Cub Scouts Have Kite Flying Contest

The Cub Scouts held their kite flying contest Sunday afternoon in Francis Thoren's pasture. This contest had been postponed because of the weather was too bad the Sundays before.

There are 28 Cub Scout boys and most of them were entered in the contest. This was a father and son team contest. The wind was strong and ruined several of the kites. Some were unable to get their kites in the air.

Winners of the contest were Larry Houseman and his father, first prize; Larry Beach and his father, Claire Beach, won second; Billy Kunz and his father, William Kunz, won third; and Henry Hoffman and his father, Henry Hoffman, Sr., won fourth.

Lynn Parson and Neil Fitzpatrick were the judges.

Wayne Dunkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Dunkle, Richard Lorenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lorenson; Henry Hoffman, Jr., son of Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Hoffman, Sr., and Billy Raines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Raines, are to be new members of the Cub Scouts, as they are all eight years old.

Their son, Wayne Patton, is in the Navy and his ship docked Wednesday after they arrived in California Saturday and they met him at the ship. About 2000 people met this ship. Wayne had the following Friday off and he drove his folks to Hollywood and they were able to see a radio and television show, "Those Two." They enjoyed watching the television show.

On the journey home they stopped at Bryce's Canyon in Utah, and also stopped at the Hoover Dam.

Mrs. Worman served lunch. The next meeting will be April 24 with Mrs. Fred Neumeister.

A special film, "Where the Bible Speaks" was shown at the Christian church Sunday evening. A good crowd attended. Harrison Livingston opened the evening's program with the group singing of "Wonderful Words of Life." Mrs. Leon Bond read from the Book of Matthew.

This film was the history and the work of the Christian church. A large handwritten manuscript of a portion of the Bible was shown. This old Hebrew manuscript, containing the first five books of the Old Testament, was purchased by the Rev. E. L. Whisler, producer of the film, while he was making shots for the picture in Palestine.

An offering was taken after the film was shown to help pay for it.

Mrs. Leon Bond presented three new version Bibles to the boys who were the winners in a recent contest that was held in Endeavor. This contest was on the book of Mark. Edwin Sterling and Buster Baxter each missed two questions that were asked of them in the eight weeks of the contest. Some of the questions were quite hard and some were easy so Mrs. Bond felt these boys should be highly commended.

Mrs. Ed Steinkamp returned home from Lincoln Tuesday evening, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gardner. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Steinkamp stayed at the Ed Steinkamp farm while Mrs. Steinkamp was in Lincoln. Mrs. Alvin Groesser and Mrs. Sterling Wiles took Mrs. Steinkamp to Lincoln Thursday and Friday to visit with Mr. Steinkamp.

Lula Jeanine Cooper attended the school carnival at Nehawka Friday evening. The door prize of a nice lamp was won by Dewey Mones.
