

Nominees Wage Campaigns For County Offices

Campaigns are nearing an end at Plattsmouth high school as a showdown vote nears for determining candidates to Boys and Girls' County Government. The campaign followed caucuses held last Thursday at the high school.

Nationalist and Federalist parties named their nominees for the 11 elective county offices which successful candidates will hold here on April 8.

Nominated by the two parties were:

Schedules to Be Filed at Cedar Creek, South Bend

Only 21 days remain for candidates to file assessment schedules for 1953. Schedules must be completed by April 20, last day of the month and a half long filing period.

Property owners at South Bend and Cedar Creek will file schedules this week starting on Thursday, April 2. Residents at Cedar Creek may file schedules at the Blair Construction Company building on April 2 and 3; while South Bend property owners may file schedules at the Community hall from April 2 through April 4.

Filing of schedules is still going on at Weeping Water and will close on April 10. Schedules may be filed at the courthouse in Plattsmouth until April 20.

Final Rites Are Held Friday for Mrs. Comstock

Funeral services for Mrs. Mattie B. Comstock were held at the First Presbyterian church at Plattsmouth with Rev. Keith Delapp, pastor of the church, officiating.

Mrs. High Stander, Jr., was solicitor and Mrs. Richard Schade was organist. Casket bearers were Henry Starkjoh, John Schutz, Charles Meade, C. A. Johnson, Clifton Meisinger and John Rohan. Burial was in Oak Hill cemetery at Plattsmouth.

Flower bearers were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schmidtman. Ushers were Arthur Waga, Gerald Keil and Virgil Perry.

Mrs. Comstock, 71, died at Immanuel hospital at Omaha on Wednesday, March 25, following a long illness. Mrs. Comstock had been in ill health for two years and had spent the past seven months in the hospital.

A native of Mooresville, Missouri, where she was born on June 18, 1881, she was the daughter of Edna V. and John H. Sibert. She was married to James C. Comstock at Breckenridge, Missouri, on October 30, 1907.

Mrs. Comstock was a member of the Presbyterian church and was also affiliated with the Presbyterian Women's Association.

Surviving are two sons, James F. of Omaha and Cecil W. of Leigh; one daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lois Comstock; and two grandchildren, James Charles and Mary Lois Comstock of Murray.

Sattler Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

10-Month-Old Boy Dies Friday; Rites Saturday

Michal David Liedtke, 10-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Liedtke of Plattsmouth, died at Children's Memorial hospital at Omaha Friday morning by a respiratory condition.

Attempts by Dr. R. F. Brendel and Sheriff Tom Solomon with a respirator unit, revived the boy late Wednesday night, however he died after being taken to the hospital.

His parents came to the United States from Europe 18 months ago.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at a.m. at Holy Rosary church with Father Joseph Tupy officiating. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery at Plattsmouth.

