Coin Boxes for Multiple Sclerosis Drive Placed Here

Plattsmouth is participating directly in the Nebraska Multiple Sclerosis drive which is now in progress to help raise $10,000, the State's part of the $1,200,000 National goal.

Coin boxes have been placed in the local Hinky-Dinky store together with posters and literature to acquaint the public with the "mystery crippler." Local citizens are diligently working for this cause.

Multiple Sclerosis is a chronic disease of the central nervous system which often cripples or incapacitates its victims for life. Monies are needed to further research and treatment for the over 250,000 victims who are afflicted with this dread disease.

Persons wishing to help in this pioneer medical undertaking should send their contribution to Multiple Sclerosis, c/o Local Postmaster.

Ralles-Duxbury Wedding Vows Solemnized Friday

Pedestal baskets of white, lilies and white gladioli, with two seven branch candelabra appointed the chancel for the wedding of Miss Virginia Mary-Lou Ralles and Richard Marion Duxbury.

Miss Ralles is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick Ralles of Lincoln and Mr. Duxbury is the son of Judge and Mrs. A. H. Duxbury of Lincoln, formerly of Plattsmouth.

The ceremony was performed at 8 p.m. Friday at Holy Trinity church with the Rev. David Gracey and Dr. Frank A. Court officiating before 300 guests. Miss Priscilla Jones and Nicholas Amos were soloists and Houghton Furr was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of monastery white fashioned of nylon tulle over taffeta and Irish lace applique. The fitted bodice emphasized an off-the-shoulder effect with a softly draped fichu. A double bouffant skirt featured one ballerina length skirt with a floor length skirt. Both were finished with wide dust ruffles. Her double finger tip veil fell from a brimmed bonnet. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Earl H. Brown. She wore a ballerina-length gown in frosted turquoise fashioned with net-over-satin. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Lucas, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Charlotte Hervert; Miss Ann Jane Hall of York; and Miss Patricia Kraft. They wore strapless ballerina gowns fashioned with matching stoles in shades of pink, blue, gold and green. Frederick Coral Brown was ring bearer.

William Lucas served as best man. Ushers were Dr. Earl H. Brown, John Faltsy of Blair, George Turner and Edward Ackerman.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Following their wedding trip to New Orleans and Florida, the couple will reside at 1742 K street, Lincoln.

Mrs. Duxbury is a graduate of both Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., and the University of Nebraska. She is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary music fraternity.

Mr. Duxbury is attending the University of Nebraska law college where he is a member of Sigma Nu and Phi Delta Phi, law fraternity.

Returning home Thursday from a vacation in Southern Missouri, were Mr. and Mrs. McGill.

Sunday School Contest Conducted

The pastor of the First Christian Church last week announced a one-week Bible reading contest to the Sunday School pupils. Nineteen of the children accepted the challenge and in one week read a combined total of 21,291 verses from the Bible. Some of the children were even reported to have given up some of their play time to voluntarily read the Scriptures and add to their total.

A Bible memory verse contest is in progress this week.
