Miss Betty Uhlik Becomes Bride of Carl Morehead

White gladioli and carnations decorated the altar for the wedding of Miss Betty Uhlik to Mr. Carl Morehead at Holy Rosary Catholic church at Plattsmouth at 10 o'clock in the morning on Saturday, February 7, 1953.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Uhlik of Plattsmouth, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Morehead of Murray.

Father Joseph Tupy, pastor of Holy Rosary church, officiated at the wedding rites at which Miss Phyllis Bourke sang "Ave Maria," "On This Day" and "O Lord I Am Not Worthy," accompanied by Mrs. Vincent Piny.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected for her bridal attire, a gown of white chantilly lace over net and skinner satin. The gown was fashioned with a modified Queen Anne collar and chapel length train. Her veil of illusion net was fingertip length. The bride carried a white orchid on a white prayer book with streamers of Stephanotis.

Miss Anastasia Ernst of Omaha was maid of honor and wore an aqua lace and net gown with matching tiara. She carried a hand bouquet of red roses. Miss Shirley Morehead, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and was gowned identically like the maid of honor.

Carl Hula of Plattsmouth was best man. Ushers were Kenny Morehead brother of the groom, Al Linder of Plattsmouth and Bob Alm of Omaha.

A reception was held in Holy Rosary hall following the ceremony with dinner at Hotel Coffee shop.

Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Morehead will be at home in the Soennhisen apartments.

Marriage Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fulton announce the marriage of their daughter Miss Barbara Ellen Eledge of Plattsmouth to Frankie Jura, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jura of Omaha.

The couple was married January 26 at Harrison, Arkansas, and are now residing in Omaha where Mr. Jura is employed.

Visiting in the city Wednesday was Edward Safarik of Pannion. While here he renewed his Journal subscription.

Junior Women Entertain Husbands At Valentine Party

Plattsmouth Junior Woman's Club entertained at a Valentine party for their husbands and sweethearts Monday night at the V. F. W. club.

Dancing and games were features of the evening's activities. Herb Minor was prize winner in the games contest, while Carl Christwiser and Mrs. Orville Nielsen were crowned king and queen of the party.

Boxed lunches were exchanged for a luncheon at which Mrs. Marge Julian, Mrs. Betty Bashus, Mrs. Ruth Ann Davenport and Mrs. Vera Wurga were hostesses.

Decorations carried out the valentine motif.

Whites Are Hosts At Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. White entertained at a family dinner Sunday.

Guests included Mrs. G. C. Van Stratton of California, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Stratton and two sons of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry White and children of Lincoln; and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rhoden, Van and Billy White.

Mrs. Atkinson Honored Sunday at Surprise Dinner

Friends and relatives, bringing a basket dinner, surprised Mrs. Harlan Atkinson on her birthday anniversary Sunday.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Roberts and Roger, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McMaken, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Meisinger, La Verne and Valara, Miss Patty McIntyre, and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Atkinson, Judy and Eddie.

The afternoon was spent in playing cards and visiting.

Nehawka Women Urged To Read and Study More

Mrs. E. L. Meek of Omaha, state chairman of the NFWC of Epsilon Sigma Omicron, was guest speaker at the February meeting of the Nehawka Woman's club at the home of Mrs. William Ost.

Mrs. Meek told the club women that any member of a club affiliated with the general federation may enroll in the ESO reading courses in Nebraska by writing to Mrs. P. C. Swift, extension division, University of Nebraska. Twenty-four courses are available. A fee of $2 is charged for enrollment in each course.

She explained that the plan has a three-fold purpose — to stimulate systematic home reading and study; to encourage a wider and wiser use of public libraries; and to encourage formation of reading groups for study.

In her talk, Mrs. Meek urged members to increase their knowledge and improve their thinking so that they may be "active, alert club women and keep on learning as long as you live."

Mrs. John Chandler was leader of the afternoon program and introduced the speaker. Mrs. Martin Ross, president, conducted the meeting at which Mrs. Chandler led the flag salute and Mrs. Harvey Barkhurst had charge of the devotionals, reading the scripture and ending with a prayer.