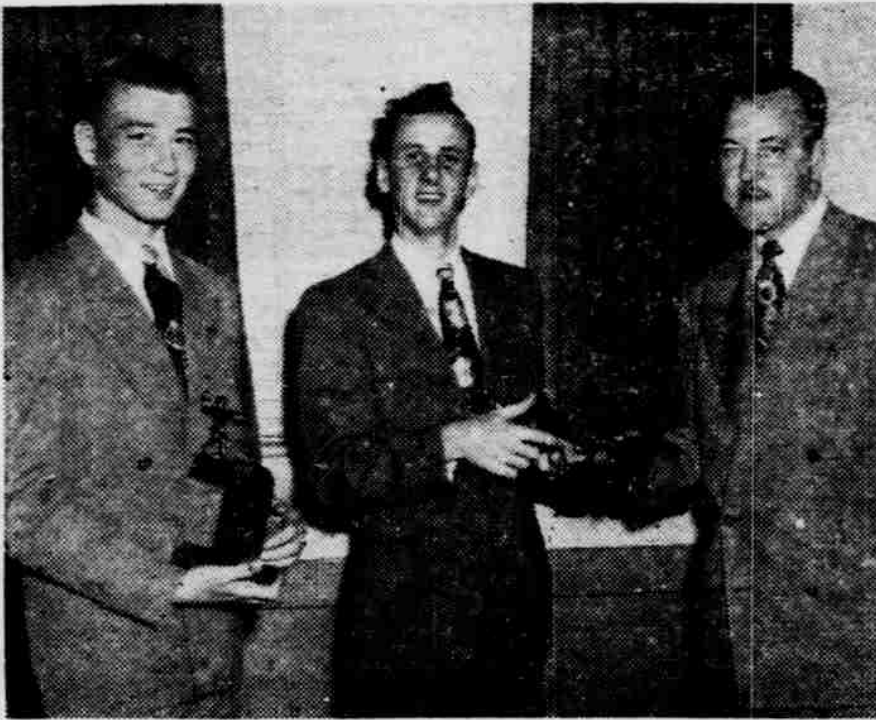

Surviving besides his parents are a brother, Wolfgang Liedtke, at home.

Caldwell-Linder Funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Robert A. Cappell, who has been employed in Lincoln, will leave Tuesday for Berkeley, California, where he has accepted a position.

Shopping and visiting here Saturday was Mrs. Eva L. Becker and daughter of Union.

Winners Display Trophies

Outstanding athletes, Willard Christenson and John Ahrens exhibit trophies which they were awarded last Tuesday night at the annual athletic banquet sponsored by the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce, while Coach Merle Stewart admires their awards. Christenson earned the "outstanding football" trophy, while Ahrens gained recognition as the "outstanding basketball" player. Awards were presented by Vic Schreiner, president of the Plattsmouth Chamber.—Chriswiser Photo.

Evelyn Henry Is Selected Girls' State Delegate

Miss Evelyn Henry, Plattsmouth high school junior, has been named representative from Plattsmouth to Girls' State at Lincoln in early June. Miss Henry's appointment was announced by a special committee of the American Legion Auxiliary, who in cooperation with the high school faculty, picked the delegate.

The 16-year-old delegate is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Henry of Plattsmouth. Selected as alternate was Miss Barbara Sullivan, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Sullivan.

Selected on the basis of citizenship, scholarship and leadership, the Girls' State delegates are picked from the junior class of the sponsoring Auxiliary unit. Members of the committee making the selection were Mrs. Frank Rebal, Mrs. Cyril Kalina and Miss Ida Patten.

At Plattsmouth high school Miss Henry has been active in Future Homemakers of America, which has been a leading 4-H club member from Plattsmouth, having projects in both livestock and sewing clubs. She is a member of her church choir, youth fellowship and Job's Daughters.

Registration for the Plattsmouth delegate to Girls' State has been completed, local Auxiliary officials learned last week.

Naeve Duplex Is Sold to Wm. Halmes

Sale of the Louis Naeve duplex on North 6th street to William F. Halmes was announced today by Stephen M. Davis, local real estate agent, who handled the transaction.

The duplex is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Joe York and Mr. and Mrs. James Craigmile, Mr. Davis points out.

Returning to their home at Sidney, Iowa, Saturday, after spending the winter here were Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. McMaken.

George Lutz, 88, Former Shop Employee, Dies

George Lutz, resident of Plattsmouth and Louisville communities since 1882 died at the IOOF home at York on Sunday, March 29. He was 88 years old.

Native of Jacob, Illinois, he was born on April 21, 1864, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lutz.

Coming to Plattsmouth in 1882, Mr. Lutz was employed by the Burlington railroad and in the local shops. Later he moved to Louisville where he had lived until going to the home in February, 1952.

He was married to Katie Frank as a young man. Mr. Lutz was a member of Odd Fellows Lodge.

Surviving are three stepchildren, Mrs. Ray Core of Omaha; Henry Fernoff of Plattsmouth and William Gobelman of Salem, Oregon. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren, a brother, Mike Lutz of Plattsmouth, and a sister, Mrs. Paul Roegner of Lincoln.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. at Sattler Funeral Home with Rev. G. E. Seybold officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

Visiting hours will be held at the funeral home from 6 to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, April 1.

