

Johnson-Kirchhoff Wedding Vows Solemnized April 7th

Pink and yellow gladiolas and baskets of white snapdragons decorated the altar for the wedding of Miss Belva J. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson of Avoca, and Harlan D. Kirchhoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirchhoff of Weeping Water on Tuesday, April 7, at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The Rev. F. Bracher performed the ceremony at which Mrs. Bracher was soloist. She sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. R. R. Rube.

Mrs. Jerry Johnson, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Lois Wilson and Evelyn Freudenberg. They wore gowns in pink, yellow and green with strapless bodices and bolero and carried colonial bouquets.

For her wedding the bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white lace with satin featuring a nylon net yoke with outlined lace flowers centered with seed pearls. She carried roses and a white orchid.

Candlelighters were Bonita Johnson and Alberta Kirchhoff and flower girls were Fay Rippe and Loretta Kirchhoff. Sonny Kirchhoff was ring bearer.

Ralph Brockhoff was best man and ushers were Robert Kirchhoff and Darrel Johnson, brothers of the bride and groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. After a wedding trip to San Antonio, Tex., and through the Ozarks, Mr. and Mrs. Kirchhoff will be at home on a farm near Avoca after April 21.

Mrs. Kirchhoff is a graduate of Avoca high school with the class of 1951 and attended business college before being employed at a Lincoln bank.

The groom graduated from Avoca high school and has been farming.

Question Asked At May Fellowship Day Nears Here

"What would you do for the world if you were running it?" That's one of the questions United Church Women are posing here on May Fellowship Day on Friday, May 1, to be held at St. Luke's Episcopal church.

Theme for the day, to be observed in thousands of communities throughout the United States, is "Citizenship—Our Christian Concern."

United Church Women at Plattsmouth are sponsoring the May Fellowship Day, which will start at 2 p. m. on May 1.

QUESTION: I have a chance to buy a good station wagon but a friend told me that because it has several seats, I would have to pay a high insurance rate. Is this true?

ANSWER: No, a station wagon is rated for insurance according to its use. If used as a private passenger car the insurance rate will be in that classification.

* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.
