VOLUME 72

EIGHT PAGES

PLATTSMOUTH, CASS COUNTY, NEBRASKA, MONDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1952

FIVE CENTS PER COPY

NUMBER 8

Search For Boy 'Kidnaped' Here Still Going On

Omaha detectives are still seeking a San Francisco mother who disappeared Friday after "kidnaping" Allen James Saturday morning by her son, ker. Holoubek from his grandmother's home here.

Sheriff Solomon disclosed this morning that the search | spent the night in the icy cold. has been on continuously since Friday, when the boy disappeared while en route home for lunch from St. John's

Christmas Seal Sale Nears End; Under Year Ago

opened on December 4. And. according to Miss Mildred Hall, chairman of the Cass County Health and Tuberculosis Association, returns are far below anticipation and below a year ago. With only three days remaining. Miss Hall is hoping that renewed effort will be made by countians to send their contributions to the Christmas Seal ably before Christmas.

Some three thousand countians received letters contain- Help Fight TB ing Christmas seals nearly three weeks ago and less than on e-fifth of these have been returned to the local committee. Sponsors however hope for increased returns during purposes. Otherwise funds are making the call. used locally for hospital treat-ment, for X-rays and for other controls and preventatives for tubercular patients.

Christmas Seals the campaign as soon as pos-

Americans will acquire tubercu-losis during the coming year. Fortunately, although there are no early symptoms, tuberculosis can be discovered early by means of a chest X-ray. Such an X-ray survey was conducted in Cass county less than two

Support of the chest X-ray program is easy — just buy and use Christmas Seals.

Cass Bond Sales Total $22,443 During November

County for November totaled H. Smith, County Chairman for school class presented plate gifts Public Power'. $22,443.75, according to Walter the bond program.

Sales for Nebraska during the month amounted to $3,706,295.38. it was announced by Leland R. Hall, State Director, Individuals and H bonds or 86% of the state

"The many volunteers serving the program in Nebraska can well be proud of the improvement in sales for 1952," Hall these volunteers, the state's residents have increased their personal security and, at the same time, assisted the Treasury in management of the public debt. By selling a substantial volume the electric business at Plattsmy, reduce inflationary preschasing power for future prosthe financing of our defense ef-

Miss Kathleen Feldhousen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feldhousen arrived home during the past week to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents. She is a student at Mt. Scholastica college at Atchison,

Days Left

'Til Christmas

meeting every train and bus go-

Sunday, he said today. The Californian, Mrs. Isabel disappeared while authorities Paul's Evangelical and Reform- tricts will spend: were being notified.

The boy had been placed in the custody of his grandmother, ard Holoubek in the Navy at Richard, died in July 1948. San Diego, and his mother are seeking a divorce.

According to reports, the fund as soon as possible, prefer- mother had called her son perto find out what he wanted for 9 p. m. Services will be held on Christmas. Solomon said the lady was apparently in the Plattsmouth area and then picked up the boy the following day

After the alleged "kidnapping" the mother reportedly called the boy's grandmother to inform her that she had taken the boy. In the meantime, Sheriff Solomon, informed of the happening, sought aid from the Omaha police to watch train and bus terminals.

days so that they may complete boy and his mother were last gressional session. seen about 2:30 a. m. Saturday when Charline Holoubek report-Funds from the sale of Christ- ed to detectives by telephone mas Seals are mostly used in that she had spotted the pair Five Masonic the state. Only six per cent go in the railroad station. They to national headquarters for disappeared, however, apparuse in research and for special ently while Miss Holoubek was Degrees Given the state. Only six per cent go in the railroad station. They

Residents Feted

Home at Plattsmouth have received special attention during recent Christmas song activities here during the past week. The folks were entertained by Rev. Beers and the Clifton Hall Presbyterian church choir from Consumers Office Omaha on Wednesday, December 17. The choir, attired in new Christmas cantata in song. mouth high school chorus sang in to members of the home Sunday afternoon, and Sunday evening COURTHOUSE TO CLOSE the Tangier Shrine Chanters of members of the home.

nal costs as little as 35c.

