsmouth merchants. A check with local merchants showed that identical equipment can be obtained at comparable prices.

As a result, the board approved a motion requiring a monthly statement of expenses of the athletic department, however it turned down to have all expenses over $25 submitted for approval.

At the Monday night session, which lasted until eleven o'clock, the board also considered a report submitted by Mrs. Alta Reade, special therapy instructor, concerning youngsters who were recently taken to a specialist for hearing diagnosis.

Hot Sweet Bread Warms a Chilly Morn

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

MANY times during cold weather, a snack of warm Sally Lunn sweet bread and hot coffee will be very welcome. Of course, sweet breads make good breakfast treats, too.

The following sweet bread recipe uses nonfat dry milk. Nonfat dry milk is sifted with the flour and other ingredients, and water is used as the liquid.

Nonfat dry milk, which is milk with only the fat and water removed, is also budget saving. It will keep almost indefinitely on a cool, dry shelf if the foil-lined package is closed carefully after each using.

Sally Lunn
 (Makes 16 two-inch squares)

One and one-half cups sifted flour, 3/4 cup nonfat dry milk, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup shortening, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg, well beaten, 1/2 cup water.

Sift together flour, nonfat dry milk powder, baking powder and salt. Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg and mix well. Blend in water. Stir in sifted dry ingredients and mix only enough to dampen the dry ingredients.

Pour into a well-greased 8-inch square pan. Sprinkle nonfat dry milk powder, brown sugar crumbs over the surface. Bake in a hot oven at 400 degrees F. about 30 minutes, or until surface springs back when pressed lightly with finger.

Brown Sugar Crumbs

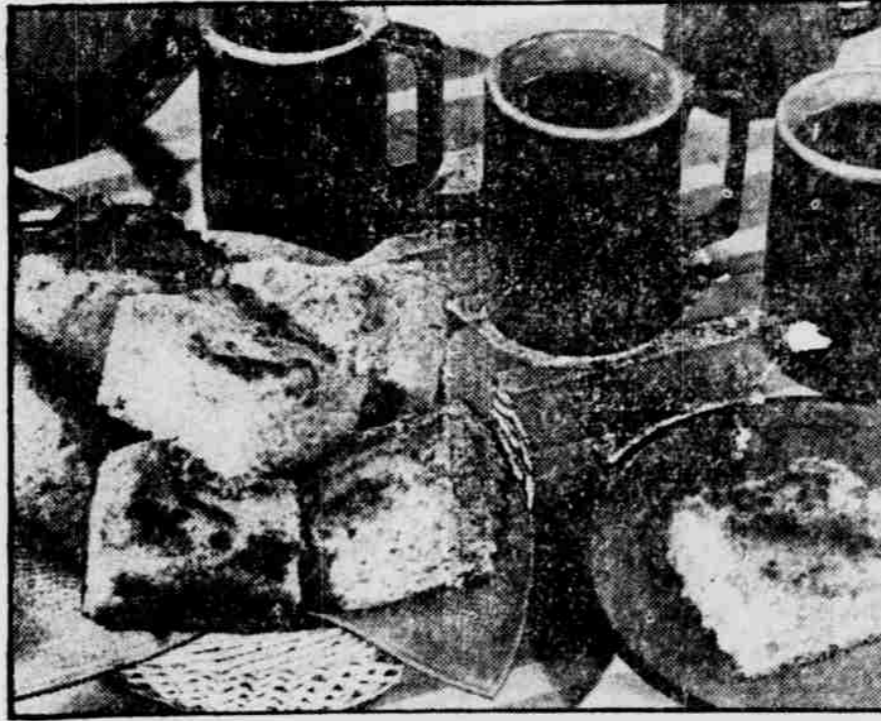

One-half cup brown sugar, firmly packed, 2 tablespoons nonfat dry milk, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 tablespoon butter, melted.

Mix sugar, nonfat dry milk powder and cinnamon together. Add butter and mix to make crumbs, resembling cornmeal. Sprinkle evenly over surface of Sally Lunn.

Orange nut bread goes over big with all the family. This recipe comes from Edith Barber's new and very practical "Short-Cut Cookbook." Edith is one of the outstanding food people in the country.

Orange Nut Bread

Two cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon baking soda, 3/4 cup sugar, 1/2 cup shortening, 2 eggs, 1/2 cup orange juice with pulp, 1/2 cup water, 3/4 cup chopped nuts.

Mix and sift flour, salt, baking powder and soda. Cream sugar with softened shortening. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Stir in the liquid alternately with the flour mixture. Add nuts and pour in greased 9 x 5 x 3 loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 to 60 minutes.

Retail Sales in Cass County Up in October

Nebraska retail sales continued an upward climb in October, the University of Nebraska business research department reported today.

Retail sales were 7.1 per cent greater in the state during October than in September, although September sales were 5.7 per cent above August, the department's monthly survey shows. October sales were also nearly three per cent larger than those for the same month last year.

The upward trend was also reflected in the increase noted in Cass County. The county showed an increase over the previous month and also over a year ago.

Sales in Cass county were up 6.9 per cent over October of 1951 and 2.9 per cent above September of 1952. Of the 12 counties reported in the survey, only four showed declines over a year ago while all showed increases over September.

Sales at Nebraska City were down 3.2 per cent from October 1951, but climbed 7.2 per cent over September, 1952.

He was to be back on the job Thursday after being treated by a doctor and ordered home. The crew was stringing a 13,200 volt line underneath the Consumers Public Power District's 69,000 volt line and using the same poles when the mishap occurred.

Junior Women Plan Christmas Party on Monday

Junior Woman's Club will hold its Christmas party and meeting at the home of Mrs. Esther Donat on Monday, December 8 at eight o'clock.

At the gift exchange, members have been requested to put their names on packages and a prize will be awarded for the most original and useful gift.

Extra Postal Hours Told; Early Mailing Advised

Postmaster Les Niel today announced special open hours at the Plattsmouth postoffice and also a word of warning about mailing Christmas packages.

Mr. Niel announced that the postoffice here will remain open on Saturday afternoon, December 13 and December 20 until five o'clock.

But he also suggests that mailing of long-distance packages be completed before those dates. The recent snow storm here is a good example of the benefit of early mailing. Such storms tend to delay mail carriers on all levels and as such, packages "presumably" sent in time could be several days late in arriving for the Christmas holiday.

Many residents here went without mail service for several days until roads were cleared, and the same thing could happen in other areas where packages are being sent.

By mailing early, residents will be assured of package delivery, and the overall load on the local department will be cut to allow better pre-Christmas service.

Calendar

Monday, December 8 — Plattsmouth Garden Club will hold its Christmas dinner at the home of Mrs. William Keeley at noon Monday, Dec. 8. A 50-cent gift exchange will be held.

Saturday, December 6 — Cullom Extension club covered dish dinner and Christmas party will be held at St. John's hall at six o'clock Saturday night, Dec. 6. Members are to bring coffee jar labels and key strips, plus their own dishes.

The years must be getting longer—1952 will have an extra day.