Sattler Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Police Court

Owning and harboring unlicensed dog — Robert Brittain, fined $5 and costs; John Rishel, fined $5 and costs; Leslie Nolte, fined $5 and costs; Frank Heigl, fined $5 and costs.

Passing school stop sign — Earl Troop, fined $3 and costs.

Intoxication — Everett L. Gilliland, Wilbur Gilliland Delmar, A. Rowell and Clarence G. Gilliland, all Brownville, committed to jail until $10 fines and court costs paid.

Parking meter violation — Donald H. Joe, Shenandoah, Ia., fined $1 and costs and 75 cents for three meter violations.

Improper parking — A. W. Cloldt, fined $1 and costs; Jess Collins, forfeit $5 bond; Frank Krejci, fined $1 and costs; and Maurice Martinson, fined $1 and costs.

Eugene Colbert of Weeping Water was in Plattsmouth on business Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Emma Olson, Resident Here 57 Years, Dies

Mrs. Emma Olson, resident of Plattsmouth for nearly 60 years, died at her home here Sunday, March 20, following a long illness. She was 79 years old.

Native of Halmstad, Sweden, where she was born December 1, 1873, Mrs. Olson came to the United States in 1891 and to Plattsmouth five years later. She had resided here since that time.

She was married at Plattsmouth on March 23, 1898 to Thelander E. Olson. He died in 1937.

She lived in her native Sweden until she was 17 years old. In the United States she lived in New York City and Chicago before coming to Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Olson was a member of the First Presbyterian church and Rebekah Lodge.

Surviving are three sons, Albert of Plattsmouth, Roy of Spokane, Wash., George of Washington, D. C.; four daughters, Miss Clara Olson of Plattsmouth; Miss Theima Olson of Kansas City, Mo.; Merle Long of Plattsmouth; and Mrs. Walter Gray of Washington, D. C.

Also surviving are a brother, in Sweden, a grandson, Wm. Thos. Long of Plattsmouth and four grandchildren in Washington, D. C.; and a great granddaughter, Rosalie Olson.

Preceding her in death besides her husband were two children, Pauline Olson Cartwright in 1922 and Elva Olson Patten in 1939.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. at Sattler Funeral Home with Rev. Keith Delapp officiating. Burial will be at Oak Hill cemetery with Sattler Funeral Home in charge.

Visiting hours will be held at the funeral home from 6 to 9 p.m. Tuesday, March 23.

Bud of Promise, Rebekah Lodge members are to meet in a group at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 1, at Sattler Funeral Home to attend services for Mrs. Olson.

Gary Hild Wins Top Dairy Honor At U of N Show

Gary Hild has been selected reserve Grand Champion of the University Dairy Royal Show, which was held at the University of Nebraska for the 1953-54 season.

A sophomore at the University, Gary is majoring in general agriculture. He is a member of the University of Nebraska Builders, YMCA and 4-H Club. He is also a member of the Block and Bridle club, an animal husbandry departmental on the campus.

In addition he is a member of the 1953 University Corp judging team and is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho, an agriculture-social fraternity.

Gleason Attends Midwest Meeting

Walter Gleason, manager of the Central Gas Company office at Plattsmouth, left Saturday night for Colorado Springs to attend the Midwest Gas Association meet at the Broadmore hotel.

Gleason expects to return to Plattsmouth Thursday.

George Lutz, 88, Former Shop Employee, Dies

George Lutz, resident of Plattsmouth and Louisville communities since 1882 died at the IOOF home at York on Sunday, March 29. He was 88 years old.

Native of Jacob, Illinois, he was born on April 21, 1864, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lutz.

Coming to Plattsmouth in 1882, Mr. Lutz was employed by the Burlington railroad and in the local shops. Later he moved to Louisville where he had lived until going to the home in February, 1952.

He was married to Katie Frank as a young man. Mr. Lutz was a member of Odd Fellows Lodge.

Surviving are three stepchildren, Mrs. Ray Core of Omaha; Henry Fernoff of Plattsmouth and William Gobelman of Salem, Oregon. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren, a brother, Mike Lutz of Plattsmouth, and a sister, Mrs. Paul Roegner of Lincoln.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. at Sattler Funeral Home with Rev. G. E. Seybold officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

Visiting hours will be held at the funeral home from 6 to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, April 1.