Lady Dies After

house late Friday night, appar- cording to figures compiled from ently caused the death of Mrs. the Nebraska Educational Dir-Ida Schlieske of Plattsmouth. the ditch about eight o'clock State Superintendent F. B. Dec-Fritz, after she had apparently Mrs. Schlieske had probably left the house and slipped into the ing out of Omaha since the and County Attorney Richard $318.652 in tax money for edu-"kidnaping" was reported. Peck were called to the scene cation during the current school Sheriff Solomon has been on shortly after her lifeless body year. At Plattsmouth $108.014 guard at the transportation had been discovered by her son, will be required in school tax terminals each night, except A native of Germany, where funds. she was born at Limbach, Mrs. Schlieske came to the United school are based on the school The Christmas seal sale in Holoubek, along with the boy States in 1900 and in 1901 was levies in each district on the county is scheduled to were seen at the railroad station married at Plattsmouth to Lud- basis of the total assessed valucome to a close on Christmas by Charline Holoubek, aunt of wig A. Schlieske. He died in ation of the district. By com> ed church. Surviving are four sons, Edward of Lincoln, Frite and Otto 989; Greenwood, $19,047; Louis-Mrs. James Holoubek, at Platts- of Plattsmouth, and Alexson of ville, $47,225; Murdock, $38,mouth while his father Leon- Englewood California One son 808; Nehawka, $33,551; Union mouth, while his father, Leon- Englewood, California. One son, Services will be held at the Sattler Funeral Home at Plattsmouth with Rev. G. E. Seybold officiating. Visiting hours will

> > Burial will be at Oak Hill

Congressman Hruska Is Plattsmouth Visitor

Tuesday at two o'clock.

Roman Hruska, congressman elect from the second district of Nebraska, was a visitor in Plattsmouth last week. Mr. Hruska will succeed Congressman Howard Buffett as Cass county_representative to Con-Solomon said today that the gress during the coming con-

Lt. Harry Tincher, son of Mr. The six-year-old youth would and Mrs. Harry Tincher of have participated in St. Johns Plattsmouth, currently on furannual children program Friday lough here, received three de- Falls City to Izilda Packett. Folafternoon and would have had grees during Plattsmouth Lodge lowing her death, he was re-Surveys show that 115,000 an opportunity to greet Santa Number 6, A. F. and A. M. ses- married to Maude Walters Fossions last week.

Wednesday evening the entered apprentice and fellowcraft degrees were conferred by Warren Rhylander and Marion Reed. and the following night, Henry Nolting conferred the Master Mason degree.

Stebbins by Maynard Ramge and Pearl Cornell of Ukiah, Calif. Warren Rhylander.

New Sign Atop

Placed in operation atop the Christmas robes, presented a entrance to Consumers Public Power office here last week was Thursday night, the Platts- a large neon sign, another mark Plattsmouth's extension several Christmas carols at the downtown improvements. The large sign replaces a white on Mrs. Harold Mitchell's Sunday black sign inscribed "Consumers

Offices in the Cass county Omaha serenaded the folks courthouse at Plattsmouth will They also presented bags of close at noon Wednesday, Depurchased $3,196.687.34 series E fruit candy and pop corn to cember 24, and will remain closed throughout Christmas. Offices will be open again for A Classified Ad in The Jour- regular business hours on Friday, December 26.

"Through the efforts of columbers, the state's resi-Job 36 Years To Retire of these riskless securities, we mouth since June, 1917, will restrengthen our national econo- sign on January 1 as district serviceman, it was announced sures, create a backlog of pur- here today. Mr. Elliott has been in the electric service here for perity, promote thrift and aid in almost 36 years. He is district the financing of our defense ef- serviceman for Consumers Public Power District here.

