

Cullom Extension Club Completes "Nurse" Lesson

Cullom Extension club met at the home of Mrs. Peter Halmes April 9 with 19 members and two visitors present. Visitors were Mrs. Friz Siemoneit and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson and infant son, of Omaha.

Prior to the regular meeting club members held the second half of their previous month's lesson on "home nursing". Mrs. Otto Peteret and Mrs. Marvin Richards again demonstrated how to make a sick person comfortable at home by using inexpensive materials from around the house.

Members learned how to make bed tables and back rests out of strong cardboard boxes; a bathrobe from a folded and fitted blanket; and folding bath towels into a fitting bed jacket. They also learned how to make up a patient's bed and change linens. Elyn Meisinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Meisinger, posed as the patient.

The president, Mrs. Fred Wehrlein, led the group in repeating the creed and the club collect, followed by singing the club song and "Singing in the Rain" with Mrs. Marvin Peteret as song leader. They voted a $2.50 donation to the multiple sclerosis drive.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. Ford Helm, secretary. The group will have a book review at the home of Mrs. Emil Schmidt on April 30. The review on "40 Odds" will be given by Mrs. Allen Mactier of Omaha.

In the syndicated part of your Monday's issue is a question and answer department.

Question—Who is the founder of the Episcopal church.
Answer—Henry VIII. This is false history. The church of England, the mother church of the Episcopal church is one of the three branches of the Catholic church. It has claim to apostolic succession, therefore Henry VIII could not be its founder.