Sattler Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tax Problems Aired By County Officials With State Taxman

Fred Spangler, Farmer Here 70 Years, Dies

Fredrich Spangler, native of Ohio and resident of the Plattsmouth community for 70 years, died at St. Catherine's hospital at Omaha on Sunday, March 29, of a heart condition. He had been ill for several months.

Born at Beaver Crossing, Ohio on April 30, 1875, he came to Plattsmouth in 1883 at the age of 8 with his parents, the late Charles and Elizabeth Spangler.

He was married on February 8, 1899 at the United Brethren church at Plattsmouth to Dorothy Jane Burke with T. K. Surface officiating. He had farmed throughout his active lifetime in the Plattsmouth-Mynard communities.

Mr. Spangler was a member of Mynard Evangelical United Brethren church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Jane Spangler of Plattsmouth; daughters, Mrs. Lillian Sack of Murray and Mrs. Nettie Mumm of Plattsmouth; a son, Homer, of Fremont; five grandchildren, two great grandchildren and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Ezra Albin of Union, who was reared by the Spanglers.

Also surviving are three brothers, Philip of Lincoln, Chris of Edgar and Charles of Madison, and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Hite of Hastings, Ia., and Mrs. Ezra Livingston of Weeping Water.

Funeral services will be held at Mynard E. U. B. church on Tuesday, March 31, at 2 p.m., with Rev. M. L. Shaffer officiating. Burial will be at Horning cemetery, south of Plattsmouth.

Visiting hours will be held at Sattler Funeral Home on Monday evening from 6 to 9. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Sattler Funeral Home.

Chamber Slates Meeting April 8 For Membership

The regular quarterly meeting of the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce will be held on April 8th at Plattsmouth Hotel. Chamber Manager Charles Dear has announced.

The meeting, at which all Chamber members are urged to be present, will be held at the Hotel at 7:30 and will be followed by a lunch.

Dear said that unless members notify his office otherwise by 5 p.m. on April 7th the Chamber will assume that they plan to attend. Members planning to attend the business meeting, but who won't stay for lunch, are also advised to call the Chamber office to cancel their reservations.

The Chamber manager expressed hopes of having "the largest attendance ever at one of these regular meetings" in view of the fact that members are not being asked to buy a banquet ticket.

Date for the regular membership meeting was set by the board of directors.

ATTEND MEETING

C. E. Shellenbarger and Les Hutchinson attended a state meeting of Sinclair Dealers at Omaha Thursday at which they learned of new products to be put on the market by the company during the coming month.

Court House Briefs

License for marriage was issued Thursday in county court to Carl Johann Veres, 68, of Norfolk, and Clara Emma Thaden, 45, also of Norfolk.

R. L. Hauserman was fined $10 and costs in county court on a charge of intoxication. Crawford pleaded "not guilty" to the charge.

Petition has been filed in county court for administration of the estate of Peter Nelson of Louisville. Petition asks appointment of H. B. Koop, Louisville, administrator. Smith and Lebens are attorneys for the estate.

Alvin L. Schwartz was fined $10 and costs in county court after pleading guilty to having no tail light on his vehicle.

James I. Stinson was fined $15 and costs in county court on a charge of speeding.

Sceding also cost Robert L. Miller $15 and costs in county court after pleading guilty to charges of possession of alcoholic liquors by a minor.

Geraldine Atteberg was fined $10 and costs in county court on a charge of speeding.

Rains and Cool Temperatures Mark Month's End

Figuratively speaking—March has lived up to advance predictions.

Moving into the area like a lion, it brought cold, snow and wind.

Going into it has left a much needed rain, cool temperatures, a variety of wind and sunshine, and a promise for more of the same through tonight and possibly on Tuesday, final day of the month.

Reports this morning showed that 36 inch of rain fell between 6 p. m. Sunday night and six o'clock this morning. Light rain fell intermittently throughout this morning, Monday.

The much needed moisture has been welcomed by Cass farmers who are finding that the ground is generally dry and hard as they begin spring field work.