Elmer W. Elliott, employee in * in the service of Nebraska com- ren. Mrs. Warren Taylor of was born and reared on a farm, and John of Plattsmouth. Mr. Elliott was educated in rural | Mr. Elliott received recogni-

At Plattsmouth, Mr. Elliott plant here, which was combined today that no successor for Mr. with the Iowa-Nebraska Light and Power company, but after mostly that he'll no longer be connected with Consumers Public Power District. For, Mr. Elliott explained today that, "I'll play around a little at the radio shop" operated by his son, John. Mr. Elliott will be 66 years young come May 26, i1953. He and Mrs. Elliott reside at 706 But his utility service dates back even farther than that and he is credited with 42 years and he is credited with 42 years

Plattsmouth, Mrs. Harvey Beh-A native of Auburn, where he rens of Colorado Springs, Colo.,

schools and at Auburn public tion from the company this schools. But he left the farm as week in the Consumers Public a young man and entered the Power District news letter pubutility business at Fairbury in lished by the company. The ma-1909 as a gasmaker. He was em- gazine article cited the Plattsployed at the Fairbury gas plant | mouth man for his 36 years of until coming to Plattsmouth in being on the same job, a record difficult for anyone to match. Fred Rea, manager of the diswas associated with the gas trict office for Consumers, said

Elliott has been selected as yet. Citing Elliott for long, fathfive years at the plant he moved ful service to the company, Mr. to the downtown office, where Rea recalled that in the days of he will remain until his retire- the old gas stove, Elmer was on ment becomes effective on Jan- every woman's list. He was the only man that they would let But retirement will mean adjust the stoves, Rea recalled.

Schools To Spend $426,000 Leo Switzer, 70, Exposure to Ice, Snow Friday Night Snow Friday Ni

All-night exposure after fall- will take $426,666 in tax funds ing into a ditch in back of her for the current school year, acectory, published by the State Mrs. Schlieske was found in Department of Public Instruction under the supervision of tax dollar will be raised in Greenwood each $2,000 per year Plattsmouth, while the other ten county communities will raise the other three fourths. ditch on the ice. Her calls for help were apparently too weak Alvo, Avoca, Eagle, Elmwood, * Local officials along with the to be heard by neighbors. Her special Omaha police have been eyesight was known to be bad. Nehawka. Union and Weeping Deputy Sheriff Charles Land Water will combined, spend Nehawka. Union and Weeping

Tax funds sought by each Day, just three weeks after it the boy, on one occasion, but 1943. She was a member of St. munities, the county school dis-

Alvo, $27,963; Avoca, $18,306; Eagle, $52.035; Elmwood, $23,-$14,107; Weeping Water, $43,-

Bulk of the money will naturally go for teachers salaries. The 135 Cass county teachers in the eleven communities will Weeping Water son-to-person Thursday night be held Monday night from 6 to receive $355.636 in salaries durhigh school and elementary departments. The highest average elementary salary, $2,738, is paid at Ne-hawka, while the top high school salary is paid at Alvo, where high schol teachers receive $3450 a year. Nehawka places second in the high school bracket at $3,333. Low elementary salary is paid at Union and

$2110 Elmwood Greenwood Louisville Nehawka Plattsmouth Weeping Water 2052 Teachers employed

School Elmwood Greenwood Louisville Nehawka Plattsmouth

William Cornell Dies Thursday

Funeral services were held at Porter Funeral Home at Nebraska City today for William S. Cornell, retired farmer who died at Nehawka Thursday morning. holiday table. Stores will remain open un-Mr. Cornell, 83, died about ten o'clock Thursday morning. He had resided in Cass county most of the past 30 years. Mr. Cornell was a retired farmer. A native of Ohio, where he was born on January 12, 1869. the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cornell, he had resided in the Cass county vicinity since 1924. He was married in 1887 a ter at Hiawatha, Kansas in 1909. He was the father of eight children, six by his first wife. Surviving are five sons, Carl of Rolla, Mo., Elmer of St. Joseph. Mo. Lee of Norwalk, Calif., Orville of Port Arthur, Texas, and Richard of Auburn; and two Degrees were also conferred daughters, Mrs. Goldie Ehlers of upon Harold Rains and Charles Kimball South Dakota, and Miss hyeld Friday

Also surviving are two grandchildren, Mrs. Albert Warden of grandchildren; two brothers, Bert of Beatrice and Charles of ter at the college. Sioux City: and two sisters, Mrs. Mrs. Nellie Johnson of Florida. Also preceding him in death was one son. Virgil.

Rev. Donald McQuinn officiated at the final rites and burial was a tCamp Creek cemetery southeast of Nebraska City.