Spanglers Observe 54th Anniversary At Family Dinner

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spangler's 54th wedding anniversary, a family dinner was held at the couple's country home last Sunday.

Richard Sack, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Spangler, had just returned from overseas to be with them, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sack and two children came from Superior to meet his brother and to be at his grandparents anniversary.

A four generation picture was taken at the gathering which was limited to the immediate family because of the poor health of Mr. Spangler. Mr. and Mrs. Spangler celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1949 and are still residing at their farm home. The honorees received a lovely fountain pen in remembrance of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Spangler have one son, Homer Spangler of Fremont, and two daughters, Mrs. Renee Sack of Murray, and Mrs. George Mumm of Plattsmouth. Other descendants include five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Convention Plans Told At V. F. W. Auxiliary Meeting

Mrs. Frances Norton of Falls City, 12th district president of the V. F. W. Auxiliary, was an official guest of the local Auxiliary unit Tuesday night. Mrs. Norton spoke briefly on various projects of the Auxiliary and of the mid-winter conference held recently at Kearney.

Mrs. Norton announced that Mrs. Nathan Grossham, V. F. W. department hospital chairman, of Lincoln and well known here, was appointed national hospital representative for the five state area.

Announcement was made that the 12th district convention will be held March 1 at Tecumseh. Plattsmouth Auxiliary will be in charge of draping the charter for the meeting which starts at 10 a. m.

Mrs. Gertrude Atkinson, department chief of staff, will attend the district convention.

Mrs. Clovis Day, Americanism chairman, read three articles on flag etiquette, and ten rules for killing an organization plus a reading, "With Malice Toward None."

Discussions held on youth activities were climaxed with appointment of a special committee to check the matter further.

A family dinner for the post and Auxiliary members and their families will be held on Friday, February 20 at 6:30. The dinner will be followed by showing of motion pictures and slides.

Following adjournment, the Auxiliary members joined post members for a social hour. Entertainment was conducted by the post and refreshments served by the Auxiliary. Hostesses were Mesdames Don Wurga, Blanche Sutton, Edgar Newton, Mae Favors, Clovis Day, Harry Porter, Louis Menges, Lloyd McKenna, C. J. Baumgart, Nyle Stewart and Frances Kraeger.

Committee Appointments, Program Are Club Features

A variety program and appointment of special committees were features of the Myriad Community Club meeting held at the Community Hall Friday night. The meeting had been postponed from January.

The meeting was called to order by President Robert Cole. Reading of the minutes was followed by group singing led by Mrs. C. C. Barnard with Mrs. Roy Cole, accompanist. Treasurer Glen Wiles reported a balance of $67 in the treasury and Roy Smith, chairman of the auditing committee, complimented Neil Lancaster 1952 treasurer, for his excellent record of the club's finances.

President Cole announced the following committee appointments for the coming year: Program — Richard Cole, Mabel Meisinger, Edward Howard and Alice Grosshans.

Betterment — Glen Wiles and Arthur Wetenkamp.
Fellowship — Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Shafer.
Reporter — Gertrude Barnard.
Refreshments — Lillian Sack, Nettie Mumm, Stella Wilson, Agnes Wetenkamp and Frances Carneal.

House — Glenn Wetenkamp, Wayne Lewis, Margaret Beckman. Mrs. Beckman will be in charge of renting the hall and chairs.

Mr. Cole also appointed Royal Smith, Herman Meisinger and Olga Wiles to a special committee for recruiting both old and new members of the club. In other features of the meeting, club members voted to join the E. U. B. Ladies Aid in providing a refrigerator for the kitchen.

Following the business session club members were entertained by some of the talented young folks of the community and the neighboring areas.

The program included songs by six little boys and girls from district 3; recitation by Patty Toman; piano accompaniment by Carolyn Vinduska; pantomime by David Reid of Murray; tap solo by Donald Beckman; tap dancing by Jeanine Newton of Plattsmouth; vocal duets by Wendell Friest and Nancy Perry of Plattsmouth. Mrs. Roy O. Cole was accompanist for the vocal numbers and dancing.

Richard Cole, chairman of the program committee, assured the audience that equally interesting programs are planned for the March and May meetings.
