Rinne Calls Attention to Conservation Film

Aller Rinne of the Soil Conservation Service at Weeping Water calls attention to a film entitled "The People Together" which will be telecast next Thursday, February 5, at 11 a. m.

Rinne explains that the film tells the story of soil conservation activities and what can be done to conserve the soil. "Farm people should be told about the film and we thought the Plattsmouth Journal might be a good media to use in this respect," Rinne points out.

Mrs. Charles Payton Is Hostess To Extension Club

Plattsmouth Extension club met on Tuesday last week at the home of Mrs. Charles Payton.

Mrs. Earl Payton and Mrs. Clarence Akeson presented the demonstration on French fried foods. Onion rings, apple rings, bananas and chocolate donuts were prepared and later served at the luncheon.

Mrs. Gardner Hamilton presided at the meeting. The club's next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Clarence Akeson on February 16.

A special feature of the day included watching the inaugural parade.

Wolf Hunt Planned At Elmwood for March of Dimes

ELMWOOD (Special)—A wolf hunt has been scheduled for Saturday, January 31, at Elmwood for the March of Dimes. The hunt will start at 9:45 and will form on the main street at Elmwood. Sponsors advise that rifles will not be allowed.

Dinner will be served by the Methodist WSCS at noon. Proceeds go to the March of Dimes.

MAIDS IN ENGLAND—Looking like typical American majorettes, these pretty English girls give a Yankee atmosphere to the American Air Force European championship football game at London's Wembley Stadium. They went through their paces before the game and at half time with expert baton twirling, struts and cheers.