Morrison Leaves For Colorado A-1c Bill Morrison, who re-who has been a guest of his mother, Mrs. Lee Eastridge and Bance Saturday night. Mr. Eastridge, departed Thurs- Arnold pleaded guilty to day for Colorado Springs where charges of intoxication, resisthe will visit his wife before re- ing arrest, disturbing the peace, turning to duty. Willard Gunsolly arrived here Sunday to spend the Christmas and New Years holidays at the home of his parents. He is stationed at San Diego. Burton Gleason, student at Iowa State College at Ames, is Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gleason.

Annual Christmas Greeting Addition Appears Wednesday

The Journal's annual Christmas edition will be printed Wednesday afternoon of this week to be distributed to most subscribers on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day. This edition will carry greetings and good cheer from business people of Plattsmouth and Cass County to their thousands of customers and friends in this area.

Every effort is being made to contact all merchants wishing to use this method of reaching their customers. However, it is possible to overlook contacting some in the rush to meet deadlines. Just phone 241 if you have not been reached.

Shoppers Have Last Air Force Man Chance To Buy Christmas Gifts

Plattsmouth retailers will remain open evenings tonight and again Tuesday night to enable shoppers to pick up those last minute Christmas gifts and to purchase all necessary ingredients for the til 9 p.m. both nights but will close at five o'elock Wednesday, to enable merchants and store employees to participate in Christmas activities. Gropery stores, however, will be open until 6 p.m. Wednesday. Most retail stores in the city will be closed all day Thursday, Christmas day.

John Conis, son of George Conis of Plattsmouth, was one of 251 students on whom degrees hxeld Friday.

Dr. Charles E. Friley, president of the college, addressed Nehawka, who was reared by the group and presented the Mr. and Mrs. Cornell; 26 great diplomas in ceremonies which marked the end of the fall quar-

Conis received a bachelor of Rose Frakes of Dawson, and science degree in civil engineering. A graduate of Plattsmouth high school, he plans to take a position with the Wisconsin State Highway Commission at Lancaster, Wisconsin.

Each of Four Counts In County Court Monday Russell Arnold was fined a total of $40 and costs in county cently arrived from Korea, and court Monday morning on four

Man Is Fined $10 on and assault. Judge Raymond J. Case fined him $10 on each count plus court costs Several Attend Funeral At Lincoln Several from Alvo attended the funeral at Lincoln of Mr.

Floyd Dicgerson Friday. The farm. Dickersons were former resiin Plattsmouth to spend the hol- dents of Alvo. Mr. Dickerson iday vacation with his parents, owned the store where Mr. Elmer Rosenou is now located. Home for the holidays from Doane college at Crete is Miss Barbara Alkire daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Alkire.

Christmas guests at the home of Mrs. C. J. Baumgart will be Mr. and Mrs. Herb Baumgart and children, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Sedlak and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heil The postponed Christmas party of Bud of Promise Rebekah Lodge will be held tonight, Monday. December 22, at the IOOF hall at eight o'clock. Mrs. Fred Wynn and Mrs. Louis Keil departed on Thursday for Los Angeles where they will visit at the home of relatives and old friends.

This Year Lifelong Nehawka cording to average salaries in Farmer, Is Dead hawka farmer and a lifelong resident of the community, died at his home about nine o'clock Thursday night, December 18, 1952, following a heart attack. He was 70 years old.

Born on a homestead southwest of Nehawka on June 8. 1882, Mr. Switzer was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Switzer, Salaries paid in the different March 23, 1910 to Bertha Schomoker at Omaha.

Mr. Switzer had farmed in the Nehawka community throughout most of his lifetime. which was spent in the Nehawka area. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Surviving are one son, Wildon of Nehawka; two brothers, Delbert of Nehawka and Chalmer of Minden: Two grandchildren; and a daughter-in-law.

