Platters Among Top "B" Teams In Nebraska

Coach Merle Stewart's Plattsmouth Blue Devils this week as school resumes and basketball play reopens. The Devils travel to Weeping Water Wednesday night and will be at home at Pawnee City on Friday night.

Following vacation drills, that included warm-up practices against a select team of college students, Offutt Air Force Base and South High, the Plattsmouth casers settled down to steady drills today for the game with Weeping Water come Wednesday night.

On the basis of team scoring, the Devils are below the two top teams in points per game, but have held opponents to far less points. Lincoln Teachers is hitting at better than 60-points a game, and Seward at 56 points compared to Plattsmouth's 52. However, opponents have scored 36 points per game against the Blue Devils while Lincoln Teachers has yielded 44 and Seward 43.

Two Games On Tap For Blue Devils During Week

Two games are on tap for Coach Merle Stewart's Plattsmouth Blue Devils this week as school resumes and basketball play reopens. The Devils travel to Weeping Water Wednesday night and will be at home at Pawnee City on Friday night.

Following vacation drills, that included warm-up practices against a select team of college students, Offutt Air Force Base and South High, the Plattsmouth casers settled down to steady drills today for the game with Weeping Water come Wednesday night.

As Coach Stewart noted "anything can happen when Plattsmouth plays Weeping Water."

For one thing, the Blue Devils have a four game winning streak on the line, while Weeping Water has one of the top Class C teams in eastern Nebraska.

Coach Stewart will probably stick with the starting quintet that has produced four wins in as many tries. That'll mean Dick Beverage and John Ahrens will draw forward assignments with Jim Jacques holding down the center post. Tom Conis and Jon Schuetz will man the back court assignments.

Probably seeing action with the varsity five also will be DeWayne Noel, Jerry Wood, Stuart Nielsen, John Blotzer and Byron Finnefrock.

Reserves will open the Wednesday night fray at Weeping Water against the Indian second stringers. The varsity game is set for eight o'clock.

The Blue Devils will return home Friday night to face Pawnee City, the first home game for Plattsmouth since the opener more than a month ago, when they stopped Glenwood. Plattsmouth's other three games were away from home.

The Devils are currently leading the Ak-Sar-Ben conference race, while Weeping Water is undefeated in Cass County conference play.

On Wednesday night Bradley Grocery will meet Conoco and Myers Grocery will tackle Timm's Bar.

Play will wind up Thursday night with the American Legion battling Western Auto while Donats takes on the Plattsmouth Paint Store.