In general, March is going out "like a lamb."

Reports this morning showed that 36 inch of rain fell between 6 p. m. Sunday night and six o'clock this morning. Light rain fell intermittently throughout this morning, Monday.

The much needed moisture has been welcomed by Cass farmers who are finding that the ground is generally dry and hard as they begin spring field work.

In general, March is going out "like a lamb."

Reports this morning showed that 36 inch of rain fell between 6 p. m. Sunday night and six o'clock this morning. Light rain fell intermittently throughout this morning, Monday.

The much needed moisture has been welcomed by Cass farmers who are finding that the ground is generally dry and hard as they begin spring field work.

In general, March is going out "like a lamb."

Reports this morning showed that 36 inch of rain fell between 6 p. m. Sunday night and six o'clock this morning. Light rain fell intermittently throughout this morning, Monday.

The much needed moisture has been welcomed by Cass farmers who are finding that the ground is generally dry and hard as they begin spring field work.

In general, March is going out "like a lamb."

Reports this morning showed that 36 inch of rain fell between 6 p. m. Sunday night and six o'clock this morning. Light rain fell intermittently throughout this morning, Monday.

The much needed moisture has been welcomed by Cass farmers who are finding that the ground is generally dry and hard as they begin spring field work.

In general, March is going out "like a lamb."

Reports this morning showed that 36 inch of rain fell between 6 p. m. Sunday night and six o'clock this morning. Light rain fell intermittently throughout this morning, Monday.

The much needed moisture has been welcomed by Cass farmers who are finding that the ground is generally dry and hard as they begin spring field work.

In general, March is going out "like a lamb."

Reports this morning showed that 36 inch of rain fell between 6 p. m. Sunday night and six o'clock this morning. Light rain fell intermittently throughout this morning, Monday.

The much needed moisture has been welcomed by Cass farmers who are finding that the ground is generally dry and hard as they begin spring field work.

In general, March is going out "like a lamb."

Damage Action Is Filed Here in Cass County Court

Mrs. Florence Switzer and Richard Switzer have filed damage action in Cass county court against Clarence B. King and the Omaha Public Power District for damages received in an auto accident last September.

Petition alleged that King, driver of the company's truck, stopped without warning on a Weeping Water street, resulting in a collision with the Switzer car, driven by Richard.

Mrs. Switzer asks $1,000 and Richard asks $204 for property damage and $144 for medical expenses.

ATTEND SERVICES

Attending funeral services here Friday for Mrs. F. G. Hull were Mrs. J. Fred Hull, the Misses Sophia and Emma Hite of Maryville, Mo. Mrs. Cleve Meyers and Mrs. Howard Maddux of Woodward, Iowa; John Maddux of Des Moines, Iowa; and Duncan Hull of Holton, Kansas.

For a Good Buy—Give the Journal Classifieds a try.

Phone Directory To Be Distributed Here April 1st

New telephone directories will be distributed within the next few months by the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Company at Plattsmouth. E. A. Ernst announced today.

Books are now being assembled and punched at the Plattsmouth Journal to be ready for distribution by April 1. Printing of the books has been completed.

Ernst points out that the new directories, with corrected and adjusted phone numbers for persons changing address or moving into the city, are as up-to-date as possible. He requests that old telephone directories be taken out of service when the new ones are received.

The 56-page directory, giving phone numbers of residents at Plattsmouth, Louisville and Murray, as well as including a 23-page classified section, also provides additional information on special numbers to call in case of emergencies and also gives some information about long distance calls under the coast-to-coast dial system in use at Plattsmouth.

Louisville Man Guilty of Robbery

A district court jury Thursday found Gerald Frederick Rakes, 27-year old Louisville man, guilty of robbing 81-year-old James E. Pugh of $12 last January 31.

The jury deliberated for an hour and a half before reaching a verdict.

Pugh pointed out Rakes in the courtroom as the man who had robbed him. Rakes claimed that he had been at his apartment in Louisville the night of the robbery and had not been in Nebraska City.

Rakes will be sentenced by District Judge John Dierks at a later date.