His wife died in April of 1951.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Methodist church at Nehawka with Rev. Fred Gardner officiating. Casket bearers were George Sheldon, Frank Lemon, Arthur Wolph, Chester Stone, Melvin Sturm and Alpha Bell. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery with Hobson Funeral home of Weeping Water in charge of arrangements. The family requested no flowers at the funeral but asked Gerold Schrader, Frank Dill. that contributions be made to A. W. Leonard and Myron Reese. Children's Memorial hospital or

Will Talk to Wife, Child Here Air Force Staff Sgt. Donald

Seeba, stationed in Tokyo, will ed at Long Beach, Calif., where Methodist church, First Presbyspeak to his wife and son, Terry she was a member of the Chris- terian church. St. Paul's Evanat Plattsmouth by long distance telephone in a special Christmas | Kansas in recent years and died | Day nationwide hook-up to be following an illness of several eve observances are on tap at heard over station KBON.

mother-in-law, Mrs. John Alex- been a frequent guest at the Luke's Episcopal church. The coast-to-coast Mutual Nickles, at Murray. network production will be broadcast at two o'clock central Mrs. Clifford Wilson of Overland standard time over KBON. It is the third year the program has George Nickles of Murray; a George Nickles of Murray; a been carried by the network. About 16 picked servicemen in units and hospitals in all service branches will call their families from Tokyo on the pro-

Ice Causes Car

To Roll In Ditch Stuart P. Benson of Peru escaped injury Saturday evening when his car went out of con-trol on highway 73-75 and rolled over in a ditch. Benson was going north on the highway when the car went out of control on the icy pavement, hit the ditch, and rolled

Timely Circulars Available From Extension Service

timely publications of the University of Nebraska Agricultural Extension Service. Single copies can be obtained without charges growing out of a distur- | charge from county agricultural agents. No. 1550 (Revised). Equipment

Described below are recent or Methods and Materials for Spraying Livestock by Robert W. Helm. This newly revised circu- and Telegraph district manager. lar suggests types of spray pens, reported no damage or interchutes and corrals, and various ruptions due to the storm methods of applying spray to cattle, sheep and hogs. No. 1562. Rat Control on Nebraska Farms, by Robert W.

Helm. Describes an economical method of killing rats on the No. 1565. Cockroaches or Waterbugs, by Robert W. Helm. Describes the appearance and habits of three kinds of cockroach-es (American, Oriental and German) and gives control mea-No. 1703 (Revised). Tree Identification Manual, by Earl G. Maxwell. Describes and illustrates the leaf, winter twig and fruit of 38 species found in Nebraska.

No. 9919. Candies Old and New by Mabel Doremus. Discusses principles of candy making, in-cludes a temperature and test Bruce Woodman, 23, of Omaha. chart for sirup and candies, and and Norma Jean Ahl, 29, of gives 25 recipes for Christmas Louisville. confections. No. 9993. Let's Talk Turkey, by Josephine E. Brooks. How to C. Smith, 21, of Redmond, Calif., prepare the turkey for your and Evanda F. Miyeno. holiday table. Richard Rea of San Antonio.

R. Mayfield of Louisville parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Rea. ton be appointed administrator. was in Plattsmouth on business and with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rea.

Christmas Eve Programs Mark Weeks Activities

terest Sunday night in attending special Christmas season activities in local churches. Cantatas, family night activities, Sunday school and youth programs, and special Yule services were among activities in the local churches. early part of the week through Christmas day. Monday night, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day functions are on

Final Rites Held Saturday for Mrs. Shrader, 70

Funeral services were held church. Saturday afternoon at Caldwell-Linder Funeral Chapel for Mrs. Bertha Long Shrader, Murray native who died at Overland Park ,Kansas, last Tuesday.

Rev. Val Johnson of Murray officiated at the final rites. Miss Lois Sporer, Mrs. Eugene Gruber, Louis Sack and Louis Rogers sang, accompanied by Miss Ruth Sporer. Casketbearers were Greeley Beil, Roy Chriswisser, Interment was in Oak Hill cemdaughter of the late Henry C. and Ella Long. She was reared in the Murray community and in 1898 was married to Robert M. Schrader at Murray, Mr. Schrader died in 1928.

In addition to residing at tian church. She had been in years. Sne was 70 years old.

en. All reside at 1205 Avenue D. home of her sister, Mrs. George Surviving are a son, Henry C. Shrader of Omaha; a daughter, granddaughter, Mrs. Lester Boyer of Kansas; and a great grand-

Burial was in Oak Hill cemetery at Plattsmouth with Caldwell-Linder Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Roads Good--for Ice Skating--But

Stewart Halpin said this morn- at the Masonic Hall in Platts-"for - ice skates and mouth. sleds". But they are dangerous

Several inches of snow, which Methodist churca will be prepolicemen report started falling sented Tuesday night at 7:30 about 2 a.m., Monday, on top of Featured on the program will be a slick coating of ice make driving especially dangerous. Walks Treats will also be distributed throughout much of the city are equally as slippery.

Extreme caution is advised in holiday driving, since there is little hope that roads will be 100 percent improved by the time Christmas holiday drivers

Gas Explosion

Wrecks Building Meanwhile, no damage from the ice and snow have been reported by utilities here. Both F. I. Rea, manager of Consumers

Public Power District office, and

E. A. Ernst, Lincoln Telephone

Murray Man Pleads Guilty To Non-Support Charge Perry Maggard of Murray

pleaded guilty in county court Friday morning to a charge of failure to support his wife and children. Judge Raymond J. Case set being held in county jail to await hearing in district court.

Court House License for marriage was issued to Arlan G. MaQuire, 18, of Omaha and Betty R. Koehler, 16, also of Omaha. Marriage license has been is-

License for marriage was issued in county court to Wesley Petition for administration of the estate of Carl Compton has been filed in county court by Texas, arrived Sunday to spend Harold C. Elliott. The petition the Christmas holidays with his asks that Bartley John Comp-

Subscribe to The Journal.

Other activities however are planned throughout the the Christmas calendar in local churches.

* Sunday night activities include cantatas at both the First Methodist and First Christian churches, while at the First Lutheran church, the Sunday school department presented its annual Christmas program. An afternoon vesper service conducted by the choir featured activities at the Presbyterian

At Holy Rosary church, adults and youngsters joined together for a turkey dinner and a social evening. Group singing. special Christmas movies and treats for the youngsters featured post-dinner activities.

St. Luke's Episcopal church school presented its pageant Sunday night with special music being furnished by the children's choir, while the new organ was in use for the special Christmas program at United Presbyterian church at Murray The Murray church will open this week's Christmas activities Born at Murray on October tonight when its annual children's program is held. The program will be given tonight at 7:30 at the church.

Other Christmas activities will be held Christmas Eve and Christmas Day in other local churches. The schedule includes: Murray, Mrs. Shrader had lived are planned Christmas Eve at Annual Christmas programs at Omaha and for 12 years liv- First Christian church. First gelical and Immanuel Lutheran church; while special Christmas years. She was 70 years old. Holy Rosary and St. John's However, Mrs. Shrader had Catholic churches and at St.

Midnight mass will be held Christmas eve at Holy Rosary church with Christmas Day masses at 8 and 9 a. m.

Caroling will precede midnight mass at St. John's with masses Christmas Day at 8 and 10 a. m. The confession schedule at St. John's is 4 to 5 and 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. Monday and Tuesday and 2 to 5:30 p. m. Wednesday. No confessions on Christmas eve.

The festive midnight Eucharist will be celebrated at 11:30 Christmas eve at St. Luke's Episcopal church. No Christmas day services are planned. Christmas day services will be held however at Christ Lutheran church on the Plattsmouth-

Louisville road and at Imman-

Driving Perilous

Roads are ideal", Patrolman uel Lutheran church southwest of Louisville at 10:30 a. m.

A special Christmas Day observance will be held at 11 a. m. A program by the children and young people of Wesleyan singing, poems and a pantomine at Murdock when a gas explosion occurred in a downtown building in which Jerry Meisinger had a workshop. Damage from the explosion as well as from the fire that followed was reported Sunday. Murdock Volunteer Firemen extinguished the flame but heavy loss was already recorded. Meisinger had been at the workshop about an hour before the explosion occurred. Earlier last week a large barn in the city was heavily damaged by flames. A business visitor in Plattsbond at $1,000, and Maggard is | mouth Thursday was Emil H. Holke of Elmwood.

Journal Requests Early Submittance Of News, Ad Copy

The Plattsmouth Journal again requests the cooperation of advertisers and news contributors during the coming week so that the Journal may be published one day

With Christmas falling on Thursday, regular publication date of the Journal, the newspaper will be printed Wednesday afternoon, December 24. As such, the Journal requests that advertisers, news correspondents and news reporters submit their conv te the Journal office on Tuesday. December 23 for the Thursday edition.